News Behind The News

fer. Earnings of companies will be limited. A revolutionary change in business customs will take place, but the alert business man will survive and succeed.

LATEST international reports in the oil trade (accepted by officials here) indicate der fuhrer's great oil reserves, built up for this war, are now down to about a two-months supply. At the outset of the war he had 8,000,000 tons in reserve. Only six months ago, he had even more—10,000,000 tons, counting what he had obtained in Rumania, Poland and Russia. But the Russian campaign has cut him down to a 4,000,000-ton reserve, with consumption running at 2,000,000 tons a month. Counting his synthetic production, plus his Rumanian supply, he is getting less than 1,000,000 tons a month with which to meet his deficit.

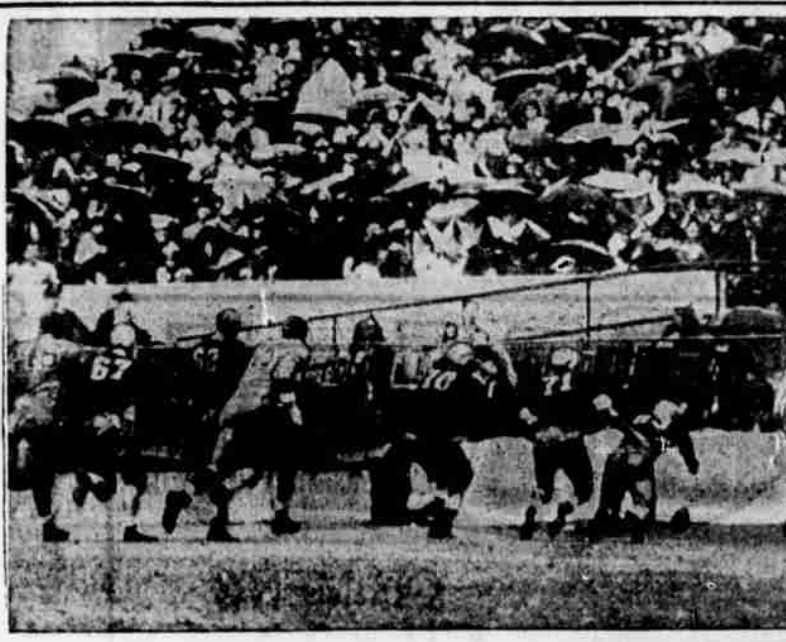

DER chesty fuhrer has likewise lost many more tanks than show in the Russian communiqués—not to the reds, but through deterioration running around a thousand-mile front. At the start of the war, he had 12 panzer divisions. By the time he was ready to attack Russia he had 21 for that front, two or three in north Africa and one in Yugoslavia. His losses from deterioration and battle have now caused him quietly to reorganize several panzer divisions into infantry divisions.

Likewise, the past few days the reds have had superiority in the air at the front for the first time in the war. Joint British, American and Russian plane production now outstrips the German.

The year 1942 bears the obvious prospects of bad news for us from the far east, but good prospects for an invasion or collapse of Italy.

THE country apparently wants to save tin cans, tin foil, razor blades and old license plates—regardless. Protesters have poured in upon this column since its contrary advice. The government, however, does not desire that the nation save these items. Conservation division of OEM found processing and collecting costs were too high to warrant such action at this time. Inability of the average citizen to distinguish between lead, tin and aluminum foil makes that favorable contribution of every citizen

Blocked Kick Wins For Fordham

A safety enabled Fordham to beat Missouri, 2 to 0 in the Sugar Bowl game at New Orleans. Here's the blocked kick play on which Fordham scored. No. 83, Stanley Rittinski (I) is falling on the ball, but No. 71, Stephen Mudacek, finally got it. The Missouri punter was Don Greenwood (No. 15) and the kick was blocked by Alex Sanilli (No. 70). Five Die In Crash of Army Bomber Smoke pours from the wreckage of a twin-engine army bomber after it crashed at Garden City Park, Long Island, N. Y., killing its five occupants. Witnesses said the plane struck a high tension wire and exploded twice after hitting the ground.

in the last war impractical, so far in this one.

At army camps, where large quantities of cans are available without cost, they are being collected. In Texas (where the government has an experimental plant) and in some Pacific regions, can salvaging also is being tried.

But OEM wants you to save only: Newspapers, old rags, scrap metals, old rubber. These you must tie in neat bundles and sell to your junk dealer or give to collecting agency.
