Senate Farm Bloc Backs Demand for Voice in Ceilings

Washington, Jan. 6.—(AP)—Claiming support of at least 42 senators, the senate farm bloc agreed today to demand that the secretary of agriculture be given equal authority in fixing price ceilings for any farm product or article manufactured from farm products.

Senator Bankhead (D-Ala.) said "general agreement" on his proposed amendment to the price-fixing bill awaiting senate action Wednesday was reached at a closed conference of senators from agricultural areas held in the senate agricultural committee room today. "No one was bound by our session but it looks pretty good for senate passage of my amendment," Bankhead told reporters. The amendment will require "prior approval" by the secretary of agriculture for any price maximum established by the price administrator under the proposed legislation. "This would give the secretary a veto power over any farm price ceiling," Bankhead said.

Auto Guest Upheld In Claim On Injury

Salem, Jan. 6.—(AP)—The state supreme court upheld today the $15,000 personal injury verdict which Lucile E. Willoughby won in Lincoln county circuit court from her aunt, Myrtle L. Driscoll, and Gordon Harris. She was injured July 23, 1939, on the Corvallis-Waldport highway when riding as a guest of her aunt in a car driven by Driscoll. She claimed that Driscoll was intoxicated and fell asleep at the wheel, causing the car to go over a steep embankment.

RETURN OF MITCHELL RANK RECOMMENDED

Washington, Jan. 6.—(AP)—The senate military committee recommended today that the rank of brigadier general be restored to the late Col. William L. Mitchell, world war army chief, whose outspoken criticism of army policy resulted in his court martial.

The automobile industry has defense plants in 67 cities and towns located in 17 states.

RAID PRECAUTIONS TOPIC IN CLASSES CONDUCTED BY FBI

38 Law Enforcement Officers And City Officials Enroll For Course Here.

Air raid precautions and actions of aerial bombs, both explosive and incendiary, were the subjects discussed by G. H. Treadwell of the FBI this morning as the Federal Bureau of Investigation's six-day civilian defense course for police, sheriffs and state police went into its second day at the county courthouse auditorium. The course will be concluded Friday.

Thirty-eight law enforcement officers and city officials in this area are enrolled in the course, designed to assist police agencies in meeting emergency conditions caused by the war. Classes are being held from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. daily.

Power Described

Mr. Treadwell described in detail the explosive power of delayed action and contact fuse bombs, their penetrating and perforating power against different objects and the minimum amount of reinforced concrete necessary for protection from a direct hit. Registered for the course are the following:

Robert A. Duff, superintendent of the Medford Water commission; Paul M. Hanlin, deputy U. S. marshal, Medford; George W. Neilson, district attorney of Jackson county; Vern L. Drager, inspector of the Oregon Liquor Control commission, Medford; Sgt. O. A. MacKinnon of the state police, Medford; William Grenbemer, deputy sheriff, Medford; L. G. Morthland, deputy sheriff, Medford; T. M. Kurtz, deputy sheriff, Medford; Vern Smith, deputy sheriff, Medford; and Marvin Stevens, deputy sheriff, Medford.

Chief Clatus McCredie, assistant Chief Joe Cave and officers William W. O'Brien, Walter J. Reinking, R. Leo Seivick, William E. Peck, Clyde Richter and Richard H. Balze, all of the city police department; George H. Heryford, sanitarian of the Oregon State board of Health, Medford; A. Donley Barnes, sheriff of Josephine county; Thomas P. Gordon, deputy sheriff, Josephine county; Ben F. Graybill, police chief, Grants Pass, and Ken Williams and Pete Smith, Grants Pass city policemen.

Elmer C. Biegel, city superintendent, Ashland; Clarence C. Williams, Ashland city policeman; William B. Davis, sanitarian of the state board of health, Klamath Falls; H. T. Franey, Klamath Falls city policeman; Bert F. Simmons, Talent chief of police; Roy Coffman, member of the Talent city council; Arden Pinkham, Central Point city marshal; Cy Combest, deputy sheriff, Phoenix, Clement C. Freely, deputy sheriff, Rogue River; Ed Davis, chief of police of Merrill; Dan Werner, chief of police of Bonanza; Roy E. Dodson, Jr., assistant sanitary engineer, Oregon State board of Health, Portland, and Richard Patrick, deputy sheriff, Davis, Calif.

Also here with Mr. Treadwell is J. D. Swenson, special agent in charge of the Portland bureau of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

IRRIGATION SNOW MOST IN YEARS

County Watermaster Clinton Smith reported today snowfall in the irrigation reservoir areas shows an even fall average from Hiatt prairie to Fish lake. He said there was more snow on the ground now than at any time since 1933. Measurement at Hiatt last Sunday by a snow survey crew showed 24 inches. On January 31 last year, there was 18 inches of snow there. At Fish lake 25 inches of snow was reported Monday. Four Mile lake last week recorded 58 inches.

Shorter Course for Colleges to Be Eyed

Eugene, Jan. 6.—(AP)—The possibility of shortening the college course in state institutions under a six-week, eight-hour day and four-quarter year will be considered at a meeting Jan. 25.

The state system of higher education defense council, president of the colleges of education and the associate dean of the medical school will meet in Portland to discuss the proposal. Chancellor Frederick M. Hunter said today.

CLIPPER TRAPPED IN NEW ZEALAND CIRCLES WORLD

New York, Jan. 6.—(AP)—Pan American Airways' Pacific Clipper, trapped in New Zealand by the outbreak of war in the Far East a month ago tomorrow, arrived here today after a globe-girdling flight described officially as "routine."

The flying boat was at Auckland on a scheduled passenger and mail flight from San Francisco and Los Angeles when overtaken by the start of hostilities.

With the war closing the normal return route to the Pacific mainland, the Clipper was ordered to proceed by the "most practical route" to the Atlantic terminal in New York.

The globe-encircling route which was then followed carried the Clipper, commanded by Capt. Robert Ford, back and forth across the Equator four times and stretched out to 31,500 miles of flying from the time it left San Francisco on December 2.

The Pacific Clipper touched or crossed the south Pacific, Indian and Atlantic oceans, Australia, the Timor sea, Netherlands Indies, Bay of Bengal, Arabian sea, Persian gulf, Red sea, the Nile, Congo and Amazon rivers, South America and the West Indies.

All employees at the Medford Corporation received a two and a half cent increase per hour beginning the first of the year. E. H. Card, A. F. of L. representative for the carpenters' union in this district, said today.

The employees also will receive a week's vacation with pay. However, details of the vacation are not yet worked out. The vacations may be on a staggered basis or the mill may close for a week, Card stated.

Famed French Singer, Mme. Emma Calve, Dies

Vichy, Unoccupied France, Jan. 6.—(AP)—The death of Mme. Emma Calve, famous French opera singer for whom the composer Massenet created the title roles in "La Navarraise" and "Sappho," was announced today. She died at Millau, in the Department of Aveyron in southern France, at the age of 75.

It was in Aveyron, at La Dastide, that Emma Calve was born on Aug. 15, 1866, and it was from the convent at Millau that she went out to begin her musical education at the age of 15.

FORT LEWIS GARBAGE SCANDAL PROBE DUE

Tacoma, Jan. 6.—(AP)—Federal Judge Lloyd L. Black issued an order today for a federal grand jury to convene January 15.

J. Charles Dennis, United States attorney, said the jury would be in session for only two or three cases. His office said one case still pending was the garbage collection case discovered at Fort Lewis several months ago when it was found large amounts of good food were being stacked with the garbage for disposal.
