SGT. GREENBERG DOFFS UNIFORM

Fort Custer, Mich., Dec. 5.—(AP)—Sgt. Henry Greenberg, who was called from the Detroit Tigers' outfield to become a soldier, said farewell to the United States army today and planned to resume the life of a baseball player. Greenberg declared his biggest thrill of leave-taking was that "now I am able to become a ballplayer again." Greenberg, who will be 31 years old January 1, qualified for release under the army ruling that men over 28 may be discharged. He now becomes a member of the army's trained reserve. Last night, as he put aside his uniform, the sergeant gathered together a gang of his soldier friends and treated them to a party at nearby Kalamazoo, Mich.

You can't make a bad cup of M.J.B."

—Jackie Cooper tells Susanna Foster on the set of Paramount's "GLAMOUR BOY"

SUSANNA: Some fun for you, being cast as a soda-jerk in this picture. Is all that stuff real?
JACKIE: Sure is. What'll you have—cup of coffee?
SUSANNA: Say, you're no slouch at watering the beans! This is a mite strong—but good!
JACKIE: Just a sec and I'll make some weaker coffee for you.
SUSANNA: It's swell, Jackie. How'd you get so hep to this coffee-making act?
JACKIE: Clinch—I use M. J. B. It's plenty O. K. every time—strong or weak or in-between.

Here's why it never fails! Make your coffee with the same care as you have in the past. These two exclusive M. J. B. features—a uniform roast—and double blending—will give you the finest cup of coffee you ever tasted!

GUARANTEE. Buy a pound of M. J. B. Try it for a week. If you don't agree it's better than any other coffee—return the lid to M. J. B. Co., San Francisco, and we will refund double your purchase price.
