Portland Man Addresses Club

J. G. Bacher, of the Swiss Floral company in Portland, who was guest speaker to members of the Medford Garden club and other garden clubs in the valley at the senior high school here Thursday evening, gave an interesting and instructive talk on the planting and care of new and unusual shrubs and perennials. He illustrated his talk with colored slides.

The speaker stated that gardening is most healthful and in Great Britain is a national hobby. The English horticulturists have propagated and grown some of the most beautiful plant and flower creations in the world. The National Botanical Gardens at Kew, England, covering about 75 acres, date back to 1500.

Mr. Bacher's visit to Medford was sponsored by the local Garden club members and the meeting was open to the public. Many Garden clubs throughout the valley were represented.

HARDER IS NAMED COUNTY CHAIRMAN FOR WAR RELIEF

Campaign to Raise $12,000 Begins This Week—Service Clubs To Aid in Work.

Seth Bullis, chairman of Jackson County Red Cross, announced today the appointment of B. E. Harder as chairman of the Red Cross War Relief fund in this county. This campaign is for the purpose of raising $12,000 in the county to carry on national and local war relief expenditures. The nation's quota has been set at $12,000,000 according to a telegram received here today by Mr. Bullis from Norman Davis, Pacific coast chairman.

The campaign will begin throughout the nation this week with President Roosevelt issuing a proclamation Friday supporting the nation-wide appeal for war funds. Mr. Davis said "Both nationally and locally we face vast and definite responsibilities for service to our armed forces and for relief to distressed civilians—your chapter quota is $12,000. Chapters may retain 15 per cent of their collections for local war relief expenditures."

Mr. Harder said that county plans call for selection of one member from each service club in the city to compose an executive committee. Through this committee the campaign will be immediately launched to include the whole county. Office of fund activity will be Jackson County Chamber of Commerce.

WEATHER REPORT PARTLY CENSORED

Weather conditions for cities west of the Cascade mountains will not be listed in the observation chart in the Mail Tribune due to national defense orders the local weather bureau office announced today. This applies to weather conditions, temperatures and particularly wind movements, the latter which is valuable information for flyers along the coast.

The weather bureau stated however, that local and Oregon forecasts will be available for the time being, minus the wind forecast. Weather condition reports, east of the Cascades, will continue until further notice.

Seven-Day Week For Navy Bureau Staff

Washington, Dec. 10—(P)—A seven-day week for the bureau and offices of the navy department was ordered today by Undersecretary of the Navy James Forrestal.

He said there was a necessity for "taking all steps possible" to speed procurement of materials and directed that all bureau and offices "should have sufficient force of personnel to work as many hours each day of the week, including Saturdays and Sundays, as is essential to obtain the objective."

The average age of white mothers at the time of their first birth is 28 years, while that of Negro mothers is 20, according to census statistics.
