

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Postponed—Announcement was made today of the postponement of the Christian church district school for missionary women that had been scheduled for Friday here. Illness and flood waters that hampered travel from upstate were given as reasons for the postponement.

Minor Accidents—Bereth Pauline Hopkins of Route 2 and K. R. Linder, no address given, drove cars involved in a slight accident on South Central avenue near Eighth street last evening, a report on file said today. E. R. Yocum of 416 Laurel street and F. J. Runtz of 1408 North Riverside avenue drove cars involved in a slight mishap at Grape and Main streets yesterday morning, according to a report on file today.

Returns—Mrs. H. J. Fleischer returned last night to her home in Central Point after attending funeral services for her mother, Mrs. E. A. Orr, in Seattle. Mrs. Fleischer went to Seattle by United Mainliner last Friday because of her mother's illness. Mrs. Orr died Saturday morning, Mrs. Fleischer having arrived in time to be at her side. Funeral services were held in Seattle Monday. The body was sent to Boise, Idaho, for interment. Mrs. Orr was a periodic visitor in Central Point.

Trucks Collide—Big trucks operated by Don Kirby of Talent and Louis Ramirez of Turlock, Cal., were considerably damaged when they collided head-on near the north city limits of Ashland yesterday morning. Ramirez told Ashland investigators that his truck skidded when he applied the brakes on a hill, throwing the vehicle into the path of the Kirby truck which was traveling south. After the impact the Ramirez truck turned over on its side in a ditch. Nobody was injured in the accident.

Plane Passengers—Leaving by United Mainliner early this morning for Seattle were J. W. Newman and Miss Florence Green. Leaving on the forenoon plane were T. Scadden, to San Francisco, and Mr. and Mrs. E. Stanley, to Los Angeles. The night southbound Mainliner was held all night in Seattle because of unfavorable weather conditions on the coast and passed over Medford this morning. All trips yesterday passed over Medford because of storm conditions excepting the delayed forenoon southbound plane which arrived at 1:30 p. m. for fuel and mail.

In Jail—Richard Cornish, 40, Chilcoquin, was being held in the county jail here today on a federal charge of selling liquor to Indians. He was brought to the jail from Klamath Falls by Paul Hanlin, U. S. deputy marshal. Cornish was ordered held in $2500 bail after a preliminary hearing before U. S. Commissioner Bert C. Thomas in Klamath Falls.

To Join Navy—Three youths will leave by train tonight for Portland to undergo final medical examinations to qualify for enlistment in the U. S. navy, having been accepted tentatively at the recruiting office in Medford federal building. They are Bert Fraser of Ashland, who wants to enlist for duration of the emergency, Donald Glenn, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Glenn of Central Point, and Henry Kilburn, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kilburn, Sr., of Central Point, both of whom seek minority enlistments. Kilburn and Fraser recently completed slightly more than a year's service with Company A, 186th infantry at Fort Lewis, Wash.
