

Deanna Durbin, Charles Laughton Starring in "It Started With Eve"

GUY KIBBEE AND VETERAN CAST IN ROMANTIC COMEDY

Walter Catlett And Margaret Tallichet In Picture At Craterian.

Having Motion Picture Academy "Oscars" as proof of their artistry, co-stars Deanna Durbin and Charles Laughton of "It Started With Eve" are said to reach new heights as comedy stars in the film opening a three-day run today at the Craterian theatre.

Miss Durbin, winner of a special Academy award in 1937, and Laughton, who captured an "Oscar" for his title role in "Henry VIII" in 1932 appear together for the first time in the new romantic comedy.

In "It Started With Eve," Miss Durbin is seen as a hat-check girl who is introduced into a New York multi-millionaire's home as his son's fiancée. As the elderly industrialist, Laughton has essentially a comedy role, but it is also a characterization said to be comparable in artistic fitness to his "Captain Bligh" and other triumphs. Robert Cummings appears opposite Miss Durbin. Veteran comedians Guy Kibbee and Walter Catlett, both essaying new types of roles, add to the fun. Margaret Tallichet is seen as the "other woman" in Cummings' life and the cast also includes Catharine Doucet and Charles Coleman.

Western Show Now On Rialto Screen Boasts Many Stars

A custard pie is a better bandit stopper than a blazing bullet!

Upon that novel premise is hung, according to advance reports, one of the most delightful westerns ever filmed, "Go West, Young Lady," which opens for today and tomorrow only at the Rialto theatre. Packed to the brim with mirth, music, songs, dances and "Oomph," the picture stars Penny Singleton, Glenn Ford, Ann Miller, Charlie Ruggles, Allen Jenkins and Bob Wills and his Texas Playboys. As Miss Singleton's romantic lead, Glenn Ford tops even his superb performance in the recent, and only a bit less boisterous, "Texas." Ford is seen as the gun-totin' frontier marshal whose efforts to round up Pecos Pete, the worst villain west of the Mississippi, lead to one blithe comedy situation after another, and the toe-twinkling Miss Miller comports herself with lovely gracefulness as the dance hall entertainer who is Pecos Pete's prettiest aide.

"Spooks Run Wild," starring the "Dead End" Kids and Bela Lugosi, plays as the companion feature with "Go West, Young Lady."

story, and coming to the Craterian theatre Wednesday, unfolds a drama filled with adventure, romance and the color and mystery of the hot sands of Africa.

On the same program will be a new Walt Disney cartoon and a sensational two-reeler, "War Clouds in the Pacific," that has created much comment wherever shown.

Brilliant Role In Roxy Comedy

Her success in "Pygmalion" won for Wendy Hiller the leading role in George Bernard Shaw's latest story to be adapted to the screen, "Major Barbara," which comes to the Rialto theatre for Tuesday and Wednesday.

Rounding out the program will be an unusual film treat, "Tillie's Punctured Romance," filmed 26 years ago with Charlie Chaplin, Marie Dressler, Ford Sterling, Mabel Norman, Charles Chase, Hank Mann, Mack Swain, Edgar Kennedy, Slim Summerville, Chester Conklin and many other old-timers. The picture naturally is without talking but has had a musical background added for present-day showing.

RAILROAD HEARING IS SET IN YREKA FOR JANUARY 26

Hilarious Groucho Marx smokes his last cigar for the screen in "The Big Store," which opens a three-day run today at the Roxy theatre with the Three Marx Brothers in the starring roles. This marks the famous trio's last appearance in pictures, and, according to those who saw it before, it is their funniest. Others in the picture are Tony Martin, Virginia Grey and Margaret Dumont, their popular leading lady.

the meeting were Ben and John Day and Arnold Bohmert. Much interest was shown in Ben Day's hybrid seed corn and his brother John's sugar beet seeds and medical herbs, Mr. Hoover said.

AID BOMBER FUND AND EVADE JAIL

Philadelphia, Jan. 17.—(AP)—Two men contributed $800 each to a newspaper's "buy a bomber fund" to escape jail sentences today after pleading guilty to numbers writing charges.

FEDERAL LIEN ON WAR EAGLE MINE

Entered in the federal lien book at the county clerk's office yesterday was a U. S. Internal revenue claim of $5,105.90 against the War Eagle Mine, Inc., Seattle, Wash.

Originating in the Washington district, the federal claim is for $4,350 in taxes, $625 penalty and $130.90 interest. The War Eagle mine, a mercury property, is situated in the Meadows district of Jackson county.

Meantime a spokesman for the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce said the apparent lull in the situation here was due to the absence of Ormond Bean, state public utilities commissioner, in the east and the desire to give him time after his return to Salem to study the railroad situation himself before asking him to set a specific date for a hearing in this state. The spokesman stated that Mr. Bean was being given time to investigate the matter himself and look into the military situation since it seemed apparent that the railroad company had military information it could not divulge at a public hearing.

Southern Oregon communities were the first to lodge a protest with the interstate commerce commission and the state public utilities commission and to seek a desist order from the federal body. Since then Yreka and Siskiyou county have taken up the fight and there has been some feeling here that the southern Oregon communities have not tackled the matter with the same vigor and determination shown by the neighboring California city and county.

In replying to a telegraphic protest, the ICC said it had no jurisdiction in such cases of passenger train service. So far as announced locally, however, the ICC has made no reply to the formal written protest that followed the telegraphic complaint. The responsibility of filing the protest and petition was placed in the hands of Niel R. Allen of Grants Pass.
