'WILD HORSE' SEES QUIETER DAYS NEAR MUSKOGEE

Muskogee, Okla. Jan. 23.—(P)—The Wild Horse of the Osage is taming down.

Pepper Martin, one time ring-leader of the St. Louis Cardinals' Gashouse Gang and now manager of Sacramento in the Pacific Coast league, puts it this way:

"I know my days in baseball are numbered unless I am successful as a manager, so I want a good ranch where I can raise fine cattle and perhaps settle down and run for sheriff."

Martin was reported negotiating for a ranch in Muskogee county.

ADOLPH SCHACHT OF WHITE SOX SUCCEEDS

Seattle, Jan. 23.—(P)—The King county coroner's office reported that Adolph Schacht, Chicago White Sox baseball club trainer, died at a doctor's office early today shortly after collapsing on Alki beach, as he prepared to go fishing. The widely known sports figure had a winter home in the Alki district.

IRON MAN

Ogdensburg, N. J. (P)—Frank Pierce and a bakery truck collided. Police reported both were scratched, the truck more than the man.
