

Room For More In Spanish Classes

There is room for more students interested in elementary Spanish which is offered Monday and Wednesday evening from 7 to 8 o'clock in room 34 at Senior High school. The second half of the lessons will begin Monday evening under supervision of Mrs. Wilma Kincaid, instructor of Spanish in the high school.

Anyone interested in learning more Spanish or in brushing up the elementary work is asked to join Monday evening for a nominal monthly fee.

WOODWORKING COURSE PLANNED AT GOLD HILL

Gold Hill, Jan. 31.—(Spl.)—Plans are under way to give a free course of instruction in woodworking here at the Gold Hill high school, according to Principal D. H. McGuire. Men between the ages of 18 and 25 are eligible for the training, which is sponsored by the Department of Vocational Education and financed by the federal government. The classes will be held several evenings each week and will be under direction of a local instructor.

NORTH IRELAND FIRES AT ENEMY WARPLANES

A Northern Ireland Town, Jan. 31.—(P)—Anti-aircraft defense batteries opened fire today when enemy planes appeared over northeastern Ulster. A United States army force of several hundred were out on a route march today, but whether they were in the affected area was not known.
