

LOCAL and PERSONAL

At Camp Roberts—Ervin D. Lewis, local youth who entered army service recently, may now be addressed at the F. A. Replacement Training Center, Camp Roberts, Cal. The Mail Tribune was notified officially today.

Leavitt South—E. P. Leavitt, superintendent of Crater Lake national park, will spend the Christmas holiday season with relatives at Yosemite national park in California. He left for the south by train Monday evening. He planned to return January 11.

Good Skiing—Conditions were good for skiing in Crater Lake national park today, it was reported by short wave radio. The snow was 48 inches deep, the broadcaster said. Motorists were advised to use tire chains as park roads were slippery in places.

Attend Funeral—Miss Madeleine Metzger returned to Los Angeles, Cal., Saturday after attending the funeral of her father, Robert Metzger of Jacksonville. Also returning to his home was E. E. Metzger of Joseph, a brother who also came here for the funeral services held Thursday.

Koosers on Visit—Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Kooser of Ashland left Tuesday for Gaston, Ore., where they will visit Mr. Kooser's son-in-law, and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wilson, over the holidays. Mr. Wilson, formerly of the Prospect school faculty, is now school superintendent at Gaston.

Public Advised—The motoring public was advised by city police today to keep a closer watch on the city's automatic traffic signals, which have been partially blacked out in line with regulations governing lights. The red, green and yellow lights have been partially covered so that only a small illumination can be seen by motorists.

Fined $5—Ray McCallister of Medford was fined $5 in city court yesterday for driving a car without an operator's license. He was cited after a minor accident between his machine and one operated by William O. Peery of Ferndale, Cal., on North Riverside avenue in front of the Coffee Pot yesterday afternoon.

Resigns—Announcement was made today of the resignation of Miss Frances M. Martin as secretary to E. P. Leavitt, superintendent of Crater Lake national park. No reason was given for the resignation. Miss Martin will spend the Christmas holidays at her home in Salem and then return to Medford for a stay before going on a visit to San Francisco. She has been a member of the Crater Lake national park staff since October 6 when she was transferred from the regional park service office in San Francisco.

To Carmel—Dr. and Mrs. Charles T. Sweeney and Miss Henrietta Janssen will leave early tomorrow morning for Carmel, Cal., where they will remain until spring. The Sweeneys motored north to attend the funeral of their daughter, Edith May Sweeney, which was held this morning. Also attending the funeral were Mrs. S. G. Wilkinson, sister of Dr. Sweeney, of San Francisco and Mrs. Ralph C. Day and son Charles of Portland. Mrs. Wilkinson will accompany the Sweeneys as far as San Francisco. Mrs. Day and her son returned north today. Mrs. Day is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Sweeney.

Yule Gathering—Phil Gilstrap, assistant advertising manager of the Oregon Statesman, Salem, arrived by United Mainliner yesterday afternoon to join his wife and their young son, Phil, Jr., who have been here for several days as guests of Mrs. Gilstrap's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Powell of 414 Valley View Drive. The Gilstraps will be Christmas guests at the home of Mr. Gilstrap's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest R. Gilstrap of 35 Geneva street. Edward R. Walker and son Jonnie were expected to arrive from their home in Eugene tonight to join Mrs. Walker in a Christmas reunion dinner at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest R. Gilstrap. Mrs. Walker has been here about a week. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Gilstrap of 111 Washington street, son and daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gilstrap, will also attend the yule gathering. Mr. and Mrs. Willard Eberhart of Seattle, Wash., another son-in-law and daughter, will be unable to come home this Christmas. Mr. Eberhart's duties with United Press keeping him at his desk.

Appointed—Dwight L. Phipps, district fire warden of the state forest department, has been appointed by Gov. Charles A. Sprague to the Jackson County Council of Defense, the local council announced today. The county council has appointed Mr. Phipps supervisor of its aircraft warning service.

Move Here—Mr. and Mrs. Albert Thommesen returned to Medford from San Francisco last night to take up residence here again. Mr. Thommesen, a mechanical engineer, is employed by the army engineers. He worked here previously on the architect-engineer's staff that drew the plans for the proposed army cantonment.

Yule Visitors—Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Welin of Puente, Cal., arrived last night to spend the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Frank De Souza of 30 West Central avenue. Mrs. Welin and Mrs. Desouza are sisters. Mr. Welin is a walnut grower. He said that despite war conditions which have imposed travel restrictions in California, he and Mrs. Welin were treated with the utmost courtesy and consideration throughout the journey north.

Plane Passengers—Arriving last midnight by United Mainliner were R. S. McGaricle, from Seattle, and Mrs. R. Stein, from Portland. C. H. Jonas departed for San Francisco last evening. Sparky Bourque departed for Seattle yesterday afternoon. Arriving early yesterday afternoon were J. K. Jorgenson and E. Phair, from Portland and Phil Gilstrap, from Salem. F. A. Burgis departed for Los Angeles. Miss C. Hovious arrived from Los Angeles yesterday noon. Mainliners were running on schedule today.
