

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Pleper Here—Dean Pleper, secretary of the Ashland Chamber of Commerce, transacted business here yesterday.

Chorus To Meet—The Rogue River mixed chorus will meet for rehearsal in room 10 at the Washington school at 7:10 tonight. All members are urged to attend.

Minor Accident—Leon Evans of Central Point and John Davies of Route 4 drove cars involved in a slight mishap at Main and Bartlett streets yesterday afternoon, according to a report on file.

Son Safe—Mrs. W. D. Roberts of 1011 West Tenth street, received word today that her son, Donald Stinson, who has been stationed on Midway Island with the U. S. navy, was safe somewhere in the Pacific.

Turkey Dinner—The public was reminded today of the annual turkey dinner to be held by the Eagle Point Grange in its hall at Eagle Point Sunday, January 25. This dinner has always proved popular with southern Oregon residents and plans have been made this year to maintain the Grange's reputation of more than satisfying everyone. Dinner will be served from 12:30 to 4 p. m. A nominal charge will be made. A musical program will be presented during the afternoon. Everyone is invited and plans have been made to serve a large number of diners.

Jobs Open—The U. S. employment service has openings for junior clerk stenographers with the U. S. civil service commission at Washington, D. C. Local women interested in working at Washington may call at the local employment office at 45 North Fir street for further information.

Fined $10—Charged with disorderly conduct, George L. Belt, 31, was fined $10 in city police court early this week, records revealed today. Belt, according to police, claimed he was a deputy district attorney of Marion county. The charge was filed against him following a disturbance in a local hotel, police said.

To Market—Mrs. Josephine Rostel, Mel Plaskett and John Moffat left this morning by motor for Los Angeles where they will attend buyers' market for Mann's department store. The purpose of the trip is to add to spring merchandise already purchased, Mr. Moffat, manager of Mann's, said. En route the three plan to visit several towns where army cantonments have been located in order to investigate store conditions.

New Residences—A. L. McHenry applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to construct a new residence and private garage at 125 Willamette avenue at a stated cost of $3,000. Wilbur Cook applied for a permit to construct a new residence and private garage at 905 West Jackson boulevard at a stated cost of $3,000. J. H. Polley of 710 1/2 Beekman Way applied for a permit to remodel a cottage at a stated cost of $400.

Enlisted—Sgt. Joseph W. Cushman, commander of the army recruiting station at the Medford federal building, said today he had been officially notified of the formal enlistment at Portland of the following men: Leigh E. Campbell, 328 Edwards street; L. H. Van Horn, Jr., Gold Hill; Kenneth H. Carey and Donald V. DeVore, Canyonville; J. W. Jones, Page, N. D.; and Horace W. Pemberton, Roseburg. All enlisted through the Medford recruiting station.

Visits Son—Mrs. D. D. Roberts, 32 Rose avenue, returned home last evening after spending the past week in San Francisco visiting her son, Dale. Mrs. Roberts made the trip south by train.

Returns Here—Frank Rogers, Jr., United Air Lines station attendant at Medford municipal airport, returned Wednesday noon by plane after spending several days in San Francisco on official business. Rogers returned from San Francisco to Medford via Portland.

Breaks Hip—Mrs. L. O. Caster of the Pacific highway near Phoenix, received word from Portland that her mother, Mrs. Mary E. Ellison, is receiving medical treatment in a Portland hospital for a broken hip. Mrs. Ellison is a former Medford resident and has many friends here. Her Portland address is 1524 Spokane avenue.

Motoring North—Mr. and Mrs. Phil Brainerd of 544 Palm street, will leave in the morning by motorcar for Salem with Mr. and Mrs. Joyce Swartsley and son Jerry of Ashland. They will all spend the week-end in Salem as guests of Mrs. R. W. Swartsley, who is employed in the secretary of state's office, and Bert Swartsley, a pharmacist in Salem. Mrs. Brainerd and Joyce and Bert Swartsley are Mrs. Swartsley's children.

Navy Man Home—Harry Buckmaster arrived from Vallejo, Cal., early this morning to spend a three-day leave from the U. S. navy at the home of his mother, Mrs. J. R. Hampton, and sister, Mrs. Cathryn Mann Cameron, of 9 Mistletoe street. Although in the navy only nine weeks, young Buckmaster has been rushed through his training period and is now a gunner's mate. After his leave he is to report for duty on a tanker at some undisclosed port. Another letter was received today from Harry's older brother, James, who has been with the navy in the far Pacific and was on a ship attacked in the first offensive sweep made by Japan against the U. S. forces. While the letter said that James was fine, his mother deduced that he was in a hospital in Honolulu receiving treatment for a minor injury. James wrote that he lost all of his personal belongings in the attack, including Christmas presents, cash and a money order.

Plane Passengers—H. H. Stoops arrived by United Mainliner from Oakland, Cal., this noon. Leaving for Portland were R. B. Keen and M. A. Wineberg. A Mayo and W. O'Connell departed for Portland yesterday afternoon. O. A. Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. H. Mecklin arrived from Portland early yesterday afternoon.

In Salem—County Commissioner William Perry was in Salem today to attend a meeting of the Association of Oregon Counties. The meeting was called primarily to hear reports from association counsel, Guy Gordon, on the McNary bill regarding solution of the problem facing counties in western states by the large amount of federally-owned land.

Job Tests—The U. S. civil service commission today announced open competitive examinations for the following positions: power linemen, fire-fighters, various aircraft mechanics, electricians and woodworkers, joiners (carpenters) and coal mine inspectors. Full information about these and many other pending examinations may be obtained at Medford postoffice from Earl H. York, secretary of the local board of civil service examiners.

Fights Last Night

(By the Associated Press) Fall River, Mass.—Jackie Harris, 127, Malden, Mass., defeated Carl Stein, 130, New York, (8). Philadelphia—Carl Dell, 147, New York, and Wickey Harkins, 147, Germantown, Pa., fought a draw (8). Elizabeth, N. J.—Joe Baksi, 207, New York, stopped Tommy Gill, 185, Roanoke, Va., (1).

PRICE CONTROL DEADLOCK Washington, Jan. 16.—(AP)—Members of a joint congressional committee announced today they were deadlocked on controversial provisions of the wartime price control legislation and could not promise even a compromise before next week.

SEEK TAX REVIEW Portland, Jan. 16.—(AP)—Twenty-one Portland firms filed an appeal in circuit court today for a review of their experience rate with the unemployment compensation commission. All ask reductions.

Musical-Westerner Here Sunday

Penny (Blondie) Singleton gets set to hit another entertainment bullseye with her performance in "Go West, Young Lady," terrific Western-with-music, which comes to the Rialto Theatre for Sunday and Monday. Studded with songs and sock, dancing and devilry, stars and thrills, the film also stars Charlie Ruggles, Glenn Ford, Ann Miller, Allen Jenkins and Bob Willis and his Texas Playboys. "Spooks Run Wild," starring the Dead End Kids and Bela Lugosi, will play as the added feature!

Sparkling Comedy-Drama Coming

Charles Laughton, Deanna Durbin and Robert Cummings give an exciting exhibition of the most un-traditional fashion. The large supporting cast includes Guy Kibbee, Margaret Tallichet, Walter Catlett, Catherine Doucet and Charles Coleman.

MACARTHUR WINS AUSSIE TRIBUTE

Melbourne, Australia, Jan. 16.—(AP)—The Melbourne Herald in a tribute to General Douglas MacArthur said today that "the gallant delaying action now being fought by defenders of the Philippines under General MacArthur is as inspiring as the defense of Tobruk." The results of General MacArthur's work in organizing the defenses is influencing the strategy of the Pacific in a way that is of vital importance to the democratic cause in general and to Australia in particular, it said.

RADIO SQUEAL TO BE RAID WARNING

Portland, Jan. 16.—(AP)—The squeal that comes out of the radio may be just the thing civilian defense officials are looking for. Carol E. Keeler, former Oregon state policeman, said yesterday that he had developed amplification of the sound from an oscillating radio tube that would make an ideal air raid warning signal. He is getting a patent on the device but offered it free to Portland officials.

Dallas, Tex., Jan. 16.—(AP)—Megs Tires won a southwest AAU basketball game from Karlen Bros., 102 to 28. Not a free throw was scored.

Roxy's Funsters

Ann Miller and Glen Gray (and his Casa Loma Band) head the gang of funsters opening for tonight and Saturday only at the Roxy Theatre in "Time Out for Rhythm." Others in the cast are Rosemary Lane, Allen Jenkins and Joan Merrill. "The Son of Davy Crockett," starring Bill Elliott, plays as the companion Western with the musical.

BOWLING

Table with bowling scores for various leagues including McDonald's, Knights of Columbus, and Valentine's Cafe. Columns include names, handicaps, and totals.

STATE OFFICIAL JUST LIKE REST

Salem, Jan. 16.—(AP)—Budget Director David Eccles, who got a ticket yesterday for driving his car without 1942 license plates, had his new plates all the time, but he had neglected to put them on. Eccles, who is riding a bicycle to work, brought the car to the capitol yesterday, intending to drive it to Portland on official business. But he went to Portland in another car, officials of the state department spotting the old plates on his car and advising state police. The new plates were on the car today.

SHEET METAL CAMPAIGN Salem, Jan. 16.—(AP)—Full-time operation to train 4,000 Oregon men in aviation sheet metal on a 24-hour 7-day schedule was announced today by O. I. Paulson, acting state director for vocational education.

Advertisement for Old Speas Brand Apple Brandy, featuring a price of $1.15 per pint and $2.20 per quart.

Advertisement for Dance Oriental Gardens Saturday Nite, featuring Modern Dance Rhythms by Roy's Rhythm Makers.

Advertisement for Dance at the Oasis Spring Floor Sat. Nite.

Advertisement for Rialto Mats 25c and Eves 40c.

Advertisement for William Boyd's 'Stick to Your Guns' and other films.

Advertisement for 'The West Goes Wild With Boogie Woogie' and other films.

Advertisement for 'Spooks Run Wild' with Bela Lugosi.

Advertisement for Walker's Dance Dreamland Saturday Night, featuring Real Dance Music and Both Modern & Old-Time.

Advertisement for M. M. Department Store, Pay Less - Dress Better, 220 East Main - Telephone 3332.

Large advertisement for M. M. Department Store January Clearance Continues, featuring DRY GOODS DEPT., READY TO WEAR DEPT., and MEN'S DEPARTMENT.

Large advertisement for 'It Started with Eve' and 'The Most Romantic Riot Since Eve Gave Adam the Applesauce!' featuring Deanna Durbin, Charles Laughton, and Robert Cummings.

Advertisement for Roxy Theatre, featuring films like 'Time Out for Rhythm' and 'The Son of Davy Crockett'.

Advertisement for Rialto Theatre, featuring films like 'His Two-Gun Best!' and 'The West Goes Wild With Boogie Woogie'.