

RENFRO WAIVES INITIAL HEARING

Tom W. Renfro of Ashland, charged with wanton and malicious destruction of personal property, waived preliminary hearing in justice court yesterday afternoon, and was ordered held under $1000 bonds to await grand jury action. Renfro, while on an alcoholic rampage, entered the home of the Rev. Fred M. Weatherford Monday night and smashed up things generally. He was found in the house by the minister.

The charge against Renfro is an indictable misdemeanor, subject to trial in circuit court. Use Mail Tribune want ads.

WHITECHAT GIVEN PRISON TERM ON PLEA OF GUILTY

Alvin John (Pat) Whitechat, 24, was sentenced to an indeterminate term not to exceed two years in state prison, by Circuit Judge H. K. Hanna this morning. The youth plead guilty to theft of $350 last Saturday from his employer, Carl Wittermoor, operator of the Coffee Pot on North Riverside avenue. Whitechat was on parole from a five-year sentence for passing spurious checks.

Whitechat, when sentence was passed, weaved and placed his hands on the table for support and wept. His father, a government worker at Mare Island, Calif., was in court.

In passing sentence, Judge Hanna said:

"There is nothing the court can do but impose a sentence upon you. You had an opportunity, but failed to use it. Both the sheriff and the district attorney tried to help you, and procured a good job for you, which was something unusual. You did not realize the seriousness of the check charge, and then committed a greater crime. You violated your parole and a trust."

"I hope in the penitentiary you will obey the rules, and behave yourself. That will enable you to receive credits, lowering your sentence. I trust your experience there will not deter you from becoming a good citizen in the future," the court concluded.

Authorities said with "good time" Whitechat could be paroled in slightly less than a year. Whitechat was arrested Tuesday at Redding, Calif. He squandered the entire $350 in riotous living, and left his suitcase at Redding as security for a 66 hotel bill. Neither Sheriff Syd I. Brown nor District Attorney George Neilson had any recommendations to make to the court.

Jap Agents?

Ralph Townsend (top) of Lake Geneva, Wis., formerly of San Francisco, and Frederick Vincent Williams (below), of San Francisco were among the three Americans and three Japanese indicted by a federal grand jury at Washington, D. C., on charges of failing to register as agents of the Japanese government.

PLEDGE CAMPAIGN FIELD WORK DONE

Earl Newbry, county chairman, today announced completion of the field work in the defense bond pledge campaign. The records are now being completed for forwarding to Portland headquarters Monday, he said.

Even in a house-to-house canvass as complete as this one was, it is natural that some persons should be missed, Mr. Newbry said. He asked anyone who might have been missed and who would like to make a pledge to notify Moore Hamilton, the campaign director, telephone 3722 or 3801, or the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce, telephone 2295.

Mr. Newbry expressed his appreciation to all the canvassers and complimented Mr. Hamilton on his organization of the campaign. He thanked the public also for being so cooperative and manifesting such a cordial attitude toward the canvassers.
