West Astoria Slide Dangers Residences

Astoria, Dec. 18.—(P)—A slide in West Astoria yesterday broke a six-inch water main and threatened several houses.

At Bay Ocean, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Coats, undermined by waves and rain, slid into the ocean.

WEST FOOTBALL TEAM OFF FOR NEW ORLEANS

San Francisco, Dec. 18.—(P)—Members of the west football team are scheduled to entrain today for New Orleans where they will play in the Shriners' East-West benefit game, January 3.

UTAH BASKETEERS TRIM WILLAMETTE 41 TO 23

Salt Lake City, Dec. 18.—(P)—Displaying a smooth, fast attack, a University of Utah basketball team last night defeated Willamette university, 41-23.

IDAHO CENTER GIVES EDGE OVER MISSOURI

Moscow, Idaho, Dec. 18.—(P)—Ray Turner, tall University of Idaho center, garnered 13 points last night to lead his teammates in a 40-28 victory over the barnstorming University of Missouri basketball team.

NAP PERILOUS

Raton, N. M.—(UP)—Mrs. Margaret Dorsey won't take any more naps in a speeding auto. While snoozing in the back seat of a car she tumbled out upon the pavement as the machine hit a 60-mile-per-hour clip. She suffered no serious injuries.

BLOOD "BANK"

Huntington, W. Va.—(P)—Five members of the Huntington junior chamber of commerce each donated one pint of blood to establish a "blood and plasma bank" from which Huntington hospitals can obtain supplies in emergencies. Patients who borrow from the supply will be asked to repay, either through a relative or friend who is able to give blood, or through one of the listed professional donors in Huntington.

WAS HE SURPRISED!

Tampa, Fla.—(P)—An auto driven by a feeble-looking old gentleman rounded a corner. As it passed, a kid standing by the curb reached out and whammed it loudly with his hand. The old gentleman stopped his car, hopped out with surprising agility, grabbed the amazed urchin by the collar and gave him a violent, teeth-rattling shaking. Then he strode back to his car and drove off.

MARY E. L. HOYT TAKEN BY DEATH

Mary Elenor Louise Hoyt, a resident of Medford for the past five years and widow of the late Rev. John W. Hoyt, passed away at a local hospital Wednesday at 9:40 p. m. after a short illness.

She was an active member of the First Presbyterian church and of the Eveready Circle. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. W. H. McClure, of Medford, and three grandchildren, Charles Arthur Hoyt of Los Angeles, Cal., and Bonine and Lassie McClure of Medford.

Funeral services will be conducted from the Perl Funeral Home Saturday at 2 p. m. Rev. Sherman L. Divine, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will officiate and will be assisted by Rev. H. M. Roberts. Concluding services will be held at Mount View cemetery in Oakland, Cal. Friends are respectfully invited to attend the funeral services.

GETS CAR BACK

Trenton, N. J.—(P)—Pink Mayfield, 55-year-old Paterson negro, arrived here broke to reclaim his stolen car after police had recovered it, then discovered there was a $2.50 towing charge which had to be paid. He opened a large black case, removed article after article and staged a one-man band performance in the police station. Admiring bluecoats dropped into his hat enough for the towing charge and a meal.

BROKEN NECK

Pueblo, Colo.—(P)—Ten-year-old Ted Smith went for six months with a broken neck before it was detected. The injury occurred while he was scuffling with a playmate but appeared to be nothing more than a bruise. Later more serious symptoms developed and an X-ray examination revealed a fractured vertebra.

NUISANCE PROFITABLE

Hagerstown, Md.—(P)—Louis Fauldner turned a nuisance into a profit. The nuisance was laurel growing too profusely on his 100 acres of woodland. He earns a nice profit now making wreaths and laurel roping to decorate city stores and streets at Christmas time.

FLOAT THROUGH AIR

Coffeyville, Kans.—(P)—One of the jokes floating around in the wake of recent heavy Kansas rains is told by Wayne Brooks of Coffeyville who says a flock of ducks passed over his head, in the murky sky, with their wings folded. "They were swimming," explains Brooks.

FOUR DEVIL DOGS

Williamson, W. Va.—(P)—Mr. and Mrs. James F. Maynard have four sons in the United States marine corps. Although marines perform duties at many points of the globe, all four are stationed within a few miles of each other.

JAIL ON SUNDAYS

Yuba City, Cal.—(UP)—Imprisonment on Sundays for six weeks was the penalty assessed by Police Judge H. D. Moncur of Yuba City upon Edward L. Nieto, 18, and Robert N. May, 18, accused of stealing bakery goods from a truck. Judge Moncur suspended a 30-day jail sentence and decided upon the Sunday imprisonment when he learned that the youths had week-day jobs.

Lake Creek

Lake Creek, Dec. 18.—(Spl.)—There was no school Tuesday on account of trees blown down across the road, thus delaying Mr. Tyrrell, who had to cut them out before he could get through.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Short received a card from their son John, who is in the navy and at last report had been at Pearl Harbor. He is now in home waters.

Tom Short and Clyde Grissom have joined the classes in defense work at Medford.

Mrs. Short was overnight guest of Mrs. Herb Grissom Monday. Thimble Gossip club has postponed its meeting until next month.

Portland, Dec. 18.—(P)—Forty thousand Portland school children will leave classrooms Friday afternoon for a two-week holiday vacation. School will resume January 5.
