

PILOT WHO SUNK JAP BATTLESHIP CITED IN DEATH

Capt. Colin P. Kelly Hero of Defense of Philippines— Lt. Wagner Mentioned.

By Clark Lee
Manila, Dec. 12.—(AP)—A Florida-born West Pointer, Captain Colin P. Kelly, Jr., 26, who helped even the score which the Japanese ran up at Pearl Harbor when he planted three bombs on the Japanese battleship Haruna, paid for the sinking of the ship with his life.

One sentence in a communique issued by Lieut. Gen. Douglas MacArthur, commander of the far eastern army, paid posthumous tribute to the young army flier:

"General MacArthur announced with great sorrow the death of Captain Colin P. Kelly, Jr., who so distinguished himself by scoring three direct hits on the Japanese capital battleship Haruna, leaving her in flames and in distress."

Lack Death Details
Just when and how Kelly died was not stated but it is possible that death came without his knowing that the Haruna had been mortally damaged. The war department in Washington announced that the 29,330-ton Haruna was sunk Wednesday, north of Luzon.

Kelly was graduated from the U. S. military academy in 1937 and became a captain on September 9, 1940, after training in various flying and bombing schools. The United States naval flier who trailed a Japanese battleship for a long time in the face of frequent anti-aircraft fire until other naval planes could fly to the scene and "seriously cripple" the huge ship was officially cited today for his work.

The story was told in the report of Admiral Thomas R. Hart, commander-in-chief of the Asiatic fleet.

Admiral Hart's account of the attack on the ship was the first detailed action by the naval fliers to be reported from the far eastern front.

Lieutenant Cited
Lieut. Gen. MacArthur, commanded First Lieut. Bryd D. Wagner, of the army air corps, who "distinguished himself by his daring attack on a Japanese air detachment at Aparri yesterday morning."

"When attacked by five pursuit planes," he said, "he shot two planes out of the air and machine-gunned 12 on the ground, leaving five burning. Wagner ended his terse report by saying 'My gas was running low so I returned home.'"

Admiral Hart revealed that the American navy had lost three large planes since the war started—two during the daylight raid on the Gulf of Davao about an hour after the Pearl Harbor attack.

Air force casualties thus far have been small, but there have been "plenty of attacks on our planes," he said.
