

Staters Come From Behind in Fourth Period to Beat Oregon 12-7

JOE DAY SCORES VITAL TOUCHDOWN ON 28 YARD JAUNT

Oregon Gains 7-6 Edge On Mecham's Long Run—Penalty Hits Ducks.

Eugene, Ore., Nov. 29.—(AP)—Forced to come from behind in the final quarter, the orange-shirted Oregon State Beavers overcame a one-point deficit and defeated the University of Oregon, 12 to 7 today.

A relentless 60-yard drive, concluding with a vicious 28-yard buck and run through center by Sub Fullback Joe Day netted the touchdown.

For a while in the fourth quarter it looked as if the conference championship scramble might wind up in a four or five way tie as Oregon held on to a 7-6 lead. Had Oregon held on it would have meant Oregon, Washington State and possibly Washington would be cut in for bowl consideration.

Near To Another But the Beavers came back for their winning touchdown and were on the Oregon five-yard line seeking another as the game ended, whereupon the Beaver subs rushed to the field and carried off the battered and happy gridders on their shoulders.

After a scoreless first half punctuated by several thrill-producing punts and runs, the Beavers struck for a touchdown in the first seven minutes of the third period.

Halfback Bob Dethman returned a punt 15 yards to the Oregon 38. Southpaw Halfback Don Durand flipped an 11-yard pass to End George Zellick.

On the next play "Choc" Shelton, fullback, hit for two yards, but an unnecessary roughness penalty called against Oregon saw Referee Jack Freil pace off 15 yards to the Oregon 3-yard strip. Neither Dethman nor Durand could gain in two plays, but Shelton sliced off the Oregon right guard for the final three yards and the score.

A persistently heavy south wind swerved Sub Halfback Warren Simas' high kick for the extra point and it sailed wide.

Oregon went ahead, striking like lightning on the first play of the last quarter. Curt Mecham, who played a whale of a game at halfback, ran to his left with his left arm cocked as if to pass, then he cut for the sidelines, outdistanced the Oregon State secondary by sweeping back to midfield and went over the goal line with a beautiful 88-yard run.

Halfback Jimmy Newquist's kick was true and an upset was in the making before a capacity crowd of 20,500.

Regulars Out But the Beavers took possession on their own 40 after a punt exchange. Durand flipped a 10-yard pass to Zellick on the 50. Day hit for one, then Durand passed to Quarterback George Peters for 12 yards to the Webfoot 37. Dethman skirted left end for nine and Oregon's Coach Tex Oliver sent in his two regular guards, Val Culwell and Scapiron Rhea.

On the next play Day bucked and barreled his way between the two guards, was seemingly stopped, then spun clear and over the goal line with a 28-yard jaunt. Simas' try for point was partly blocked, but it made no difference. The Beavers drove from their own 46 to the Oregon five at the finish.

Oregon State Oregon Zellick L.E. Crish Winkett L.T. Moshofsky Halverson L.G. Rhea Greenough C. Wilson Chaves R.G. Culwell Saunders R.T. Ashcom N. Peters R.E. Regner C. Peters Q.B. Iverson Dethman L.H. Newquist Durand R.H. Mecham Shelton F.B. Koch Oregon State 0 0 6 6-12 Oregon 0 0 0 7-7

Oregon State scoring: Touchdowns, Shelton, Day (sub for Shelton). Oregon scoring: Touchdown, Mecham. Point after touchdown, Newquist (placement).

Use Mail Tribune Want Ads

Football Scores

Far West California 16, Stanford 0. Oregon State 12, Oregon 7. Arizona 28, Kansas State 21. Washington 14, Southern Calif. 13. Colorado College 20, Occidental College 24.

East Navy 14, Army 6. Boston College 14, Holy Cross 13. Fordham 30, New York Univ. 9. Pittsburgh 27, Carnegie Tech 0. Michigan State 14, West Virginia 12. Hofstra 30, Panzer 0.

Auburn 26, Clemson 7. Louisiana State 19, Tulane 9. Mississippi State 6, Mississippi 0. Camp Croft 14, Wofford 0. The Citadel 28, Swannee 0. Virginia Tech 13, Richmond 0. Penn State 19, South Carolina 12. Texas Tech 25, Wake Forest 6. Tennessee 26, Vanderbilt 7.

North Carolina State 13, William and Mary 0. Georgia 21, Georgia Tech. 0. Midwest Marquette 28, Iowa State 13. Xavier (O.) 14, Georgetown 5. Nebraska 7, Oklahoma 6.

St. Louis 28, Washington 0. Springfield (Mo.) Teachers 6, Southwestern (Kas.) 0.

Southwest Rice 28, Baylor 14. Texas Christian 15, Southern Methodist 13.

Hardin-Simmons 15, Howard Payne 7.

New Mexico 28, Wyoming 0.

CLOSING DRIVE OF NAVY BEATS ARMY, FORDHAM VICTORS

New York, Nov. 29.—(AP)—Mississippi State annexed the Southeastern title by whipping the University of Mississippi, 6-0, on a 38-yard quarterback sneak by Sophomore Jennings Moates.

Both Mississippi State and Mississippi entered the game undefeated in conference play.

Meanwhile Navy closed out a brilliant season by running over hard-fighting Army, 14-6 as a crowd of close to 100,000 looked on at Philadelphia. Army dominating play in the first half, pushed over a touchdown in the second period but could not match Navy's closing drive. Led by Bill Busik and Howie Clark the Tars scored twice in the third period and closed down on every Army threat. Navy thus closed a successful season marred only by the defeat by Notre Dame and a tie with Harvard.

Other leading engagements in the east saw Fordham's once-beaten Rams trounce New York University, 30-9, to keep alive their hopes of a bowl date; Boston College came from behind to nip Holy Cross, 14-13, with Frank Maznicki in the starring role, and Pitt, with Edgar Jones and Bill Dutton each scoring twice, bury Carnegie Tech, 27-0. Penn State won a hard-earned line but West Virginia fell before 19-12 victory over South Carolina. Michigan State, 14-12, and Xavier of Cincinnati scored a surprise triumph over Georgetown, 14-6.

Nebraska, edging out Oklahoma 7-6, finished in a tie with the Sooners for second place in the Big Six conference race won by Missouri. Iowa State, Big Six school, was no match for Marquette and went down, 28-13. Kansas State bowed to Arizona, 28-21.

Texas Christian rallied to whip Southern Methodist, 13-13, and thus tied Texas for second place in the Southwest conference race won by Texas A. & M. Rice walloped Baylor, 28-14.

Frank Sinkwich tossed three touchdown passes as Georgia easily whipped Georgia Tech, 21-0, in the Southeastern conference. Tennessee, showing surprising strength and depending largely on a pair of sophomores, Walter Slater and Bobby Clifers, handed Vanderbilt a bad beating, 26-7. Louisiana State mopped up erratic Tulane, 19-0. Auburn upset favored Clemson, 28-7.

In the Southern conference, North Carolina State surprised once-beaten William and Mary and won comfortably, 13-0. Virginia Tech stopped Richmond by the same score. Wake Forest was roundly drubbed by Texas Tech, 35-6.

New York, Nov. 29.—(AP)—Twenty-eight state commissioners to supervise sandlot baseball next year were named today by President Ray Dumont of the National Semi-Pro Baseball congress.

CALIFORNIA WINS 16-0 UPSET OVER STANFORD SQUAD

Tackle Reinhard Is Hero—Bears Score Early And Never Headed.

By Russ Newland Palo Alto, Calif., Nov. 29.—(AP)—California's Golden Bears, rising to inspirational heights, wrote a stunning climax to an up and down football season today with a 16 to 0 upset victory over the defending Coast conference champions, Stanford's Indians.

A crowd of 70,000 fans, braving threatening weather saw the one to three short end Bears blast Stanford's flimsy Rose Bowl boys with crushing defensive play, after moving into a first period lead on a single touchdown run.

California struck with lightning speed a minute after the game opened to score a touchdown, add the extra point and go into a lead that was never threatened.

Nine more points were posted in a thrilling last quarter, when the Bears poured through to block two Stanford punts. One resulted in an automatic safety. The ball bounced out of the end zone.

The game had barely gotten under way when the Bears, getting the ball on Stanford's 46-yard line, flashed to a touchdown. Al Derian, left half, raced that distance after a cut-back inside right end. Joe Merlo, quarterback, booted the placement to make the count 7-0.

In the fourth quarter, on the safety scoring play, Witter, right guard, charged into Frank Albert before the left footed all-American quarterback of 1940 could get the ball out of reach.

With two minutes to go, Cole, substituting for Albert, was behind his own goal to kick. Whalen, California quarterback, sliced through this time. The ball popped up into the air and big Bob Reinhard, left tackle of the Bears, leaped into the air to clutch it for a touchdown. Merlo added the extra point again with a place-kick.

The Bears, battered into five defeats earlier in the season, were invincible today. There wasn't the question of a doubt as to which school had fielded the better team for the 1941 playing of a game started back in 1892.

California played the kind of a game that two other teams used to beat the T-formation—rushing the passer. Hero of the encounter was 220-pound Reinhard, playing his last conference game. His instructions were to keep his eyes on Albert and he carried them to the letter.

REGULAR SUNDAY SHOOT PRACTICE

Regular Sunday practice shooting, combined with a number of events to be shot for groceries and other merchandise prizes, will be held at the Medford Gun club this morning at 10:30. Both skeet and 16-yard shooting will be held, the former starting promptly at 10:30 and the latter following as soon as the skeet events are completed.

At the shoot last Sunday the club discussed the purchase of a new site necessitated by the approaching enlargement of the airport. An announcement of a new location and plans for increased activities is expected to be made next week.

The public is invited to participate in the practice and merchandise events today.

Closing time for Classified Ads 9 a. m.—Too Late to Classify 12:30 p. m.

HUSKIES MANAGE TO EKE OUT 14-13 WIN OVER TROJAN

Los Angeles, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Washington and Southern California clashed in another of their bitter grid battles today and the Huskies from the north-west, riding on luck, pulled out with a narrow 14-13 triumph.

The struggling Washingtons fashioned two plays, each good for 50 yards, to hold back a Trojan that dominated the contest and all but tied it up with a touchdown in the last seven seconds of the game.

Just as a pair of missed conversions robbed the Troys of a tie with mighty Notre Dame a week ago, so did two bad after-touchdown place kicks—plus a field goal attempt from the 12-yard stripe—cost them a chance for a tie or a triumph today.

A scanty crowd of 35,000—threatening clouds held it down—saw Washington's sophomore halfback ace, Erickson, hurl a mighty pass for 50 yards and a touchdown to Left End Younglove in the second quarter for the opening score of the engagement.

Southern Cal's stalwarts, led by Bobby Robertson, took the second half kickoff and with a great burst of power marched 75 yards in nine plays for a score. Robertson charging through the line for the final 14 yards.

From then on into the last quarter the ball game belonged to Coach Sam Barry's Trojans, even if the top score didn't. Twice they whipped within scoring range, only to miss out.

Suddenly, after De Lauer had missed his field goal try from the 12, and again the Troys had been stopped by a pass interception by the Washington center, Harrison, the Huskies took possession, worked up to midfield—and Stackpool, the fullback, slipped off a tackle, and as the Trojans let him on through, galloped 50 yards down field for the winning score.

The Trojans continued to try, and finally failed in the last seven seconds when the Huskies, stalling for time, had to punt on fourth down from their 20. Bob Snow was the punter and the Trojan line proved to be the blocker. They slammed into Snow, the ball bounced backward into the end zone and De Lauer recovered for a touchdown. De Lauer kicked this extra point, but it was too late—the game ended in a few more seconds.

GEORGIA PICKED FOR ORANGE BOWL

Miami, Fla., Nov. 29.—(AP)—Georgia will represent the South in the Orange Bowl football game New Year's Day, it was announced tonight.

An opponent probably will be named Monday, the schedule committee announced. Committeemen said the choice lies among Missouri, Duquesne, Texas, Fordham and Penn State.

New York, Nov. 29.—(AP)—The 377-ton Swedish motorship tanker Uno has been sunk in the North Sea, the Swedish American news exchange said today.

WOODEN SHOES Vichy Nov. 29.—(AP)—The newspaper La France Socialiste said today that municipal officials in the Paris workers' suburbs were buying large quantities of wooden shoes for school children because of the leather shortage.

For an extra outlet or a complete wiring job—call OLSON ELECTRIC Dial 2846. 3 N. Central

Closing time for Classified Ads 9 a. m.—Too Late to Classify 12:30 p. m.

WEALTHY FORMER CAPONE CHIEFTAIN HELD AS VAGRANT

New York, Nov. 29.—(AP)—Johnny Torrio, erstwhile Chicago gangster and ex-convict, arrested on a Brooklyn street last night and charged with vagrancy, said in police lineup today that he was a real estate broker with property in Honolulu, Florida, Maryland and Brooklyn.

Despite that claim of affluence, which would blank the police charge that he had no means of support—his wife several years ago bailed him out of jail with $104,000 in cash—Police Captain Michael Ledden told Torrio:

"You had better stay out of this state; you'd better go to Honolulu, Florida or Maryland and start selling that property. You're not wanted here."

After about two minutes in the lineup in Manhattan, Torrio was taken back to Brooklyn for arraignment.

Through Attorney Joseph A. McKinney he pleaded innocent in Magistrate James A. Blayfield's court and was released in $1,000 bail for further hearing next Friday.

Torrio conducted himself with severe dignity throughout.

The former racketeer, reputed to have taught Al Capone the bootlegging business and all that went with it, had $15 in his pocket when picked up in Brooklyn. Police say he is worth at least $1,000,000 in cash and Brooklyn real estate.

Torrio is high on Mayor F. H. La Guardia's "purge" list to rid the town of undesirables.

SPokane BALL LINK Spokane, Nov. 29.—(AP)—Bill Ulrich, owner of the Spokane Indians of the Western International Baseball league, said today the team would have a "working agreement" with the Seattle Rainiers of the Pacific Coast league next year.

SAVOLD WINS TOURNEY Detroit, Nov. 29.—(AP)—Blond Lee Savold was $9,000 richer today and winner of Promoter Frank Barbaro's "white hope" heavyweight boxing tournament, but he can thank a jolting left and a decision of Referee Sam Hennessy for a 10-round victory over Jack Marshall.

HERE IT IS!

THE NEW REMINGTON Double Header

(MAGNETIC MODEL) A New and Lower priced companion to the famous Remington Dual. Shaves in 90 Seconds! Come in and ask about our—10 DAY FREE $12.75 TRIAL PLAN

Distributor Service

Larry Schade

Your Favorite Jeweler

FRIDAY BANQUET TICKETS ON SALE

An interesting program has been arranged for the sportsmen's banquet to be held at the Hotel Medford next Friday at 6:30 p. m. This annual banquet for sportsmen of the Rogue river valley is being sponsored by the Rogue River Sportsmen's club of Medford and the Central Point Sportsmen's club.

A series of motion pictures will be shown at the conclusion of the banquet. Interesting speeches have been arranged regarding conservation of fish and game. Representatives of the state game commission will be present as well as representatives of all groups interested in the program of conservation. The senior high school male quartet will sing several numbers.

Tickets are now available at Piche's sporting goods store, Lamport's, Hubbard Brothers, and Kidd's shoe store in Medford, and the Ross & Ross store in Central Point.

High School Scores

(By the Associated Press) Amity 13, Newport 12. Corvallis 26, Lebanon 0. Jefferson 12, Grant 0. (Both Portland). Milton-Freewater 18, Albany 14.

ORDERS TO SELL

Portland Ore., Nov. 29.—(AP)—The Portland General Electric company must sell its Woodburn, Ore. and Clark county, Wash., distribution lines in order to use federal power the Bonneville administration said yesterday.

TONY ZALE WINS BOUT WITH CONN, DEFEATS ABRAMS

New York, Nov. 29.—(AP)—As a reward—or a punishment—for becoming the first whole, one-piece middleweight champion in a decade, Tony Zale sat back peacefully today and heard Promoter Mike Jacobs match him with Billy Conn for a 12-round bout February 13 in Madison Square Garden.

Boasting a body attack like nothing that's been seen around these parts since Paul Berlenbach blasted Buys wide open, the Gary (Ind.) steel-worker came off the floor to nip George Abrams in their red-hot 160-pound title tussle last night in the Garden.

Under protest, Johnny Ray, Conn's vest-pocket manager, gave a half-hearted okay to the fight between his battler and the new middleweight boss, but along Jacobs beach the betting was slightly better than even money that the tussle never would come off.

Certainly, Zale looked all over the best of the 160-pound collection in tossing those tummy torpedoes at Abrams after a first-round knockdown before a crowd of 10,004. But a lot of the beachcombers scratched their heads and wondered why that win should shoo the sturdy steelworker head on into Conn. That's like hitting a punch-board for a baby grand piano, provided you can carry it home.

Closing time for Classified Ads 9 a. m.—Too Late to Classify 12:30 p. m.

SOUTHERN OREGON ALL STAR SQUAD TOLD WEDNESDAY

The Medford Mail Tribune's eighth annual All-Southern Oregon conference football selections, fashioned by a vote of coaches and sports writers in the four league towns, will be published in this newspaper Wednesday.

Each head coach and each sports writer in Klamath Falls, Grants Pass, Ashland and Medford picked their own all-conference eleven, first and second, and the official all-star teams were produced on the basis of two points for every first team mention and one point for every second team nomination.

The Mail Tribune, sponsor of the selections for the past seven years, will as usual distribute award cards to all players making the first and second teams and honorable mention. The cards will have on them the player's name, position and school. The cards will fit into a billfold.

Balloting on the selections were Coaches Buck Hammer of Klamath Falls, Justin Weakley of Grants Pass, Frank O'Neil of Ashland, Bill Bowerman of Medford and Writers Bob Leonard of Klamath Falls, Jim Welch of Grants Pass, Larry Hunter of Ashland and Billy Hulien of Medford.

POISON OAK?

Try a bottle of ZEMACOL. You must be satisfied or your money cheerfully refunded. Get a bottle today at WESTERN THRIFT.

There's no doubt about it. The Dalles has a REAL football team... unquestionably champions. Medford's boys, however put up a swell battle—more power to them. Well, Christmas season is definitely here—and the crowd on Medford streets last Wednesday night proved that folks here are yuletide-minded. May we remind you that this store has the finest, most complete stock in southern Oregon—and we'll gladly help you solve YOUR problem of what to give the men and young men.

Glenn H. Utz

CHRISTMAS

Slippers in Woolies and Opera Styles

Gift PAJAMAS

Man-tailored by Glover, Pajamas tailored the revolutionary way, giving fine appearance and amazing new comfort. Pajamas embodying the eight points of Freedom. Ask to see them at once.

$1.95 and Up

Lounging Robes

By Courtney, Botany and Pendleton in Silk, Rayon and Wools. Hundreds for your selection $4.95 and up

GLENN H. UTZ • Utz For SUITS!

125 East Main Street. Medford Telephone 4542

Home of HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX and CURLEE CLOTHES

MOVING

Dawson Filing & Grinding Works

From 32 North Front to

129 N. Riverside

ACROSS FROM MERRICK'S

H. L. PRITCHARD CO.

126 North Front. Medford, Ore.

Specializing in Bearings for

All Tractors — Trucks — Passenger Cars and Machinery

PHONE 2020 NIGHTS 2019