

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Confers Here—H. D. Farmer, with the public roads administration in Portland, was here today conferring on business matters with members of the Crater Lake national park staff.

To Omak—Miss Isabelle Evans of 330 North Holly street left today for Omak, Wash., where she will spend the holidays visiting relatives. She plans to return to her work at the Rogue River national forest office January 8.

Son Safe—Mr. and Mrs. Pat Graham of 108 Cottage street received a letter today from their son, Pat, Jr., who is an able seaman on a ship and was safe. Pat has been in the navy over a year and was stationed at Pearl Harbor prior to December 7.

Plane Passengers—Ben Johnson arrived from Portland by United Mainliner late last evening. Leaving for San Francisco via B. H. Williams. O. B. Worthley left for Seattle at noon yesterday. United Mainliners were running late today because of unfavorable weather conditions along the coast.

Cyclist Hit—Mabel Hampel of Route 2 was the operator of a car that struck a newspaper carrier or a bicycle on Court street near McAndrews road late yesterday afternoon, according to a report on file today. The report indicated no injury. The boy would not give his name, the report stated.

Cars Collide—Samuel Morrison of Seattle and Ray Bolton of Rogue River were the drivers of cars that collided on the Pacific highway a mile south of Rogue River last Tuesday morning. It was shown in a report on file today. In his report Morrison said that Bolton turned abruptly into the path of his car to enter a driveway.

To Study—Fire Chief Roy Elliott, head of the fire protection division of the Jackson County Council of Defense, Ed Mann, one of his committeemen, and C. J. Baughman, fire chief of Ashland, will leave Sunday for Portland to attend a school on the handling of incendiary and demolition bombs. The school will be conducted by U. S. army instructors, representatives of every civilian defense council of the state having been ordered to attend. The men will study 12 hours a day for three days, December 22, 23 and 24, the school ending at 9 p. m. Christmas eve. Because of the school, the three men going from here will miss Christmas at home.

Chimney Fire—The fire department's chemical crew stood by this morning while a chimney fire at the home of Mrs. E. E. Kelly, 911 Queen Ann avenue, burned itself out. There was no damage.

Leave—Mr. and Mrs. George T. Hopper of Cargill Court left yesterday by motor for Bellingham, Wash., where they will spend Christmas holidays visiting friends and relatives. Mr. Hopper is resident engineer of Crater Lake national park.

Censor Chief

Byron Price (above), executive news editor of the Associated Press, has been granted a leave of absence to become the nation's director of censorship. It was announced by President Roosevelt.

"Appointment for Love" Coming

Margaret Sullivan checks to see if Charles Boyer really has her husband—who has to wait in the receiving room for an appointment with love—and does it irk him?—and does it make up for one hilarious situation after another?—frankly, yes. Others in the comedy are Rita Johnson, Eugene Pallette and Reginald Denny.

Gloria Swanson in Sunday Hit

Gloria Swanson, at one time Hollywood's most popular leading lady, returns to the screen in "Father Takes a Wife," in which she co-stars with Adolphe Menjou at the Rialto theatre for Sunday and Monday. The cast of this delightful new comedy is jammed full of personalities including: Desi Arnaz, famous Cuban dancer, John Howard, Helen Broderick, Florence Rice and Neil Hamilton.

Western Stars

Russell Hayden and Eleanor Stewart have starring roles with William Boyd as "Hopalong Cassidy" in Clarence E. Mulford's "Pirates on Horseback," which plays tonight and Saturday at the Roxy theatre with the fifth feature-length episode of "Jungle Girl," on the same bill.

NURSE INJURED IN AUTO, TAXI CRASH

Miss Gwendolyn Edwards, 38, 115 Florence street, a nurse at Sacred Heart hospital, suffered a long laceration of the forehead and facial bruises in an automobile accident Wednesday afternoon at Florence and Scott streets. It was shown in a report on file at police headquarters today. She was treated at Sacred Heart hospital, nine or ten stitches being required to close the cut, police said. Miss Edwards was a passenger in a car operated by Carl C. Althouse, 63, 115 Florence street. The car collided with a taxicab operated by Burton A. Ladner, 21, 445 South Front street.
