St. Peter's Lutheran Candle-Light Service Is Wednesday Night

The choir and Sunday school of St. Peter's Lutheran church will render a beautiful candle-light Christmas service at 8:00 o'clock Wednesday evening in the Wesley Chapel at West Main and Ivy streets.

The candlelight service is entitled, "The Light of the World." It is a story told in song, scriptural and musical readings of sin plunging mankind into spiritual darkness; the promises of a deliverer; the coming of Jesus, the light of the world; and the light by the shepherds, the wise men and the Christians today. Spreading the light is typified by lighting the candles of the neighbor and holding the candles aloft while the girls' trio sings "Silent Night! Holy Night!" There will free treats for all the kiddies present. The public is cordially invited.

COMMANDS HAWAII
Honolulu, Dec. 20.—(AP)—Lieut. Gen. Delos C. Emmons took over command of the Hawaiian department of the army today, within 24 hours of his arrival, and found that the blackout was Honolulu's most immediate war intrusion—now that the shock of the first raid and the change in top commanders had largely been absorbed.

HYSTERICAL LADIES SIGHT JAP TANK

Beverly Hills, Calif., Dec. 20.—(AP)—"Hurry! Oh, hurry," a feminine voice gasped over the telephone. "There's a Japanese tank coming. It's right near the high school."

Seconds later, a police radio car reached the scene—to be confronted with the town street sweeper. (To give the lady her due, the sweeper does look a lot like an armored vehicle.)

NO HAWAIIAN DIVORCES UNTIL WAR CONCLUDED

Hollywood, Dec. 20.—(AP)—Married folk in Hawaii are going to stay that way—at least until the war is over.

A Honolulu broadcast recorded here by NBC said the territorial courts had reconvened but decreed that no divorce trials will be heard for the duration.

Jury trials and all hearings for which witnesses must be subpoenaed also have been dispensed with, the broadcast said.

JEWISH GOOD FELLOWSHIP
Camp Edwards, Mass., Dec. 20.—(AP)—Camp Edwards officials announced today that Jewish officers and soldiers had volunteers to take over all camp duties on Christmas day to permit as many as possible of other faiths to have furloughs on the holiday.

THANK YOU...
People of Medford and the Rogue River Valley

Upon the occasion of our FIFTH ANNIVERSARY in Medford, we extend to our many southern Oregon friends our sincere appreciation for the generous support given our institute. We are grateful, too, for the endorsement of our service from members of the Medical profession.

We have continually strived to merit the confidence of the people of this community—in perfecting our service and extending our facilities. In addition to our exercise room we have a physiotherapy department equipped with sun lamp, infra-red lamp, vibrator, electric cabinet, shower, etc. Spacious quarters in our own home lend themselves admirably to this additional equipment and service.

Thirty years of experience and achievement in the field of physical education enable us to offer truly valuable service in many fields—in prescribing individual exercises for body building and reducing in accurately prescribed body massages, electric cabinet baths, etc.

A FREE CONSULTATION for the analysis of YOUR personal needs and problems will be cheerfully given.
