

CAMP PLANNING STAFF RECEIVES TRAVEL ORDERS

Capt. Bean's Aides To Be Widely Scattered—Most Of Civilians Are Through.

Orders for the officers of his staff were announced today by Capt. Theron W. Bean, constructing quartermaster whose office in the army will be closed tomorrow. The engineering offices of the proposed Marysville, Cal., and Albany and Medford army cantonments are being transferred to the San Francisco office where the work will be continued.

The orders transferred the officers as follows: 1st Lieut. Theodore E. Ebbert, operations officer here, to Camp Haan in Riverside county, Cal.; 1st Lieut. Emil F. Gehri, engineering officer, to Fort Lewis, Wash.; 1st Lieut. Byron E. Doll, executive officer, to zone 9 constructing quartermaster's office, San Francisco; 2nd Lieut. Robert L. Cotterman, assistant engineering officer, to Camp Haan; and 2nd Lieut. William A. Jones, assistant engineering officer, to Fort Ord, Cal. All are with the quartermaster corps.

Bean To San Fran
Capt. Bean himself will go with the job to the San Francisco office. He plans to leave as soon as closing of the office here is completed, probably tomorrow night. Claude M. Wade, administrative assistant, and Frank Bacon, field auditor, are being retained for employment at the San Francisco office. Mr. Wade's name was published incorrectly as Laird yesterday. All of the other 36 civilian employees will be let out here but it is expected that about a third of them will be re-employed at the San Francisco office.

Most of the furniture and equipment which the army bought for the office in the army will be shipped to Fort Lewis, Capt. Bean said. A small amount of the office furniture will go to Camp Callan, near San Diego, Cal., some typewriters will be sent to Camp Haan and the rest will go "with the job" to zone 9 headquarters, he related, adding that the furniture and supplies were badly needed at all four places.

Albany, Ore., Dec. 3.—(P)—Army constructing quartermaster offices maintained at Albany college since early summer will be closed today, Capt. T. E. Dittbrandt said.

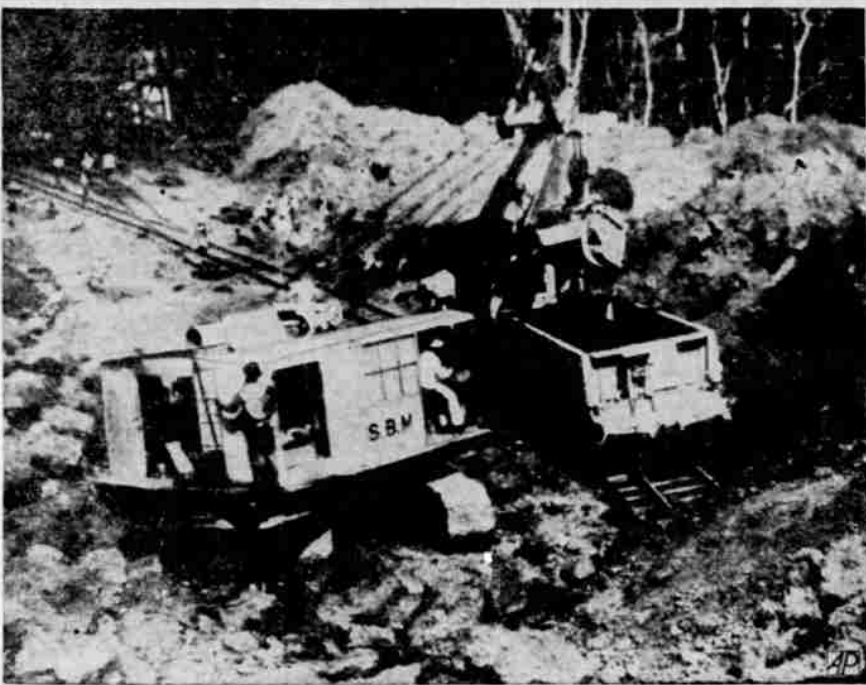

Staff members and carpenters crated equipment and blueprints for the proposed Corvallis-Monmouth army cantonment, but they would not say where the material would be taken. Dittbrandt refused to say what effect the closure of the offices would have on the proposed cantonment.

BIGGER FINE
Salisbury, Md.—(P)—Two men were fined $1 and costs each in court on gambling charges. Officer E. G. Nichols produced the evidence against them—two pairs of dice and a nickel, total sum in the men's crap game.

LITTLE DIFFERENCE
Parsons, Kas.—(P)—Police captured a runaway boy in the railroad yards and wired his parents, asking if they wanted him returned immediately. "It really doesn't make much difference," was the reply. "I still got a whole yard full."

URGES U. S. ACT TO HALT NAZIS IN SO. AMERICA

San Francisco.—(UP)—The United States can overcome the so-called Nazi infiltration of South America by an energetic influx of North American technicians and a large-scale interchange of students and professors, according to Dr. Gustav Egloff, world-famous petroleum and explosives expert.

Dr. Egloff, director of research for a Chicago oil products firm, recently returned from a survey trip to South America as one of a group of 21 American specialists in their field. The trip was sponsored by the Nelson Rockefeller Pan American committee. "What I saw in South America was enough to convince me South American countries not only have an abundance of natural resources needed for their own industrialization but also the latent talent to grasp problems involved and develop them to their fullest extent," Dr. Egloff said.

Latin Americans are temperamentally fitted to develop these talents among their nationals he said, but need instruction from the outside, chiefly from the United States, to develop their own technical schools.

Dr. Egloff advocated United States action to launch this educational program. What is needed is an exchange of students and professors by the tens of thousands with South American countries—at U. S. government expense, he said.

At the same time, he said, South American children from kindergarten on should receive instruction calculated to develop a natural bent for technical subjects.

The Germans long ago began this sort of education and the student and professor exchange plan at government expense, but Dr. Egloff feels Americans can do a better job.

Freightways Force Attends Supper in Style of Roundup

Consolidated Freightways, Inc., gave a "roundup" supper and sales meeting in the Hotel Medford Monday evening for the men and women of its sales force in Medford, Klamath Falls and Grants Pass. Thirty-two persons attended.

Supper was served in tin cups in old ranch house style and decorations and accessories carried out the atmosphere of pony express days of cowboys and stagecoaches and early express service.

John Eads, Medford magician, presented a program of legere-drama. Fred P. King, local agent, was ranch house foreman or master of ceremonies.

The conditions of a pending sales contest were explained.

Klamath Soldier Held A.W.O.L. Here

Robert L. White, 20, Klamath Falls, was being held in the county jail today pending arrival of a military guard to take him back to Fort Lewis, Wash.

White voluntarily reported Saturday to Paul Hanlin, U. S. deputy marshal, that he was A.W.O.L. from his army company at Fort Lewis. Deputy Hanlin got in touch with the recruiting office here and today a telegram was received from the commander at Fort Lewis that a guard would come here for White.

In support of its contention, the association cited the views of the state's attorney general and decisions of high courts. "The principle of the punch board is essentially a gamble and is morally wrong," the statement said.

In a general discussion, the Rev. Mr. Coleman said the district attorney (George W. Neilson) was unable to find any court decisions holding punch boards to be legal.

Control Needed

Mayor H. S. Deuel pointed out that regardless of any governing state laws the punch boards were in operation and hence it was preferable to have some control over them through license fees. Councilmen Larry Schade and J. C. Collins expressed similar views, Mr. Collins saying the fees would cut down the profits and thus retard the accumulation of punch board money in hands that might become "too powerful."

Mayor Deuel said he appreciated the stand of the ministerial association which "cannot compromise with what you think is wrong."

JUST CONSCIENTIOUS

Manhattan, Kas.—(P)—Police, informed that a drunken truck driver was "weaving all over the street," found he merely was trying to miss overhanging tree branches so that they wouldn't scratch the finish of the new car he was delivering.
