HOBSON GIVING JUNIORS, SOPHS STARTING CALL

Webfoot Cage Mentor Has Only 3 Seniors on Squad Now Traveling in East.

By Gail Fowler
Eugene, Ore., Dec. 19.—(AP)—Coach Howard Hobson of the currently touring University of Oregon Webfoots, could floor a starting combination of letter-men—but he isn't.

The Oregon basketball mentor is concentrating chiefly on sophomores and juniors this year, and his present traveling squad includes five sophs, three juniors and only three seniors.

Two of the seniors are guards and the other is Archie Marshik, the six-foot-seven center, who apparently has lost the starting call to Sophomore Lloyd Jackson of Dallas, Ore., who matches Marshik in inches and outshines him in ability, if not in experience.

The senior guards are George "Porky" Andrews of Victoria, B. C., a six-footer, and Paul Jackson of Oakland, Calif., who is no relation and a foot shorter than Center Lloyd Jackson.

Newland Is Guard
Don Kirsch of Portland, a junior guard, qualifies for the Hobson fire department basketball style by working for the Portland fire department in the summer. Sophomore Bob Newland of Medford, a six-footer, and Wilson Maynard, 5-10½, Salem, rounds out the guards.

Bob Wren, sophomore from Portland, six-feet, one inch, appears to have clinched one of the forward spots. Six feet, three inch tall Ralph Fuhrman of Coquille, a junior, is the other starting forward. Backing them up are Warren Taylor, six-five, junior from Banks, Ore., and Warren Christensen, six-three, Tillamook soph.

Whether the Webfoots do better than a tie for third place—where they ended with Washington last season—depends on how the new men develop.

So far the Oregon invasion of the east can hardly be called a howling success, although the Webfoots haven't taken any one-sided lickings. They were nosed out by Wayne, Canisius, Long Island U., and Duquesne. They've beaten Temple and Xavier. Tomorrow night they clash with De Paul university at the Chicago stadium. They open the northern division chase at home against Idaho January 9-10.

WILLAMETTE BOWS TO UTAH AGGIES

Logan, Utah, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Grant Cullimore, Utah State agricultural school basketball reserve guard, was credited last night with stopping the early scoring spurt of Willamette university and piling up enough points to clinch the game 38-31, for his team.

The Oregonians took an early lead and held until Cullimore was sent in. Captain Jim Robertson of Willamette tied with Cullimore for high scoring honors with 10 points each.

Zupke Not Seeking Miami Coaching Job

Columbus, Ohio, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Robert Zupke, resigned University of Illinois football coach, said today "I haven't applied for a coaching position anywhere and I don't think I will."
Zupke was contacted by telephone in Champaign, Ill., by the Columbus Dispatch after the Ohio State Journal, quoting an "unimpeachable source," said Zupke applied for a vacancy at Miami university, Oxford, Ohio. Coach Frank Wilton resigned the Miami post yesterday after three bad seasons due to poor material.

Louis, Baer Sign for Navy Fund Fight

Angott-Jenkins Go Will End Confusion In Lightweight List

New York, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Two world lightweight champions will be merged into one at Madison Square Garden tonight as a result of the current collaboration between Abe Greene, the National Boxing association president, and the New York state athletic commission—with promoter Mike Jacobs acting as intermediary.

Sammy Angott of Washington, Pa., the N.B.A. champion, and Lew Jenkins of Sweetwater, Tex., recognized ruler in New York, will battle it out over the 15-round route in the third such two-title affair staged in recent months. A crowd of about 10,000 is expected to pay about $25,000 to watch them. Earlier this year Gus Lesnevich took over the unanimous light-heavyweight title and Tony Zale gained the middleweight crown.

The whole situation has been peculiar since the 135-pound title was split up a year and a half ago. The NBA withdrew its recognition from Lou Ambers when he took on Jenkins, who wasn't even considered an important challenger, instead of Angott or Davey Day. Those two fought it out for the NBA crown, then a few days later the lean, hungry Texan complicated the situation by stiffening Ambers in three rounds.

Dalles Coach Seeks Jim Phelan's Shoes

The Dalles, Ore., Dec. 19.—(AP)—The University of Washington football coaching job had a new applicant today. Charles D. McGuinness said he had added his name to the list of those who would succeed James Phelan.

McGuinness, high school coach here this year, graduated from Washington where he was crew stroke three years. He coached high school football teams in the east for three years and in 1939 and 1940 coached the Long Island, N. Y., pro eleven.

His high school team here was undefeated this season and claimed the mythical state title.

Eugene, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Work on the super-highway between Eugene and Springfield will start December 29, J. E. Turnbull of the chamber of commerce said the highway would eliminate 11 grade crossings through the moving of a little more than a mile of Southern Pacific tracks.

SECOND SEAT

Phoenix, Ariz.—(UP)—Arizona will have two U. S. representatives in 1942, federal officials have informed Gov. Sidney P. Osborn. The increase in population shown by the 1940 census entitled the state to a second congressman.

The American forces in Iceland, a land of Santa Claus weather but no Christmas trees, were sent Christmas trees from the U. S.

Wyoming in 1941 received the largest amount, $822,295.97, under the conservation program of the department of interior for using public lands for lumbering and grazing, for mineral and potash production.

TAIL-LESS TRAVELER—Above the Mojave desert in California the Northrop Aircraft company's "flying wing" is put through a test flight. Its makers claim that the wing, of radical design, is exceptionally fast and maneuverable.

Britton Gets Chance In Cochrane Battle

Miami, Fla., Dec. 19.—(AP)—Fast-hitting Bobby Britton, the fighting son of a one-time world champion, will get the big chance of his ring career tonight in a non-title fight with Welterweight King Freddie Cochrane.

An upset triumph over Cochrane in the main event of the Miami Herald's empty stocking fund show would carry the 23-year-old Britton closer to the top than he has managed to climb in eight years of boxing.

His trainer and chief handler is Jack Britton, an in-and-out for years before he suddenly developed into a great fighter and won the welter crown in 1919 at the age of 34.

Gaylord, Ore.—(UP)—When electricity was introduced by REA lines the population was all set. Switches merely were flicked onto fluorescent fixtures, refrigerators, washing machines and other modern conveniences already installed.

New Orleans, Dec. 19.—(AP)—All eligible members of the Associated Press all-America first team will be on the field for the East-West all-star charity game here January 3, but the east will have four to the west's three.

The game, transplanted by the Shrine to the Sugar bowl after it was blacked out in San Francisco by the war, will feature two star-studded lineups.

The eastern quota includes Bill Dudley of Virginia, the nation's highest scorer. Also listed are Endicott Peabody, Harvard guard who received the Knute Rockne trophy for ability and sportsmanship; and Bruce Smith, Minnesota back who won the Heisman trophy as player of the year.

Ralph Fife of Pittsburgh will be Peabody's all-America running mate at guard.

Albert Present

The West team has Frankie Albert, Stanford quarterback; Bud Reinhard, California tackle; and Malcolm Kutner, Texas end.

Of the remaining four all-Americans, Harold Jenkins will be playing center for Missouri against Fordham in the Sugar bowl here January 1, and the other three are juniors. Only seniors play in the East-West game.

The easterners will have three members of the second all-America to one for the West, although the West has two from the third eleven.

Coach Bernie Bierman of Minnesota will bring most of the eastern squad here tonight and the westerners are expected Sunday. Both will go to near-by points for training. The easterners' Coach Andy Kerr of Colgate has been here for three days as "promoter" for the tilt.

Franklin-Pastor Scrap Coming in Mid January

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.
(Wide World Columnist)
New York, Dec. 19.—(Wide World)—Get ready for an announcement almost any day that Lem Franklin and Bob Pastor will tangle in Cleveland in mid-January . . . the company that is sponsoring all the other Big Bowl broadcasts offered $40,000 for the right to air the Rose Bowl but found the price was just double that. They are feeling pretty good about it now . . .

Today's Guest Star
Lewis Burton, New York Journal-American: "A crew of 65 carpenters added 3,200 seats to the Green Bay municipal stadium last week in anticipation of a playoff game with the Giants . . . that distinguished the Packers as the first team to be overconfident against the Chicago Bears."

Jacobs Beachcombs
Louis-Baer fight tickets go on sale Monday and Mike Jacobs has notified all sports writers there'll be absolutely no comps . . . Most difficult problem about tonight's Jenkins-Angott brawl is Jenkins. Drumbearer Harry Markson says that's because Lew is ready for a Jenkins do-or-die battle . . . Angott has lost only one fight a year since 1937 and he's already had his licking for this year . . . Gunnar Barlund tries a comeback against Johnny Shkor in Boston next month . . . Manager Paul Damski has just signed Larry Bolvin of Providence, R. I. . . Mike Kaplan claims Young Kid McCoy fights like a defense factory—"he keeps running all night."

Traveling Tom
Tom Lieb, Florida coach, reports: "With scouting California and the southeastern conference meeting in Lexington this past week, I have, out of six nights, spent three in the air, two on the train and a half hour at home."

Cleaning the Cuff
Local sports writers expect the Yankees to use Buddy Bassett as bait in a trade for another first sacker (maybe George McQuinn of the Browns) because there's no telling about Johnny Sturm's draft status . . . Solemn Bernie Bierman stopped the show at the Minnesota grid dinner when he announced that he didn't need any introduction to the players' girl friend he called "they undoubtedly have told you what kind of a guy I am." . . . John Borican, the track and field star, is a real all-around performer. As assistant director at the Newark (N. J.) boys club, he teaches drawing, sculpture, manual training, runs an Americanism program and leads the kids in play.

Philadelphia public schools are establishing model airplane clubs in junior and senior units.
