LOCAL and PERSONAL: Cars Collide—Cars operated by George J. Dougherty, 119 North Central avenue, and Art Good, Prospect, collided on the Crater Lake highway two miles south of Prospect yesterday morning, it was stated in a report on file.

LOCAL and PERSONAL: Home For Holiday—Sparky Bourque, manager and professional at the Medford Ice Arena, will spend Christmas at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Bourque of Seattle. He plans to leave Wednesday and return to Medford Friday.

LOCAL and PERSONAL: Need Licenses—All Medford milk handlers and dispensers must procure city licenses by January 15, the city council's public health committee said yesterday. Dispensers, stores, and public eating places must have a license for each serving place, it was pointed out.

LOCAL and PERSONAL: Rangers Here—Richard Tubman, Rogue River national forest district ranger at Union Creek, and Sam Warg, assistant ranger, motored to Medford yesterday and reported powder snow falling at Union Creek on top of eight inches of frozen snow. Fifteen inches of snow fell the first of the week, followed by a rain which melted the snow to eight inches, they said.

LOCAL and PERSONAL: Bumper Hooked—Tiney Combest, 46, Talent, and Victor W. Milnes, 30, 807 Bennett avenue, were drivers of cars that collided Friday morning on West Sixth street near Fir street, according to a report on file yesterday. Combest was pulling away from the curb when the Milnes car hooked his machine in such a way as to yank the bumper off, the report showed.

LOCAL and PERSONAL: Car Skids—A car operated by Fred O. Lindgrass, 41, Oakland, Cal., skidded on a slippery spot of Crater Lake highway 19 miles north of Medford Thursday morning, ran into a ditch and back on the highway and spun around seven or eight times before it came to a stop, according to a report on file yesterday.

LOCAL and PERSONAL: Promoted—A press release received here yesterday announced the appointment of D. J. Russell as a vice president in the executive department of the Southern Pacific company. Mr. Russell was advanced from the position of assistant to the president. He started with the railroad company in 1920 after completing his schooling at Stanford university. He is a descendant of Jacksonville pioneers.

LOCAL and PERSONAL: To Enlist Cadets—All aviation cadet applicants will be enlisted immediately and will no longer have to wait their turn, Sgt. Joseph W. Cushman, army recruiter here said he was notified yesterday by Lieut. Col. B. H. Hensley, district recruiting officer at Portland. Full information about this phase of army enlistment, under which those accepted receive $75 a month and the usual free services while they are training, may be obtained at Sgt. Cushman's office in the Medford federal building.

LOCAL and PERSONAL: Enlisted—Sgt. Joseph W. Cushman, army recruiter here, yesterday was notified of the formal enlistment of the following men at Portland: Joe E. Earley, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe E. Earley, Sr., operators of the Hotel Holland, Orin J. Ellis, Butte Falls, Sidney L. Fredrickson, Roseburg, Oscar Barkman, Selma, Edward M. Leonard, Selma, Charles S. Gibson, Yreka, Cal., and Gene R. Hecht, Yreka, Cal. All were accepted through the local recruiting office in the federal building. Earley, Gibson and Hecht chose the air corps.

LOCAL and PERSONAL: Promoted—Al Loomis, graduate of Medford high school and the U. S. naval academy at Annapolis, recently was promoted to lieutenant commander in naval aviation and was transferred from Pensacola, Fla., for a short tour of duty at Norfolk, Va., it was stated in a letter received from his mother, Mrs. A. L. Loomis, by Mrs. C. S. Butterfield, 1407 East Main street. The Loomis family resided here up to about 15 years ago. Mrs. Loomis now resides in Hollywood, Cal. Her youngest daughter Adele, also a Medford high school graduate, now resides in Hawaii with her husband, David Silver.

Home From College—Ray Johnson, freshman at the University of Southern California, Los Angeles, is spending Christmas holidays at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Nellie Smith of Talent.

Snow At Lake—Forty-two inches of snow, with the top four inches being dry snow, were reported at Crater Lake national park yesterday. Good skiing was anticipated for the week-end.

Visiting Parents—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clay, Jr., and son, Charles Clay III, arrived here last week by motor to spend the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Clay's mother, Mrs. A. H. Miller, 346 South Holly street, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clay, Sr., 23 Crater Lake avenue.

Townsend Club No. 5—Townsend Club No. 5 has changed its next regular business meeting to Monday, December 29, to avoid meeting Christmas eve, as scheduled. The meeting will be held at the Kurtz Music Studio and December seals and new membership cards will be available. Members are invited to bring their cards so that seals may be affixed.

Arm Broken—Elsie Tucker suffered a broken arm Friday forenoon when a car in which she was riding skidded on a slippery spot of the Klamath Falls highway seven miles south of Ashland and ran into a bank, it was shown in a report on file yesterday. The report, filed by W. E. Tucker as driver of the car, did not give any address or other details of the mishap.

Plane Passengers—Leaving by United Mainliner yesterday afternoon were W. Brennan, to Missoula, Mont., and Victor Vetter, to Portland, A. J. Jones departed for San Francisco on the forenoon plane. Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Bryant departed for Los Angeles on the Friday forenoon Mainliner. Other planes were flying on regular schedule but no passengers arrived or departed.

Crew Working—Reports from the Rogue River national forest office yesterday indicated that telephone service between Butte Falls and Union Creek was still disrupted and crews were working to repair the telephone line which was damaged the first of the week by heavy, wet snow. If the line cannot be repaired by next week, it is expected that radio communications will be installed in order that word may be received from Union Creek, the office said.

Leclercs Sale—Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Leclerc, 615 West Second street, received an airmail letter Saturday from their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Leclerc, former Medford residents, now in Honolulu, that they were well and safe. The letter, dated December 12, said that after considerable excitement of the Japanese attack, the army and navy now have all under control. Mr. Leclerc is employed by an electric concern on the island and Mrs. Leclerc is employed by the Bishop National Bank of Hawaii. They recently built a new home in Honolulu.
