

"Lady Be Good", Opening At Craterian Today, Boasts Array Of Stars

ELEANOR POWELL, ANN SOTHERN IN MUSICAL COMEDY

Robert Young And Red Skelton In Leading Roles
—Three Day Run.

Mickey Rooney went to the president's birthday ball in Washington. As a result, Red Skelton is knocking him dead in Hollywood, making his latest appearance in "Lady Be Good," in company with such stars as Eleanor Powell, Ann Sothern and Robert Young. The picture opens today at the Craterian theatre.

As a guest performer at the birthday ball, Rooney was introduced to Master of Ceremonies Skelton. Skelton had his audience in a complete laugh panic. Rooney was so impressed that when he landed in New York he could talk of nothing else to Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer executive J. Robert Rubin. As the result, Skelton was given a screen test, and is now hailed as that company's greatest comic discovery. Skelton plays a song plugger in "Lady Be Good," which revolves about a song-writing couple who click on Tin Pan Alley. In addition to a top story and top tunes, the film presents unusual dance numbers with Eleanor Powell introducing three new routines.

Presenting Ann Sothern once again as a song star, "Lady Be Good" is but the forerunner of pictures which will see Miss Sothern utilizing her rich, lyric-soprano voice.

"Texas" With Brilliant Cast, Coming Wednesday

A mighty cavalcade of action comes to the Craterian theatre for a four-day showing Wednesday with the opening of "Texas," epic new thriller of the great Southwest. William Holden, Claire Trevor and Glenn Ford are starred in the exciting story of the early days when Texas cattlemen found themselves facing almost unsurmountable odds taking their cattle through to Abilene, Kansas. George Bancroft, Edgar Buchanan and a huge cast are in support.

NAZIS SOW MINES ALONG SEA LANES

London, Nov. 29.—(P)—The German air force is sowing "considerable" mines along the sea lanes off the west coast of England through which some United States ships coming directly to Britain must sail, an authoritative source said tonight.

He said that this mining had been a continuing process but that the British had been "very successful" in dealing with air sown mines, although the "nuisance value" to the Germans had been enormous, considering how many men were required to keep the approaches swept clear.

Return Showing

Melvyn Douglas and Conrad Veidt are starred with Joan Crawford in the strange drama, "A Woman's Face," opening a three-day run today at the Roxy theatre. A story of a girl whose horribly disfigured face resulted in her turning her hatred on the world, the picture gives the glamorous Miss Crawford an entirely new characterization than those in which she usually appears.

DEAN FORD ORDERED TO AIR CORPS POST

Goodfellow Field, San Angelo, Texas, Nov. 29.—(P)—With the opening of the new Sherman-Denison Air Corps Basic Flying school 60 miles north of Dallas, Texas, 2nd Lt. Dean Wallace Ford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bennie E. Ford, of Medford, Ore., has been ordered to proceed there for immediate duty. Lt. Ford attended Oregon State college.

Victor Moore, the actor, is superstitious of the month of August for during that month all his family's misfortunes occurred.

"Sergeant York" Opening Today

The story of Alvin York, better known to millions of Americans as "Sergeant York," is brought to life on the screen of the Rialto theatre where it opens a full week's engagement today. Gary Cooper is starred in the title role, with Joan Leslie and Walter Brennan heading the supporting cast.

The widely-heralded biographical tribute to one of the World war's greatest heroes has been acclaimed from coast to coast as the greatest picture of the year. In addition to the exciting war sequences, including York's famous capture of 132 Germans, the film play shows the other side of Alvin York, little known to most, as the Tennessee mountaineer, who "got religion," became a conscientious objector, yet emerged as one of the greatest heroes of all time.

WITHHOLDING TAX SEEN INEVITABLE

Washington, Nov. 29.—(P)—President Roosevelt will call treasury experts and congressional leaders to a White House conference, probably next week, to seek an agreement on the substance of proposed new tax legislation.

Plans for the meeting were disclosed today by Chairman George (D-Ga.) of the senate finance committee, who told reporters he expected any new revenue program to provide for a payroll withholding tax.
