

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Communion Sunday—Midwinter communion will be celebrated Sunday at the First Presbyterian church at 11 a. m. with welcome of new members and christening of children. Included in the musical program is the choral anthem, "My Faith Looks Up To Thee" by Schaefer, the violin obligato to be played by Helen Webb. The public is invited.

Buy Seed—C. A. McCrabb, representative of L. B. Manning, California airplane manufacturer, was here yesterday to arrange for the purchase of a large quantity of lotus seed for the Hoover-Poston seed nursery for planting on the famous 3500-acre Armour ranch near Santa Barbara, Cal., which Mr. Manning bought recently. Mr. McCrabb was accompanied by his wife.

Auto Accident—City police reported that a car driven by William R. Bennett of 1144 1/2 Tripp street, traveling west on Main street, was struck on the left side by a truck, moving east on Main street, as the latter made a left turn into Riverside avenue. The driver of the truck, police said, left his 1937 Dodge truck at the scene and walked away. His identity was being sought today.

Soldier Moved—A military policeman this morning removed Robert L. White, 20, Klamath Falls, from the county jail here to take him to Vancouver Barracks, Wash., where army officers will consider his case. White, a soldier at Fort Lewis, Wash., gave himself up here last Saturday and said he was absent without leave from his post. The military policeman and his auto driver arrived here last night.

Plane Passengers—Today's early morning northbound United Mainliner passed over Medford because of low fog. C. Hewitt arrived last night from Portland. Arriving last night were J. Hehrin and Mr. and Mrs. Myron Root, from Los Angeles, and M. Tollosan, from Oakland, Cal. R. Conway left for Portland. C. Moser left last evening for Portland. O. Rosta departed yesterday noon for Portland.

Enlist in Navy—Richard Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Nelson of Route 2, was formally enlisted in the U. S. naval reserve as a hospital corpsman at Portland last Monday. Jack M. Carpenter, recruiter here, was officially notified today. Nelson is now at the naval training station at San Diego, Cal., undergoing three weeks of indoctrination training before being assigned to a naval hospital for duty. Carpenter said, Nelson was accepted tentatively for enlistment at the Medford recruiting office in the federal building.

Enlist in Army—Four more men from this district were enlisted December 2 at Portland in the regular army air corps. Sgt. Joseph W. Cushman, local army recruiter announced today. They were Paul A. and Norman L. Larson, sons of Oscar L. Larson, Yreka, Calif., Edgar C. Meek of Gazelle, Calif., and Jack Clifton, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Clifton, Days Creek. The men were assigned to Jefferson Barracks, St. Louis, Mo., for their first 12 weeks of training, after which they will be able to specialize in some type of air corps work now offered. The Larson boys expect to take up enlisted pilot training, while the other two men feel more qualified for airplane mechanics. Sgt. Cushman said.

To Repair—First Baptist church, 134 North Central avenue, applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to repair a floor at a stated cost of $100.

Returns Home—R. J. Donelson, 331 Haven street, returned home today by train after a three weeks' business trip to Beloit, Wis., Los Angeles and San Francisco.

To Handle Sales—Mrs. William Bowerman's senior Girl Scout troop will be in charge of the sale of Christmas anti-tuberculosis seals Saturday at Montgomery Ward company, the main post office and the sub-station.

Visits Here—Mrs. J. W. Frederick and young daughter, Jill Lynn, arrived by train today from Fort Ord, Cal., for a visit at the D. O. Frederick home, 715 Alder street. Mrs. Frederick is the daughter-in-law of Mr. Frederick.

Home From South—The Rev. Herald G. Gardner, 48 Quince street, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church, returned by train today after attending the school of prophets at Grace cathedral in San Francisco for the past week.

To Klamath Falls—Mrs. Norval H. Jones of 8 Newtown street left today by motor for Klamath Falls where Mr. Jones underwent a major operation yesterday. Mr. Jones is superintendent of the Oregon state highway shops at Klamath Falls.

Slightly Injured—Myra Myrtle Babb of Talent reported to police that Ray Scoville, a pedestrian, walked into the side of her car a half mile south of Medford on the Pacific highway yesterday afternoon. The pedestrian was slightly injured. The driver of the car reported.

Parachutists Wanted—According to word received today by Sgt. Joseph W. Cushman, local regular army recruiter, the recruiting service will now accept five men for the parachute group, Fort Benning, Ga., from Medford and vicinity. To be eligible for this type of training, Sgt. Cushman said, the applicant must be between the ages of 21 and 30, unmarried and not more than 185 pounds in weight. He must also have served in the U. S. army within the last two years and have a good military record. Anyone interested in parachute training may contact Sgt. Cushman in the Medford federal building.

Rain At Park—Short-wave radio communications between Crater Lake national park and headquarters here failed to function again this morning and the latest available weather information was that brought to Medford last evening by Dr. George C. Ruhle, park naturalist. When Mr. Ruhle arrived in the park early yesterday afternoon snow was falling but when he left late in the afternoon it was raining. Headquarters reported. Six inches of snow fell during the day, giving a total fall of about 19 inches for two days. Immediately prior to the two-day snowstorm, new rain-fall records were established in the park.

Job Tests—The U. S. civil service commission today announced open competitive examinations for the following positions: border patrolman, explosives chemist, chemical engineer, physicist, airport traffic control examiner, radio monitoring officer, inspector (various grades) of naval ordnance man-
