

Both Oregon Quints Meet Defeat in Northern Conference Battles

GILBERG'S HEAVES DEFEAT STATERS ON COUGAR FLOOR

Durdan Closes Gap, But Three Quick Scores At Finish Net Win.

Pullman, Jan. 31.—(AP)—A Washington State college basketball team that had slumped badly after a fine pre-season start came to life with an explosion of points midway in the first half tonight and held on grimly to edge out Oregon State, 53 to 48, and move back into the Pacific Coast conference northern division pennant picture.

Mary Gilberg broke up a sea-saw argument in the last 10 minutes of the opening half with a deluge of six baskets.

When Gilberg started the score was tied at 11 after the lead had switched six times, and when the half ended W. S. C. was in front, 25 to 12.

The visiting Beavers fed more fuel to their methodical machine, boosting the pace slightly and driving Washington State's Cougars nearly frantic with their control of the backboards and the ball.

Sophomore Lew Beck paced the attack, Don Durdan and big John Mandic pointed the defense and Oregon State dumped in seven points before the Cougars could connect.

The Beavers kept hacking at the lead until a field toss by Durdan left them only two points in arrears at 45-43 and then Gilberg reentered the picture with two quick goals. Bishop added another and W. S. C. was beyond danger, with only two minutes left to play.

Gilberg's 17 points gave him scoring honors and Bishop followed with 15. Beck, who tallied 11 in the second half, led Oregon State with 14.

ASHLAND NORMAL BEATS MONMOUTH

Scoring 10 points in the last three minutes of the game while holding their opponents scoreless, Southern Oregon College of Education whipped Oregon College of Education in Ashland last night, 52 to 42, in a game that tested the "crow's nest" clan of officiating. Bob Mulder, Sons centers, tallied 25 points to lead all scorers.

ASHLAND JAN. 31.—(Sp1)—

Southern Oregon College of Education's big basketball team moved closer to the Oregon Intercollegiate conference championship by defeating Oregon College of Education, 64 to 39, here Friday night in the first of a two-game series.

Wes Peters, with 17 points and Bob Mulder, with 13, led the Sons attack that fashioned a 35 to 17 halftime lead. Thirty-six personal fouls were called. 24 on the winners. Ejected for four infractions were Peters, DeAutremont and Scheldereiter of the Sons and Hyman of the losers.

BRAZILL PICKED AS BEAVER BOSS

Portland, Ore., Jan. 31.—(AP)—Frank Leo Brazill, veteran of 21 years in minor league baseball, will manage the Portland Beavers in 1942, President E. J. Scheffer announced today.

Brazill, Beaver third baseman from 1922 to 1925, was named manager after Marvin (Freck) Owen, the club's present third-sacker, declined to take the pilot's post.

Selection of Brazill, rated as one of the top left-handed hitters during his long career in the minors, came as a surprise here. Recently released as a New York Giant scout, he had not been mentioned for the Portland job.

Brazill's most recent managerial experience was with Memphis of the Southern association in 1939. Before that he had managed Nashville of the Southern association and Greenwood and Greenville, both of the Cotton States circuit.

HUSKIES TIGHTEN HOLD ON TOP BY DOWNING OREGON

Second In Row For Washington Won 53 To 42—Never In Doubt.

Seattle, Jan. 31.—(AP)—The University of Washington further increased its lead in the northern division of the Pacific Coast conference basketball race tonight, defeating Oregon, 53 to 42. Tonight's victory was the second in a row for Washington over Oregon and gave the Huskies three games out of the four played between the two teams so far this season.

In contrast to the bitterly-fought Friday night game, won by Washington by a single point, 40-39, tonight's contest was a Washington affair all the way after the opening minutes.

Oregon was out in front 7-2 after five minutes of play but Washington went ahead at 8-7. The game sea-sawed for a few minutes until Bobby Morris sent Washington into the lead again—and for the last time—at 16-15. The Huskies widened the lead to 32-25 at half time and collected eight points in the first five minutes of the second half, while Oregon was getting only three.

With five minutes to go, both teams substituted freely, opening up the scoring.

Doug Ford, playing forward and center for Washington, led the scoring with 14 points. Oregon's Taylor and P. Jackson were tied with 10 each.

J'VILLE, LOGGERS BOTH DOWN FOES

Butte Falls and Jacksonville maintained flawless records in the northern and western divisions of the Southern Oregon class B high school basketball conference Friday night, the Loggers whipping St. Mary's of Medford, 34 to 16 and the Redskins crushing Gold Hill, 68 to 15.

Kent and Alberts, with 11 points each, paced the Butte Falls attack against the Crusaders, while Nary of the losers got six points. In the preliminary, St. Mary's graders defeated Butte Falls graders, 24 to 16.

Jacksonville used its entire 10-man squad to wallop Gold Hill, with Johnson setting the pace with 15 points. In the prelim, J'ville graders beat Gold Hill graders, 21 to 16.

In another western division tilt, Rogue River remained in second place with a 26 to 11 conquest of Central Point, after leading, 13 to 8, at halftime.

TIRE RATIONING IN STATE EASED

Portland, Jan. 31.—(AP)—O. L. Price, Oregon rationing administrator, was authorized today to permit movement of tires through sales and distribution channels.

The new order will enable retailers, distributors, wholesalers and manufacturers to move tires and tubes among warehouses provided there is no change in ownership or control. Dealers now will be able to replenish stocks to supply customers who present rationing certificates.

Price's office said wage-hour inspectors will conduct investigations to determine if tire rationing regulations are being violated.

FIREMEN RUSH TO THE WRONG PLACE

BENGALS CONQUER ASHLAND 34 TO 18, TO TIGHTEN RACE

Grizzlies Outclassed By Medford Five—Cavemen Defeat Roseburg.

Medford's battling Bengals came roaring up from the depths of a mediocre season here Friday night to score a smashing 34 to 18 triumph over the Ashland Grizzlies and rocket squarely into the middle of the bitter struggle for the district 4 championship and state tournament berth.

The Tiger conquest, coupled with Grants Pass' 41 to 29 upset whipping of the Roseburg Indians, deadlocked Medford and Roseburg for second place, a mere half-game behind leading Ashland and tossed the pennant scrap into a desperate dog-fight.

Ashland never had a chance as the Tigers, superior in every department, out-fought and out-manuevered their keenest basketball rivals from the opening whistle to the final buzzer. It was by far the finest game Medford has played this year.

Leading the Medford attack, which created an early lead that was maintained throughout, was Captain Henry Herman. He whipped in three field baskets in the first three minutes of play to give the Tigers a 6 to 1 advantage, and wound up the evening with a total of 13 points.

Equally important in Medford's victory-pattern was the tenacious man-for-man defense the locals rammed down the Grizzlies' collective throats. Dynamic, diminutive Don Fawcett, Medford's junior guard, smothered Charlie Jandreau to the extent of two field goals and two free throws, and Darrell Monteith blanked Bud Provost from the field. So tough was the Bengal bulwark that Ashland made but one cripple shot, and that on a "sneak" break by Balfour. The Grizzlies canned only five field goals in 48 shots for a percentage of .104.

Meanwhile, with Fawcett and Reynolds setting up the plays, the Tigers cracked Ashland's zone defense for 13 field buckets. The locals made 13 of their 39 shots for a great .333 percentage, with Herman hitting six for 18, Wall three for five and Fawcett two for four.

At no time was Medford threatened. The Tigers led at the first quarter, 8 to 3; at halftime, 18 to 9, and at the third quarter mark, 23 to 16. Their passing was excellent, as was their all-around ball-handling, and Wall and Herman dominated both backboards to keep Ashland on the defensive most of the time.

Center Jim Rath nabbed Ashland's first field just before the first period ended, and the only other two-pointers the Grizzlies could make in the first half was scored by Riggs seconds before the half in the meantime. Monteith and Herman were sinking free throws for Medford and Herman, Wall and Fawcett were hitting field goals, the latter twice on one-handers from 30 feet out.

In the third quarter Wall scored all of Medford's five points while Provost was making two gift tosses. Riggs one and Jandreau a pair of field goals on one-handed shots while off balance.

The fourth quarter was all Medford's, the locals tallying 11 points to two for the Grizzlies. Herman got
