Former Gymnasium Transformed Into Two-Story Sunday School Structure.

chairs. A good attendance is through the pastor, Rev. Louis C. Kirby, today announced completion of the newly built church school temple at a cost of over $8000. The part of the building formerly used as a gymnasium has been made into a two-story modern Sunday school plant adding to the present equipment two assembly rooms and twelve sound-proof class rooms.

Other improvements include a beautiful worship chapel completely furnished, a large social hall for recreational and social activities, complete renovating and decorating of the church auditorium, the laying of a new carpet, painting of the church inside and out, and modernizing of the heating units.

The new temple will be dedicated Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Dr. S. E. Fairham, Oregon conference superintendent, and the former pastor, Rev. Joseph Knotts, of Salem, will be here to officiate. Other pastors expected to attend are the former pastor of the South Methodist church, Rev. J. P. Bray, of North Bend; Rev. George Bruce, of Ashland; Rev. Darlow Johnson, of Grants Pass, and Rev. C. W. Attleford, of Talent.

The choir will sing the anthem: "The Heavens Are Telling," from "The Creation," by Haydn. Solo, "The Holy City," by Adams, will be sung by W. P. Brooks, baritone.

At the close of the morning service, the church will celebrate the occasion with a pot-luck dinner, self service style. Tables will be provided for 200 people. A solo, "Wake, Soul of Mine," by Hemery, will be sung by Helen High Pierce, soprano.

A large evening service at 7:30 is planned with Rev. Joseph Knotts as speaker. The program will include a quartet, "The Lost Chord" by Sullivan, personnel, Elsie Carleton Strang, soprano, Mabel Randolph, alto, C. A. Meeker, tenor, R. C. Wright, baritone; a solo entitled, "How Lovely Are Thy Dwellings," by Liddle, by Mary Ann Gates, soprano.

DEFENSE BONDS BUYING PLEDGE WILL BE ASKED

All Oregonians To Be Offered Opportunity To Put Patriotic Aim in Writing.

Citizens of Oregon, every one of the 1,118,000 within the boundaries, will have the opportunity of "lining up with Uncle Sam" on January 20, it was announced in Portland today by Palmer Hoyt, state chairman of the defense savings bond staff.

The opportunity will be offered everyone, beginning on this date, to sign, voluntarily, a pledge to purchase regularly United States defense bonds and stamps. Through firms, organizations, and by a house-to-house campaign, pledge cards will be made available to all citizens. Those signing the cards will themselves set the amount they wish to subscribe for bonds, and may make what changes are necessary in their purchase programs later, it is pointed out.

Chairmen in Charge
In charge of the campaign to obtain pledges will be chairmen of the county defense bond organizations throughout the state. They will be assisted by the entire state defense bond staff, and numerous patriotic, fraternal and other groups.

The drive will be the greatest concerted action of its kind ever undertaken in this state, Hoyt points out. It is also expected to base plans for the entire country on what is accomplished in Oregon.

"Oregon has always led the nation in patriotism," Mr. Hoyt stated. "And this will be another opportunity to demonstrate our leadership. The success of this pledge campaign will also be a ringing note for victory in this great war in which we are now engaged."

Citizens who wish to volunteer their services for the pledge drive are urged to get in touch with members of their county defense bond organizations. The defense bonds and stamps which people will be urged to pledge themselves to purchase are United States securities, with the full faith of the government behind them.

PRESS CONFERENCE

TALK WAR CONTRACTS

Over 390,000 people are employed in the cosmetic industry of the United States.

THIRSTS FOR DEFENSE
Fall River, Mass.—(AP)—Francis P. Moffitt and his son, who are conducting an individual defense stamp selling campaign in their restaurant, hung up a sign reading: "Instead of buying a drink for the bartender, buy a stamp for democracy."

They almost sold out their entire $250 stamp stock the first day.
Production of asbestos in Arizona has been spurred by demands of defense industries.

SAWMILL SPEEDS UP
Toledo, Ore., Jan. 9.—(AP)—The C. D. Johnson sawmill, which has been working its 800-man crew half-time for several weeks while bearings were being repaired, is returning to two eight-hour shifts daily.
