

LEGIONNAIRES TO AID REGISTRATION ON FEBRUARY 16

Local Legionnaires will take an active part in registration of men between the ages of 20 and 45 on February 16, assisting the local selective service boards to carry out the big task as quickly and efficiently as possible. Need for volunteers to act in this capacity was outlined by Commander Ernest Winkle and Legionnaire Ernest Scott of Board No. 2 at Wednesday night's meeting of Medford Legion post.

All Legionnaires who can serve in Medford or in other communities in the county on the above date are urged to turn in their names to Adjutant Fritz Nissen at once.

"Fall-in" is the name of a new booklet produced by the American Legion for the education and guidance of men entering the armed services and Medford post voted last night to purchase a large number of copies for distribution to all new recruits in this district. As explained by Commander Winkle, the information contained in this booklet is the result of experience, it has nothing to do with formal regulations as such but it does tell the recruit how to stay out of trouble, what is expected of him and what he can expect of the service. It also tells him the records he should keep for his present and future protection.

An interesting report of activities of the defense council was made by Past Commander Lloyd Williamson.

Adjutant Nissen advised that the post had purchased $300 worth of defense bonds.

A report on membership indicated that a few more members were needed to put Post No. 15 "over the top" and each member was urged to bring in at least one more by the next meeting, Feb. 11. An appropriate Lincoln's Birthday program is planned for that date in charge of the following committee: Ernest Scott, Edw. Russell and Joseph Flegel.

S. E. Thompson of Hayes, Kansas, was a visiting Legionnaire at the meeting.

APPLAGATORS SIGN DEFENSE PLEDGES

Big Applegate, Jan. 30.—(Sp.)—Farmers and housewives pondered deeply on signing pledges to buy defense stamps and bonds in the state campaign closing last week-end with the result that approximately 50 percent of those contacted signed.

General willingness to be counted in Uncle Sam's income-gauge was apparent, although many residents did not prefer signing, owing to an indefinite source of income.

"I have a bunch of soldiers of my own to feed," was the thoughtful objection of one father of two grade school boys.

Charles Elmore was supervisor for the lower Applegate districts, and the following "minute men" covered the upper Applegate areas: Mrs. Harlan Cantrall, Mrs. Glenn Saltmarsh, Frank Dutton, Mrs. Gladys Crow, and Mrs. Lee Port.

CRUEL JOURNEY ENDS FOR CREW

Washington, Jan. 30.—(P)—A lifeboat bearing 13 American merchant seamen from a torpedoed steamer has reached a tiny south seas island after a 21-day voyage over 2 500 miles of lonely sea—a cruel journey that ranks as an open boat epic.

The boat was one of two which set off when the 7 000-ton steamer Prusa, owned by the Lykes Brothers steamship line of Houston, Tex., was torpedoed 100 miles from Honolulu at 8:30 a. m., on Dec. 19.

The first boat, bearing the chief mate and 12 others, was picked up Dec. 27.

Boston, Jan. 30.—(P)—Rescue of the entire crew of 28 of a Norwegian tanker, torpedoed off Nova Scotia Jan. 21, was reported today by the Gloucester schooner Grand Marshal upon her arrival from the fishing banks.

FIRST 1942 DEATH
Portland, Jan. 30.—(P)—Portland's first 1942 traffic victim was Jack Owen, 25, killed last night in the crash of his car against a concrete post in southeast Portland. Witnesses said Owen swerved to avoid striking a pedestrian.
