

SOCIETY and CLUB NEWS of the WEEK

BY BETTY SHOEMAKER

Medford Sojourners Enjoy Series Of Neighborly Parties

Sojourner club members enjoyed neighborly parties at the homes of various members Thursday afternoon. Cards were at play and defense saving stamps given for prizes.

Mrs. I. E. Staples entertained a group at her home with prizes being awarded to Mrs. Frank Humphrey and Mrs. Melvin R. Plaskett. At the home of Mrs. Henry Zacharisen, Mrs. Marie Scheffel and Mrs. Merle Muncy held high scores. Mrs. W. Alex Kuehlthau entertained at her home with Mrs. E. H. Edgerton and Mrs. R. R. Stroud holding high scores.

The regular Medford Sojourner meeting Thursday at Hotel Medford at 1 p. m. will celebrate the club birthday. Dessert luncheon will be served. Mrs. Eugene Card is chairman for the afternoon.

Oregon State D.A.R. Conference At Klamath Falls

To be held in Klamath Falls, February 17 and '18 is the Oregon state conference of Daughters of the American Revolution with Mrs. William B. Pouch, president general as guest of honor. She will conduct a round table discussion and give an address at the banquet February 18.

Business sessions will be held in the Elks temple with the Willard hotel as headquarters for the conference. Delegates are to make luncheon and banquet reservations with Mrs. Christine Goble, 322 North Ninth street, Klamath Falls. The State Officer's club breakfast will be held Tuesday, February 17 with Mrs. Gilbert E. Holt presiding.

Leave Monday For Sun Valley

Leaving Monday by United Mainliner for Sun Valley, Idaho, are Jack Matlack and his mother, Mrs. Luella Matlack of this city. They will fly by plane to Boise, Idaho, and then continue the trip by motor to Sun Valley Matlack was awarded the vacation trip with expenses paid by a Hollywood motion picture company for a publicity campaign in connection with the motion picture, "Sun Valley Serenade" in this city.

They plan to spend about eight days at Sun Valley and will return to Medford by plane, by way of Salt Lake City, Utah, and San Francisco.

Young People Plan Fellowship Period

The combined young people's groups of the First Christian church will hold a fellowship period Sunday afternoon from 5 until 6:30 o'clock. A short business meeting will be held.

At 6:30 p. m. a new series of young people's Sunday evening meetings will be introduced by Ed Kirtley on the topic, "Christian Youth Building a New World." Five weeks will be given over to the discussion of this theme.

Delta Debs Meet At Hayes Home

Delta Debs met with Miss Dorothy Hayes at the J. C. Hayes home on East Main street Tuesday evening. Two new members were taken into the organization, Miss Jennette House and Miss Jamie Bruegger.

The group made plans for a dinner to be held early this month at Hotel Holland. Later the members attended the show at Rialto theater. Miss Dorothy Hayes was assisted by her sister, Miss Virginia Hayes.

Extension Unit Plans Meeting

Mrs. Helen Davis will be hostess to the Applegate extension unit at her home February 4th. "Meals from the pantry shelf" will be the project demonstrated by Mrs. Tom Mee and Mrs. Lee Wallis, local leaders. The meeting will open at 10 a. m. Everyone interested is invited.

Auxiliary Plans Public Card Party

A public card party is planned by members of the Eagles auxiliary Tuesday at 8 p. m. at Eagles hall, 42 North Front street. Prizes will be awarded and refreshments served in charge of arrangements are Mrs. Mildred Mapston, chairman; Mesdames Laura Parks, Ina Parker, Bessie Powell, Lizzie Perry, Amy Redburn, Viola Pruitt, Ida Roch, Nora Robertson and Clarke Prince.

Max Holmes To Be League Board Hostess

League of Women Voters executive board is to meet Monday at 12 noon at the home of Mrs. Harry Holmes on Modoc avenue.

Honeymoon Class

A honeymooning pair, Comedian Milton Berle and his show-girl bride, Joyce Mathews, are all smiles for their public. Seen at a Hollywood dinner party. Mrs. Berle wears gray jersey accented with diamond clip, bracelet and wedding ring.

Grand Officer To Visit Two O.E.S. Chapters

Mrs. Marjorie Simpson of Portland, associate grand matron of Oregon, O. E. S., will be in southern Oregon Thursday and Friday of this week and will be entertained by members of O. E. S. chapters in Jacksonville and Medford.

On Thursday a luncheon will be held at Hotel Medford honoring Mrs. Simpson by members of Adair chapter, No. 3, Jacksonville, according to an announcement made by Mrs. Mattie Luman, worthy matron. In the afternoon a school of instruction will be held followed by initiation of Mrs. Fred Baker during the evening meeting. Members of neighboring chapters are welcome.

Mrs. Simpson will be guest Friday at 12:30 p. m. at the Hotel Medford at a luncheon given by Reames chapter, No. 66, O. E. S. Reservations may be made by calling Esther Fliegel, 4389 or Hope Wood, 2439 not later than Thursday noon. A school of instruction at 2 p. m. will follow at the Masonic temple. Members are invited.

Sorority Plans Tuesday Meeting

Beta Sigma Phi sorority will be entertained Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. at 1315 East Main street with Mrs. David Irving as hostess.

P.-T. A. Activities

City Council
Meeting at the home of Mrs. H. O. Colburn, 704 West Tenth street, Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. will be members of the City Council of Parents and Teachers with Mrs. Herbert Sims in charge.

Speaker will be Dr. Susie Standard on the subject "We Teach Our Children About Alcohol and Narcotics." Washington unit of P.-T. A. will be hostess.

As February is also the month of the founding of the Parent-Teacher association the unit will observe Founder's Day with Mrs. A. E. Brockway in charge of the program. Past presidents are invited to be special guests.

Lone Pine
Lone Pine P.T.A. with Roxy Ann Grange will hold a chicken dinner at the Grange hall Sunday, February 8. The public dinner will be served from 12 noon until 3 p. m. Proceeds from the dinner will finance the free hot lunch program for school children. The next P.T.A. meeting is scheduled for Friday at 2 p. m. at the school house.

Everybody's Sending Valentines

A wide variety of sentimental and humorous Valentines for friends and loved ones to select from here.

SWEM'S GIFT SHOP

Church Group Holds All-Day Sewing Session

More than 50 women, members of the Women's organization of the First Christian church met Thursday for an all-day sewing session for China relief. A number of garments were finished and these will be sent to the Chinese who are in need of aid due to war in their country.

Mrs. W. E. Meyers spoke on "Proper Nutrition and National Defense" during the business and fellowship hour. A number of progressive teas, luncheons and dinners are being sponsored by the group and they also announced their willingness to serve luncheons, dinners or banquets for groups or organizations.

Discussed was the contribution which the women of the church could make to the welfare of strangers who will be coming to the community during construction of the cantonment.

Officers for the year 1942 were introduced: Mrs. Joseph Carr, chairman; Mrs. H. K. Burnham, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Susan Eads, project chairman; Mrs. Rose Herbert, kitchen chairman; Maude Daugherty, dining room chairman; Effie Kurtz, entertainment; Mrs. A. H. Gregory, house committee; Ruth Hood, publicity chairman; class representatives were Mrs. Minnie Crisp, Loyal Women; Mrs. Walter Kindred, Alpha Delta; Ethel Troxell, Loyal Workers; Mrs. C. C. Haggard, Mariners. Other representatives from the board of deaconesses were Mrs. G. C. Corum, Mrs. Clyde Hon and Mrs. A. C. Latham.

This is the second year of the Women's organization and it is reported to be filling a vital place in the First Christian church. Purpose is to provide an efficient program of service and to extend the fellowship of the church by bringing women together to work at worthwhile tasks. The group meets February 26 to sew for American Red Cross.

Birthday Party At Rose Home Honors Mrs. Dyer

Mrs. Florence Rose of Chestnut street was hostess to a surprise birthday party Wednesday afternoon honoring Mrs. Lina Dyer. Mrs. Dyer received many gifts. Dessert luncheon was served followed by an afternoon of knitting and sewing.

Attending were Mesdames Vera Johnston, Linnie Perry, Nora Kleinhammer, Dorthine Dailey, Peri Giffin, Etta Hyde, Laura Williams, Viola Trautman, Ilda Vickoren, Iva Walden, Clara Tillie, Rachael Cobb, Mable Grigsby, Lucretia Whillock the honored guest and hostess.

Bakers' Auxiliary Holds Luncheon

Mrs. Lowell Morgan entertained the Baker's auxiliary with a luncheon Thursday afternoon. Pinocle was at play and later prizes were awarded to Mrs. Harry Ellis and Mrs. James Dorsey.

Enjoying the afternoon were Mrs. Harry Ellis, Mrs. Al Braun, Mrs. Roena Robertson, Mrs. Denny Woods, Mrs. George Holzgang, Mrs. Dick Pruitt, Mrs. James Dorsey and Mrs. Morgan.

Pythian Club Plans Red Cross Work

Meeting at the home of Mrs. William Casebeer last week members of the Pythian club made plans for Red Cross work during their business session. About 20 attended and later refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Leitha Ross. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Grace Fulkerson.

Girl Scouts Hold Court of Awards At Lincoln School

Girl Scouts and their parents and friends attended a Court of Awards at the Lincoln school gymnasium Friday evening at 7:30 p. m. Badges were presented and Girl Scouts sang for their audience.

Receiving badges in troop six at Lincoln school were: troop badges, Rosalie Glascock, Janet Shaw, Alice Howard, Ellen Howard, Barbara Olea, Maxine Powell, Shirley Burelson; hostess badges, Rosalie Glascock, Janet Shaw, Maxine Powell; weaving and photography, international friendship and second class badge, Rosalie Glascock.

Troop 12, Central Point: second class badge, Ann Bohnert, Patsy Faber, Gwen Goin, Patty Hamilton, Dorothy Henigan, Dorothy Rogers; hostess badge: Ann Bohnert, Patsy Faber, Gwen Goin, Patty Hamilton, Jeanette Lemen, Dorothy Rogers; cyclist badge, Barbara Anders, Anna Booth, Jean Kincaid, Patsy Faber, Mary Matthews.

Troop 22, Junior high school, community life and troop dramatics: Doris Parsons, Joan Pomeroy, Jan McEwen, Carol Myers, Bonnie Lou Edwards, Corrine Latourette; child care, Evelyn Watkins.

Troop 7, Roosevelt school, foods and cyclist badges: Marlain Curran, Joan Coleman, Mary Sue Green, Kathleen Seeckatz, Mary Virginia Walt, Betty Drummond, Margaret Green, Jacquelin Madigan; first class award, Kathleen Seekatz; second class award, Cynthia Jackson; earning food badge, Nancy Newbury, Ann Butler, Cynthia Jackson.

Troop 11, St. Mary's Academy: second class award, Academy; Jarvis, Delores Wilkinson, Stephanie Mische, Frances Kiernan; hostess badge, Gertrude Lewis.

Troop 3, Junior high school, dancer and my community badge, Carmen Wright, Barbara Olson, Charlotte Wing, Loree Monteith, Aileen Walsh, Barbara Meadows, Thais Gorden; dancer and second class, Helen Ferris.

Troop 5, Jackson school, my community, transportation, communication badges: Joan Blunkel, Joy Finch, Berniece Howard, Joan Gardner, Donna Inlow, Barbara Barr, Patty Lawson, Patty Mashburn, Lois Parsons, Gayle Miller, Marianne Perl, Gwen Lee Young, Dorothy Ray, Zella Mae Sellers; first aid, Barbara Barr.

Grand President To Be Honored

To be honored today is George Tank of Davenport, Iowa, grand worthy president of the Fraternal Order of the Eagles. Mr. Tank, in company with Aaron Reece, grand representative from Seattle, Wash., arrived last evening by train for a short visit in this city.

The program today includes registration of delegates, 9 a. m. at Eagles hall, 42 North Front street; 11 a. m. registration of candidates for initiation; 1:30 p. m. Eagles meeting; 4:30 p. m. parade of drill teams from Roseburg, Klamath Falls, Medford and other visiting areas; 5:30 p. m. dinner served by members of auxiliary drill team to Eagles and their families followed by a dance.

Defense Deeds

Dodie Miller (above) wears pale blue denim coveralls designed in California for wear in defense factories by women defense employees.

Junior Guild Plans Dessert Style Show

Junior Guild members of St. Mark's Episcopal church made plans for the dessert style show to be held April 13 at the parish house when they met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Roland Halper, Third and Grape streets.

Mrs. Halper was appointed chairman of the show to be assisted by Miss Emyln Griggs as decoration chairman; Mrs. Dick Watson, refreshment chairman and Miss Janet Mann, tickets and publicity.

The business session was conducted by Miss Betty Vilm, president. Later refreshments were served by Mrs. Halper with Miss Sue Moshberger as co-hostess. The Guild adjourned to meet February 11 with Mrs. Clayton W. Lewis, 1604 West Main street.

Health Group Meets Wednesday

Phoenix Health Group will meet with Mrs. Dollie Stevens, South Pacific highway Wednesday at 2 p. m.

An Adventure In Eating!

There's a big treat in store for you and your family every Sunday at the New Dixie Cafe. We know you'll agree that our

Sunday Family Dinners

are the finest you've ever tasted. And our prices are moderate.

Dixie Cafe

Sixth Street Just Off Central

Parent's Night Well Attended At Masonic Hall

Wednesday was Daughters of Job "Parents" night at the Masonic temple when a potluck dinner and bethel meeting honored parents. Over 100 attended the dinner which was served at 8:30 p. m. in the Masonic dining hall at long tables decorated in a Valentine motif. The officer's table was centered with a bouquet of red and white carnations.

Following dinner the group adjourned to the bethel hall where Honored Queen Beverly Brooks presided during a business session. Plans were made for a rummage sale to be held Saturday at the store next to Hal's Camera shop on North Central avenue. Miss Helen Webb and Miss Betty Frey are in charge of the sale.

Four past queens, Miss Nanette Holmes, Miss Charlotte Older, Miss Carol Tengwald and Miss Ruth Nordwick were escorted to the east and introduced. Also introduced was Mrs. Thomas Freed, worthy matron of Reames chapter, O. E. S., who presented the bethel with a check to be applied on purchase of new robes.

Mrs. Elsie Carlton Strang sang two selections accompanied by Mrs. C. O. Larson. W. P. Brooks also sang two numbers accompanied by his daughter, Miss Beverly Brooks and a reading was given by Miss Clara Daniels, entitled "The Admiral's Ghost."

Miss Ann Drysdale was in charge of the dinner assisted by Mrs. Frank Ray, advisor and other bethel members.

To Portland By Mainliner

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Severson left yesterday by United Mainliner for Portland. Mrs. Severson, a Portland resident, has been spending the past week in this city with her husband. During her stay here she resided at Hotel Holland.

Kiwanian Dames Hold Luncheon At Frohnmayer Home

Mrs. Otto Frohnmayer entertained Kiwanian Dames at her home last week with a luncheon. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. George Goodrich, Mrs. Mary Gardner and Mrs. Ernest Kofoed.

During a short business session officers were elected for the coming term. Mrs. A. O. Bauman will serve as president; Mrs. Joe E. Earley, vice president and Mrs. Richard Watson, secretary-treasurer.

Retiring officers are Mrs. O. J. Halboth, president, Mrs. E. G. Trowbridge, vice president and Mrs. Michael Gibbons, secretary-treasurer.

Plans were made for the coming year and included participation in Red Cross sewing and national defense work. Cards were at play during the afternoon with Mrs. Bauman holding high score.

Medford Residents Move to The Dalles

Mr. and Mrs. Marlin Grames left yesterday for The Dalles where they plan to make their home. Mr. Grames, an employee of Union Oil company, was transferred to The Dalles two weeks ago and returned this weekend for Mrs. Grames. They have been residing at 616 Newtown street. Mr. and Mrs. Grames have made their home in this city for the past five years.

SPECIAL
Oregon
ROSE BUSH
GIFT OFFER

GET YOUR 12 GIFT BUSHES NOW!

Listen to "Grand Garden" K.M.E.D. 11:00 A.M.

CH. LILLY CO.

BURELSON'S

CALIFORNIA STYLE

As Seen in Mademoiselle

Chunda, like all Stroock woollens, is a treat to touch—a star for service and a happy choice for these California Stylecraft originals—a fabric light and right for all climates and all wear. Both suit and coat have new drop-shoulder excitement and are equally smart in bright or muted tones.

Lined with DUCHESS acetate rayon Crepe. Sizes 10 to 20.

Coats Priced $39.75 Suits $29.75

BURELSON'S

LADIES' READY-TO-WEAR

Medford Bldg. Phone 2428

VICTORY
Salon of Beauty
Will Open Monday, February 2
at
24 SOUTH GRAPE

Specializing in all types of beauty culture. Experienced operators to serve you.

PHONE 5020 Mrs. Mabel Grigsby, Owner
Mrs. Pearl Chord, Operator
Mrs. Alpha McClue, Operator

Well Chaperoned

Your laundry is well chaperoned at this laundry. Our experts know how to launder properly each material and color. Send your bundle here this week and check for your self.

American Laundry
PHONE 3539
112 SOUTH CENTRAL