

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Visits Parents—Mrs. Earl Wymore and daughter, Miss Dorothy May, arrived this morning by train for a visit at the home of Mrs. Wymore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hon, 213 Crater Lake avenue, Mrs. Wymore is the former Marjorie Hon of this city.

From School—Jerry Taylor, student at the University of Oregon, is spending Christmas holidays at the home of his father, Leo L. Taylor, of 10 Clark street. Taylor is taking advanced aviation as part of his university course.

Still Safe—Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Roberts, 32 Rose avenue, received word again yesterday that their son, Lieut. Richard Roberts, was still safe in the Philippine Islands. Roberts is with the aviation arm of the navy.

Return Home—Miss Ruth Fredrickson, 512 Pennsylvania avenue, and Miss Shirley Mae Brunn, 1012 East Main street, returned home this morning by motor after spending Christmas day in Roseburg visiting relatives and friends.

Roads Good—Martin Palmer, Crater Lake national park mechanic was a Medford business visitor today. He reported that roads within the park were in good condition and roads on the outside of the park a little slick. The latest measurement showed about 48 inches of snow in the park, he said, motorists were advised to carry tire chains.

New Addresses—The army today notified the Mail Tribune of the official addresses of a number of local boys who recently enlisted. They were Joe E. Earley, Jr., Harold Morse and Duane E. Estes, Air Corps Unassigned, Jefferson Barracks, Mo.; Edward T. Jones, C. A. C. Replacement Center, Camp Callan, Cal., and Henry C. Betz, First Medical Regiment, Fort Ord, Cal.

Removed—Fred Smith, 77, of Copper, prospector who was found stricken with paralysis in his lonely cabin, by a neighbor last Monday, has been removed to a Yreka, Cal., hospital. The aged man is believed to have lain two days without food or care before he was discovered. Local hospital attendants said his condition was as good as could be expected. Smith's only relative is a sister living in Los Angeles.

Plane Passengers—Leaving last night by United Mainliner were C. H. Williams, to Vancouver, B. C., H. Steele, to Seattle, and L. Glather and R. Fety to Portland. G. Peckham arrived from Portland last evening. Leaving yesterday afternoon were H. E. Waterbury, to Portland, and Miss Natalie Tengwald, to Boise, Ida. The early morning Mainliner today and last night's midnight plane passed over Medford because of unfavorable weather conditions for landing here.

Back to Work—Nine local youths left here by car last night to resume their work this morning in the Boeing aircraft plant at Seattle after spending Christmas at home. They were Clive and Delbert Troxell, Don and Walter Niedermeyer and Clayton Yost of Medford, Reuel Rians and Gordon Reed of Jacksonville, Stanley Jones of Central Point and Alvin Perdue of Hornbrook, Cal. They all arrived here by car Wednesday.

Promoted—Rogue River national forest headquarters today received notice from the northwest regional office in Portland of the promotion of two men, Fred Ames, and F. V. Horton, well known here. Mr. Ames was advanced from assistant to the chief of the division of timber management to assistant regional forester in charge of recreation and lands. This position has been held by Mr. Horton who was made chief of the division of operation to replace M. L. Merritt, retired. Mr. Horton was range examiner on the Rogue River national forest in 1924 and Mr. Ames has been a periodic visitor in Southern Oregon. The northwest region embraces the national forests of Oregon and Washington.
