COMPLETE FEMININE HYGIENE DEMANDS

MUCH has been written about feminine hygiene. But too often women overlook hygiene in the REAL sense of the word—underarm cleanliness and sweetness. You cannot be attractive with underarms moist, stained and unclean. Use Arid, the new cream deodorant. Use Arid, the new cream deodorant. 1. Arid does not rot dresses, does not irritate skin. 2. No washing in dry. Can be used right after shaving. 3. Instantly checks perspiration 1 to 3 days. Removes odor from perspiration, keeps axillae dry. 4. Arid is a pure, white, greaseless, waterless vanishing cream. 5. Awarded Approval Seal of American Institute of Laundering as harmless to fabric. Women use more Arid than any other deodorant. Try a 10¢, 25¢ or 50¢ jar today at any store which sells toilet goods.

Ceremony Held To Celebrate "Daughters Day"

The anniversary of the organization of Daughters of Union Veterans was observed as "Daughters Day" with suitable ceremonies at the regular meeting at the armory last Friday. Mrs. Richard Klemm reviewed the origin, development and work of the organization. Miss Ione Kindred, local patriotic instructor, directed a memorial program, using a candle-service in which she lighted tapers representing our democracy, founders, national officers and local founders.

Miss Mary Ann Gates, accompanied by Mrs. Marguerite Conrad, sang three solos. Christmas gifts were exchanged and refreshments served from a table decorated with a Christmas motif.

The following resolution was adopted at the meeting of Elita Duell Hubbs tent No. 11, Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, 1861-65. "Whereas our country is at war and whereas it is our fathers, grandfathers and great grandfathers who saved our flag and the principles for which it stands and whereas our sons, brothers, husbands and sweethearts are now fighting for those same principles, therefore be it resolved that we, the Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, 1861-65 request the citizens of Medford to display their flags each and every day during the duration."

Wall St. Report

New York, Dec. 18.—(P)—Selective recovery tendencies seeped into the stock market today, after an early washout had swept many leaders to new lows since 1938, but the general trend remained downward. Transfers were around 1,300,000 shares. Mildly optimistic for long-suffering commission houses was the sale of a stock exchange membership for $25,000 up $6,000 from a previous transaction which was at a new 43-year low. The year's high for a seat
