

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Visit Son—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Denison of 304 West Jackson boulevard left by motor Tuesday morning for a month's visit in Los Angeles and Long Beach, Cal. They plan to spend most of the time in Long Beach visiting their son, Jack Denison, who resides there.

Returns—E. P. Leavitt, superintendent of Crater Lake national park, returned yesterday by motor from San Francisco where he has been attending a personnel training school of region 4 of the national park service. He was an instructor at the school.

Cars Collide—Cars operated by Clarence Stelle, 17, 345 North Bartlett street, and Mrs. Elmer Hall, Cherry Lane, collided yesterday afternoon at the Pacific highway and Stewart avenue. Mrs. Hall's report on the accident had not been filed at city police station up to noon.

To California—Mr. and Mrs. Jack G. Fowler, 34 Vancouver avenue, left by motor today for Sacramento, San Francisco and Santa Rosa, Cal., on a combined business and pleasure trip. They plan to spend several weeks in California and will visit with Dr. D. F. Herd in Sacramento, brother of Mrs. Fowler.

Fewer Apply—Applications for temporary auto licenses filed at the sheriff's office to date number 350, with a noticeable decrease of applicants yesterday and today because, it was thought, of the rain and Christmas buying. Autolists have until January 1 to apply. Some are ordering directly from the secretary of state at Salem. Many city and county cars have 1942 plates.

Has Operation—D. O. Lindsey of Lozier Lane underwent an emergency operation in Sacred Heart hospital last night.

Due Back—Gus H. Samuels is expected to resume his duties as city treasurer early next week. He has been confined to his home, 301 Valley View Drive, with influenza for about a week.

Son Safe—Mrs. W. J. Ferns of Route 4 received word by card Tuesday that her son, A. A. Hoffman, was safe at Pearl Harbor where he is stationed with the aviation ordnance department.

Return Home—Dr. and Mrs. George S. Jennings and his office assistant, Mrs. D. D. Davis, returned this morning from Portland where they attended the northwest congress of optometrists.

Safe—Albert R. Santo, who is serving at a Hawaiian naval air station of the U. S. navy, is safe and in good health, it was stated in a censored form postal card received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Santo of 620 South Ivy street.

Snow at Camp—Six inches of fresh snow were reported at South Fork CCC camp above Butte Falls yesterday afternoon. Rogue River national forest office said today. Telephone connections were still disrupted between the local forest office and Butte Falls and Butte Falls and Union Creek.

Plane Lands—All United Mainliners passed over Medford yesterday because of unfavorable landing weather conditions with the exception of the 11:37 a. m. delayed southbound plane which arrived here at 3 p. m. The plane picked up mail and continued south as there were no passengers.

Pedestrian Hit—Morris B. Leonard, 45, 2503 Hillcrest road, operated a car that struck a pedestrian at Oakdale avenue and Main street late last night. It was shown in a report on file today. No injury was indicated. Mr. Leonard, in his report, did not identify the pedestrian but police said it was Robert Slinger, 25 Washington street.

Backs Into Truck—John P. Nansen, 59, Route 3, Box 18, reported that a car backing out of a driveway ran into his dairy truck when it was stopped at East Main street and Portland avenue yesterday morning. The driver of the car was quoted as saying he did not see the truck in the fog. The filed report did not identify the car driver.

Son Safe—Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Bullock, 615 Columbus avenue, received a telegram from the American consul in San Francisco yesterday saying that their son, Ralph Bullock, missionary in Hongkong, China, was safe. Mr. Bullock has been in China for the past eight years and has been unable to secure passage home. He is a brother of Mrs. K. Knutson, 815 West 13th street.

Attend Concert—Mr. and Mrs. Sebastian Apollo, 131 South Grape street, and Miss Phoebe Swem, 217 East Main street, returned home this morning by motor after attending the accordion concert of Galla Rini in Klamath Falls last evening. During intermission Miss Swem was presented as guest accordionist and played as her selection, "Poet and Peasant Overture" by Von Suppe.

Receives Cable—Mrs. Harold Looper, 419 West Second street, received another cable this morning from Midway Island where her husband is stationed in defense work. The cable, sent yesterday, stated that all Oregon men on Midway were safe. Mr. Looper has been at Midway Island since May 1. Earlier in the week Mrs. Looper received a brief cablegram saying her husband was "OK."

Blade Tips Car—The blade of a snowplow being operated by Frank W. Denzer, 35, 16 West 9th avenue, collided with the wheel of a car operated by Victor Conover, 28, Shady Cove, on the Butte Falls highway yesterday afternoon. It was shown in a report on file today. The car was ditched, the report said. Denzer's report said there was not enough clearance for the tip of the blade.

Case Stolen—On file at city police headquarters today was a report that a brief case type of leather grip was stolen from a car owned by George H. Pledger of Oakland, Cal., when it was parked on North Grape street near Main street yesterday morning. Pledger, a furniture salesman, said the case contained papers and receipts of no value to anyone else. The case was impressed with the gold letters G. H. P. Anyone finding it was asked to leave it at Weeks & Orr furniture store.

On Furlough—Ray Ettinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Ettinger, 824 West 12th street, arrived home yesterday from Pensacola, Fla., on a 22-day furlough. He has been in training in naval aviation since June 8. Ettinger flew from Pensacola to San Francisco and completed his journey north by train. He will leave in January for Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, where he will be stationed. His younger brother Bob has been in Seattle, Wash., where he just passed his physical examination for naval aviation. He was expected home today.

Pictured—The Oregonian today published a photograph of Mrs. Eugene Burns examining a piece of shrapnel picked up on a downtown street after the Japanese bombing attack on Honolulu. Mrs. Burns is the wife of the acting Associated Press bureau chief in Honolulu and a sister of Glenn L. Jackson, president of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce. Her father is W. L. Jackson, president of the Democrat-Herald Publishing company which owns the Democrat-Herald, daily newspaper in Albany. On the day the Mail Tribune published an item telling of Mrs. Burns' safety in Honolulu, the same page contained a descriptive story written about the attack on Honolulu by her husband.

"Bad Men of Missouri" Showing

Dennis Morgan, Arthur Kennedy and Wayne Morris portray the Younger Brothers, daring outlaws who wrote history with their blazing six-guns. Their bullet-plashed story is told in "Bad Men of Missouri," which opens a three-day run today at the Rialto theatre, with Jane Wyman in a featured lead.

"Nevada City," starring Roy Rogers and George "Gabby" Hayes, plays as the second red-blooded western on the same bill with "Bad Men of Missouri."

In War Drama

James Stephenson, Ronald Reagan and William Lundigan, as three buddies of the air in the "Foreign Legion" of the R. A. F., are providing thrills in "International Squadron," playing at the Craterian theatre through Saturday night.

He will be stationed. His younger brother Bob has been in Seattle, Wash., where he just passed his physical examination for naval aviation. He was expected home today.
