E. H. Hedrick was guest speaker at "Daddy's night" at Jackson school P.-T.A., Friday evening. His topic was "Defense" and he explained the national defense classes being held at the high school sponsored by and government cational education department

Dinner was served over 100 parents at long tables decor-ated with gourds and other items made in the leisure arts class at the school under direction of Mrs. Ursa Ogle. Mrs. Floyd Lawson, P.-T.A.

president, gave the welcome ad-dress and introduced the teachers to the parents. The Rogue River chorus, under supervision of Miss Mariam Burton, sang several selections. Mrs. Lawson, general chairman for the affair, thanked the various committees who worked on the dinner, making the affair a success.

Washington

Mrs. Leland Mentzer gave an interesting talk on "Good Books for Children" at the meeting of Washington school P.-T.A. Fri-day afternoon at the school school gymnasium. She suggested ways parents could instill the reading habit in their children. Mrs. Mentzer also displayed some books through courtesy of the Medford public library that are appropriate for children. Miss Esther Brown, school librarian, gave a short talk on children's books and explained the school library. A number of books suitable for children in the primary and intermed-tate grade were exhibited.

Music was furnished by the pupils of Mrs. George Canode and Mrs. Marian Beeson. During the business session it was announced that the next meet-ing will be the children's Christmas party and program. The January meeting will feature
