

FLORA A. ANDREWS CALLED BY DEATH

Mrs. Flora A. Andrews of 396 North Holly street, passed away at her home early this morning.

To Make Future New Years Happy KEEP YOUR MOUTH SHUT

OF COURSE, we wish you a Happy New Year. But hurriedly. We want to get on and propose a New Year's resolution for us all: "Serve in Silence. Don't Reveal Military Information."

In this we not only echo the plea of military authorities but speak on a subject Standard knows something about.

When warships or merchant ships take on oil, our people often know it. When tanks and trucks and caissons roll, we're sometimes called upon to "get their fusties" with the fuel.

May we assure you that every person connected with Standard is pledged all-out to help win this war... eyes open... chin up... and mouth shut!

Rammin-Ford Rites Read At Sacred Heart Church

Miss Helen Rammin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Rammin of 831 West 12th street and Hugo L. Ford, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Ford of 1117 West Eighth street were quietly married yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Sacred Heart church.

The wedding party entered the church to organ music played by Miss Martha DeSouza. The church was decorated for the annual observance of the Yule season. The bride, was given in marriage by her father and wore a brown silk dress with a corsage of tallies roses.

The ceremony was read by the Father Francis W. Black, pastor of Sacred Heart church, in the presence of a small group of friends and relatives.

Mrs. Rammin, mother of the bride, wore a wine velvet dress with a corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Ford, mother of the bridegroom, wore a black ensemble with a gardenia corsage.

A reception followed at the Rammin home. Mrs. H. A. Ford and Mrs. Orville Hayes presided at the service table which was centered with a large wedding cake, which was cut first by the bride, Mrs. Rammin and Ed Nichols assisted during the reception.

Mrs. Ford graduated from Medford high school and Mr. Ford from high school in South Dakota and later attended school in Hollywood, Cal. They will take up residence in this city on West Second street. Mr. Ford is employed at Firestone Auto Supply and Service store.

Among out-of-town guests at the wedding and reception were Mrs. Bertha Yocum and sons, Billy and Bob, of Albany, Ore. Mrs. Yocum is an aunt of the bridegroom. Miss Margaret Rawlings of Berkeley, Cal., also attended.

Redmen Schedule Annual Dance Redmen will sponsor their annual New Year's dance Wednesday evening at their hall on Apple street. All Redmen, Pochontas and their guests are invited. Favors will be given at midnight.

In charge of arrangements are Theo Anseth, Fred Knox and working on refreshments are Don Miller, James Wicker and Frank Martin.

Dorothy Hansen Weds Mr. Cameron At Christian Church

Married yesterday afternoon at the First Christian church were Miss Dorothy Hansen daughter of Clarence Hansen of Orchard Home Drive and Roy Cameron, grandson of Mrs. Olive Pence, 365 South Central avenue. The ceremony was read at 2:30 o'clock in the presence of a large group of relatives and friends.

The church was decorated with greenery and lighted white tapers. Preceding the ceremony Miss Betty Dougherty sang "Because" accompanied at the piano by Miss Catherine Gentner. The wedding party entered the church to traditional wedding music.

The bride, gowned in a white tulle wedding dress, completed her costume with a finer tip-length tulle veil which fell from a coronet of seed pearls and a bouquet of pink rosebuds and carnations. She was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Ben Hansen, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Mrs. Hansen wore a floor-length pink chiffon gown with a short quilted jacket and a corsage of gardenias. Ben Hansen, brother of the bride, was best man. The candelabras were also lighted by Mr. Hansen.

The ceremony was read by the Rev. Reuben W. Coleman, pastor of the First Christian church. At the close of the service friends greeted the couple in the vestibule of the church.

A family dinner honored the wedding party at the Hansen home after the ceremony. The wedding cake was cut by the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Cameron will make their home in this city where Mrs. Cameron is employed at the J. J. Newberry company and Mr. Cameron at California Oregon Power Company. They have taken up residence on Almond street.

Elks Lodge Plans Annual New Year's Dance

Members of the Medford Elks lodge will greet the New Year with their annual New Year's Eve ball Wednesday night. The affair will be held at the Elks temple. Several parties have been planned before the dance and it is expected that a large crowd will be present to enjoy the music of Steve Whipple's orchestra.

John Eddy, chairman of the Elks dance committee, stated that there will be favors and noise makers and that Elks will be permitted to bring guests but urged members to secure their guest tickets as early as possible.

Family Gathers At Henninger Home

Mrs. E. L. Henninger of 1000 West Main street entertained at her home Christmas day with a family dinner. All members of her family, with the exception of five, were in attendance.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Henninger and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vedder and son, Freddy of Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hunsaker of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Henninger of Winchester; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Short of Wilbur; Mr. and Mrs. J. Kenneth Henninger and daughter, Karen Lee and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thrift of Coquille and Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Williams of this city.

Wall St. Report New York, Dec. 29.—(P)—In the speediest session for more than 18 months, the stock market today moved over a notably uneven route with gains a shade in the majority at the close. Steels, rails and an assortment of "blue chips" enjoyed year-end recoveries of fractions to 2 points or so, while rubbers, oils, tobaccos and motors finished with losses of as much. Heavy tax selling was fairly well absorbed but it was sufficient to put brakes on many issues and offset to a certain extent replacement demand which in many instances was more or less urgent.
