Billy Hulen Says:
Bursitis Plagues Ashland Southpaw; Taking Treatment

Bob Hardy, Ashland's lanky contribution to professional baseball, was troubled last season with bursitis, the arm affliction that has caused probably more anguish among incumbents, and brought more careers to an end, than any other physical ailment.

The lanky southpaw twirler, who did his hurling for Beaumont of the Texas league, explained that a hard growth in the bursa of his left shoulder prevented him from taking his regular turn on the hill.

"It got so bad," Bob recalled, "that after working a few innings I couldn't lift my arm about my shoulder. Yes it hurt like everything."

The bursa is a tiny sac or pocket filled with oily fluid, located in the shoulder joint between the muscle and bone surface to prevent friction. It is in this sac that Bob has the growth.

Spending the winter in Ashland and picking up a few loose clams by refereeing basketball games, Bob is undergoing treatment for his lame arm by Dr. R. E. Poston.

The Ashland physician, Bob said, is treating the arm with x-rays, and added that both he and the doctor had high hopes the growth would disappear and the arm become normal again.

Dr. Poston, Hardy stated has successfully treated many similar cases of bursitis in Ashland, from sufferers who are not ball players.

Bob is not certain of his baseball future because as yet he doesn't know whether the arm treatment he is undergoing will prove successful. If it does, he will return to Beaumont next spring. If not, he doesn't plan to report, and may undergo an operation for the removal of the growth.

An operation, however, will mean that his playing days are over. He said nobody ever pitched again after such a growth was removed by surgery.

Hardy won 5 and lost 4 last season and had an earned-run average of 3.69. He pitched five complete games and worked in 16, all told, hurling 78 innings, allowing 51 runs, 85 hits, 33 walks and striking out 17.

There is some talk of Oklahoma of the Big Six and Arkansas of the Southwest conference changing places. Jack Barr and Gene Thordike were a couple (and there weren't many) of local grid prognosticators who "cleared up" on the Oregon State-Duke sweetheart... it wouldn't surprise us a bit if Jacksonville's Redskins soared right to the pinnacle of Oregon class B basketball...

Al Guthrie, all-state forward for the Ashland high Grizzlies in their state championship year of 1922, thinks the biggest difference in the game then and now is the terrific scores the current quintets are forever hanging up... Guthrie, it might be remarked, was quite a point-maker himself... he canned 22 tallies in Ashland's 45 to 22 win over Pendleton in the tourney finals of that season... "Gut," as he was always known in "the good old days," works for the Southern Pacific out of Ashland...

REDSKINS UPSET SOCE FRESHMEN

Jacksonville high went way out of its class last night at Ashland to turn in a stunning 33 to 29 defeat of the Little Sons of Southern Oregon College of Education in a preliminary to the SOCE-Mt. Angel fracas.

The class B quintet nosed out the collegians in the final period, after the score was tied, 15-15 at half. Johnson of the winners scored 13 points. For the losers, Jantzer was high with 11.

LEW BECK SCORES 17 POINTS; CANS WINNING BASKETS

Ex-Pendleton High Star Hits Seven Points In Overtime To Clinch Victory.

Corvallis, Jan. 13.—(AP)—Aided by the deadly 17-point shooting of Sophomore Guard Lew Beck, a veteran Oregon State college basketball quintet defeated coast champion Washington State college team, 52-47, in an overtime tussle here last night.

Beck starred throughout, breaking through the Cougar defense constantly to sink lay-in shots and scoring the game-clincher in the final moments of the overtime.

The Oregonians took an early 15-9 lead but the Cougars reduced it to 24-23 at halftime and continued to hold with the Beavers until the Oregonians took a 44-40 lead five minutes before game time. Al Akins, Cougar forward, knotted the count with two field goals and each team added one more to knot the count at regular game time.

Beck shot a field goal almost at once in the overtime and followed by a free throw to raise the count to 49-46. The Cougars added one more point from a free throw but the Beavers stalled and sewed up the game when Beck scored again in closing seconds.

This was the Cougars second northern division conference defeat in three starts.

Beck, all state forward while with Pendleton high, was selected most valuable player at the state high school tournament two years.

McNutt was next high scorer, with 15 points.

WAYNE SABIN MAY TURN TENNIS PRO

Coral Gables, Fla., Jan. 13.—(AP)—Two of the country's ranking players of 1941—Wayne Sabin of Portland, Ore., and Gardner Mulley of Miami—disclosed today that they may soon desert amateur tennis to play for pay.

Sabin, No. 6 in the national list, said they contemplated signing for a tour involving about 100 matches. The Red Cross and USO would share in any profits from the tour, he and Mulley agreed.

The Dalles Coach Boosted By Hyland For Husky Post

By Fred Hampson (Associated Press Staff Writer)
It comes out now that Washington can get Pop Warner in an advisory capacity by hiring Chuck McGuinness of The Dalles as its football coach. The information comes from, of all places, Los Angeles. It comes in the form of a plug for McGuinness for the job which is even more of a surprise. Los Angeles is not famous for boosting northwesterners.

McGuinness, who coached The Dalles high eleven into an Oregon state championship, sought the Washington job after the Huskies dismissed Coach Jimmy Phelan. Although he is an alumnus of Washington, McGuinness never played football there. Fifteen years ago he stroked the purple crew to victory at Poughkeepsie.

Later in New England he turned football coach more or less by necessity and last summer he picked up The Dalles job, which opened while he was vacationing in the northwest.

Dick Hyland, sports columnist of the Los Angeles Times, advocates him for the Washington billet and the explanation for this apparently strange epousal is contained in Hyland's story:

"... If those Washington Wolves who 'got' Jimmy Phelan should be cute enough to give McGuinness a go at the Husky job, who do you think would be sitting on the bench with him, at no cost to Washington? No one but old Poppus Warner himself! And there would be a combination tough to beat.

"McGuinness is presently coaching The Dalles high school. He won the class A championship, the first for The Dalles since 1923! He beat Medford, a powerhouse team that uses the T-formation, 28-0.

"It was 15 years ago that young McGuinness, just out of Washington, applied for and got a physical education director's job at a small school in New England. After obtaining it he discovered in his horror that he was expected to coach the football team, personally. He knew no more football than the average crew man does, which is next to none.

"Undaunted and needing the job he contacted Pop Warner and Pop gave him enough tips to start the season, then carried on a steady correspondence with him, and pulled through the double-wing offense which Pop originated. He has used it ever since, winning 120 games, losing 26 and tying 4. From 1932 to 1939 McGuinness' teams have lost but one game at home, have lost but once by more than six points anywhere. That his teams were playing no push-overs, is suggested by the fact that they played post-season prep school "bowl" games in Miami (twice), St. Petersburg, Jacksonville, New York, Port Arthur, Texas, and won several New England championships.

"I suspect Chuck McGuinness would like to go back to his alma mater; most coaches do. And I know that if he does Pop Warner, who is not one bit interested in salary, will be sitting on the bench in the same advisory capacity that was his when he helped Dad Degroot at San Jose State."

MT. ANGEL FALLS TO SOCE, 60-32

Ashland, Jan. 13.—(AP)—Southern Oregon College of Education throttled Mount Angel in the second half of a basketball game here last night for a 60-32 win that kept the victors at the head of the Oregon intercollegiate conference.

Mount Angel led, 30 to 18, at halftime, but could score only two points while the Sons ran wild in the closing frame.

War Leads to More Athletic Activity In Eastern Schools

By Judson Bailey
New York, Jan. 13.—(AP)—The impact of war has thrown the athletic program of eastern colleges into confusion, but there seems certain to be more sports activity instead of less.

Today the situation is jumbled—and the athletic directors themselves are in the dark. Many not knowing even when their own institutions will begin and end their school terms.

Many colleges plan to crowd three semesters into their calendars in an academic "speed-up," and this is where the war is being reflected most fully on athletics.

Vacations are being abandoned and commencements advanced generally a full month, resulting in the shortening of spring schedules and the discarding of sports junkets formerly made during the Easter recess.

However, there will be intercollegiate athletics during the summer terms for the first time at many colleges, physical education will be compulsory for all men at some schools, and freshmen may be admitted to varsity competition.

TIGERS TO OPEN DISTRICT SLATE AT GRANTS PASS

With a pre-season record of two wins and two losses, Medford high's Tigers will start playing for keeps tonight when they move to Grants Pass to face the Cavemen in their opening district 4 basketball contest. The tilt will start after a 7:30 preliminary.

Coach Russ Acheson has made a slight change in Medford's starting lineup. Niedermeyer and Monteith will start at the forwards, Captain Henry Herman at center and Reynolds and Fawcett at the guards. Bill Wall and R. B. Webber, openers against the Little Sons last Friday night, will see plenty of action, the mentor said.

Grants Pass, who lost to Ashland Friday in the district's first game of the season, will probably have Strowbridge and Evererton at forwards, Martindale at center and Schrimpt and Gray at the guards.

The Tiger squad, 16 strong, will leave here at 6:30 this evening.

JOE LOUIS GIVES $50,000 TO NAVY

New York, Jan. 13.—(AP)—Joe Louis is busy doing things for others during the last hours before he dons the uniform of a private in the United States army.

The heavyweight boxing champion, who passed the physical and mental tests yesterday and will be inducted tomorrow at Camp Upton, has a date at 3 p. m. today to turn some $50,000-plus over to the naval relief society and later in the day will visit a hospital for negro infantile paralysis victims.

The $50,000-plus is Louis' share of the fight Friday night in which he flattened Buddy Baer in a single round. Joe's 40 per cent of the $189,700.55 gate amount is to approximately $64,000. He is retaining only training camp expenses.

HOGAN, THOMSON FINISH IN TIE; PLAYOFF TODAY

Los Angeles, Jan. 13.—(AP)—Golf's mighty mite, Benny Hogan, ruled a favorite to defeat hefty Jimmy Thomson in the playoff today for top money and the championship of the Los Angeles open golf tournament.

The two wound up in a tie for first place in the bitterly fought seventh annual event, long hitting Thomson posting a 69 for a 72-hole score of 282, and his Texas-born rival from Hershey, Pa., chalking up a 70 for the same total.

They tee off at 1 p. m. (4 p. m. EST) at Hillcrest country club to break the first deadlock since Johnny Revolta lost to Vic Ghezzi in 1935.

Hogan and Thomson had little in common starting the playoff. Hogan topped the nation's professionals in average strokes last year with 70.23 per round in 101 rounds. Long hitting Jimmy didn't make the first ten leaders. Hogan won the most money—$18,358. Thomson wasn't in the top ten.

Sam Snead blew his chances, as just as he did on a par five eighteenth at Philadelphia for the national open crown in 1939.

with an eight-three over par. He came up to the eighteenth three under and needing a par to score 282. He might have had a birdie for 281 if his approach had not dolled down—not once, but three times—the sharp incline to the cup.

CANADA BANS ALL NIPPO'S FISHING

Ottawa, Jan. 13.—(AP)—A Canadian government order today prohibited persons of Japanese origin from fishing in Canadian waters or serving on Canadian fishing boats. The order was announced by J. C. Michau, minister of fisheries.

Some 25,000 Japanese live in Canada, nearly all in British Columbia. Many of them have made their living fishing.

The order followed closely a conference on the Japanese problem here in which dominion officials conferred with the British Columbia standing committee on Orientals.
