

Six Die in Smashup Of Fast-Moving Car And Basketball Bus

Americus, Ga., Dec. 5.—(P)—Six persons were killed and 13 injured early today when a fast-moving automobile and a school bus home bound from a basketball game crashed head-on near Dawson.

Among the dead was 20-year-old Dorothy Casey who died at City hospital here soon after the wreck.

State Highway Patrol Sergeant J. P. Smith said four of the dead were soldiers from Fort Benning, Ga., and named them as Ben L. Peel, Clifton H. Taylor, Adam Corner and E. N. McMullen.

The sixth victim was unidentified.

Hilt Workers Choose AFL Representation

J. G. Wolf, Portland, northwest representative of the American Federation of Labor's Lumber & Sawmill Workers union, said here today that a national labor relations board election at the Fruit Growers Supply company in Hilt, Cal., yesterday established the A. F. of L. organization as exclusive representative of all the employees of the Hilt operation. Mr. Wolf said the vote was for A. F. of L., 95; for CIO, 58; for neither, 3. The union and the company will soon open negotiations on various matters, Mr. Wolf said.

Reese Creek

Reese Creek, Dec. 5.—(Spl.)—After Sunday school at the American Union Sunday school, December 7, G. A. Andrews of Ashland will have charge of the preaching services. All interested are cordially invited to be present. At the Sunday school the names will be drawn for the Christmas tree. Everyone is welcome.

Homer Martin has returned home from Sacred Heart hospital where he spent the past week-end for care of an infected hand. He is now doing nicely. His son, Hollis, is home for a while and taking care of the dairy cows.

Mrs. H. O. Holt left December 2 by bus for San Francisco for several days.

Mrs. Ben Kingery and Mrs. Julia Doubleday, both of Eagle Point, spent December 2 at the W. R. Lamb home. Sharron Holt is staying with Mrs. Sullivan while her mother is away to San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Humphrey left December 1 to see about their mine on the Applegate.

PERMISSION RECEIVED FOR AIRMAIL TO SALEM

Medford postoffice received emergency authorization today to dispatch airmail to Salem, the authority arriving just in time to permit the sending of the accumulation of collectors' letters on the first northbound mail plane to the state's capital early tomorrow morning. If the authorization had not been received, the collectors' mail would have been dispatched some other way, probably to Portland. The collectors wanted it to go to Salem for first flight cancellations.

BANK NIGHT AND DAY—Memento of his childhood is the 60-year-old mechanical coin bank being examined by Fredrick J. McIntosh of Los Angeles. It was given him by his parents when he was one year old, held youthful savings.

Sardine Creek

Sardine Creek, Dec. 5.—(Spl.)—Mrs. Nora Wait and Mrs. Lulu Dusenberry of this place and Mrs. Bessie Elhart of Ashland motored to Palo Alto, Calif., November 21, to attend the funeral of their brother, Wm. T. Newton, who passed away suddenly on Thanksgiving day at his home there. Interment was in Alta Mesa Memorial park in Palo Alto.

Mrs. E. C. Piene, who has been serving on the jury for some time, is home until December 15 when court convenes again.

The community was greatly shocked and saddened by the sudden passing of Perry L. Wait, November 29. Funeral services were held in Medford, December 1 with interment in the Rock Point cemetery where the final services were conducted by Live Oak grange, of which Mr. Wait had been an active member for 15 years. He leaves to mourn his passing his wife, Nora Wait, and a host of friends here where he had resided for 25 years.

Robert Sutherland motored down from Portland Saturday and his wife, Mary, came by bus from Palo Alto, Calif., where she had been since the death of her brother, William Newton, November 20, to attend the funeral. Mr. Sutherland returned home by train Tuesday and Mrs. Sutherland will remain with her sister, Mrs. Wait, for awhile.

Others from a distance who attended the funeral were Deputy Orange Organizers Arthur Brown and wife from Salem, Mrs. Millie Walker from Corvallis, Mrs. Joan Miller from North Bend and her daughter, Mrs. Ethel Martin of Ada, Ore.

A table of death rates for deficiency diseases, prepared by the census bureau, shows that few deaths are reported due to inadequate diet. The death rate per 100,000 population for rickets and other bone diseases decreased from 0.7 in 1915 to 0.1 in 1939. Pellagra fell from 4.2 in 1915 to 1.9 in 1939.

The department of commerce says that 4,500,000 motor trucks move over the nation's highways.

Approximately 77 percent of hospital care is in state, local, and federal government-controlled hospitals; 20 percent in non-profit institutions, and 3 percent in proprietary institutions.

When the first census of manufactures was taken in 1810, the manufacturing volume for the United States was $172,000,000 a year. Now the value of manufactured products at factory approximates $60,000,000,000 a year or 350 times the 1810 figure.
