

TREACHEROUS 7 GIVEN SENTENCE FOR ESPIONAGE

Penalty Is Warning To Others Says Judge; American-Born Woman Guilty.

New York, March 13.—(AP)—Federal Judge Henry W. Goddard today sentenced seven persons—defendants in the nation's first spy trial since the United States entered the war—to a total of 117 years in prison for espionage conspiracy.

Three were given 20 years' imprisonment each; three others, including a woman, 15 years each, and one 12 years.

Judge Goddard, in passing sentence, told the defendants he was "not only punishing you for your treachery," but "warning others like you that such acts will not be tolerated."

The illegal activities occurred before the United States entered the war—otherwise the defendants would have been subject to the death penalty.

Those sentenced to 20 years—the maximum possible penalty—were:

Kurt Frederick Ludwig, 36, native of Fremont, O., called by the government the "brains of the ring." He was arrested on a bus near Cle Elum, Wash., last summer.

Rene C. Froelich, 30, former drafted soldier stationed at Governors Island here headquarters of the 1st army, accused of observing the names of departing ships and transmitting them to German submarines.

Paul T. Borchardt, 56, former German army major.

Those given 15 years included: Mrs. Helen Pauline Mayer, 26, American-born housewife, accused of mailing letters in secret writing to German agents transmitting American military information.

LOPEZ AND BRAZIL GRAPPLE MONDAY

Vincent Lopez and Pedro Brazil will top Promoter Mack Lillard's weekly wrestling card at the Medford armory Monday night. The big boys will battle a straight hour or two out of three falls.

In the middle number Lillard has pitted Cy Williams and Jim Casey in six ten-minute rounds, two out of three falls.

The Frenchman Andre Adoree and the Finn Arn Kallio will meet in the opener of four ten-minute rounds. Kallio is a newcomer here, described by Lillard as a flash of cleverness whose speed and maneuverability make up for his comparatively lightness of about 200 pounds. They will go to the post at 8:30.

J'VILLE RESIDENT HONESTY MODEL

A. T. McClay, Sacramento, Cal., an entomologist who spends much of his time in the orchard trade here, today pointed to Lloyd W. Whitney Jacksonville, as a model of honesty.

A few days ago Mr. McClay lost a valuable diamond ring. He advertised his loss for three days in the Mail Tribune at a total cost of 55 cents. Mr. Whitney saw the ad, found the diamond ring lying on a street in Jacksonville and returned it to Mr. McClay.

Today a friend of Mr. McClay, George S. Green, 1410 Euclid avenue, advertised the loss of his wallet containing $40 and various license and identification cards. Mr. Green hoped he would have as good fortune as Mr. McClay.

Shaughnessy Denies Will Quit Stanford

Palo Alto, Cal., March 13.—(AP)—Clark D. Shaughnessy said today he was not giving up his job as head football coach at Stanford university to go to Yale, Maryland university, or any other school.

"I don't know how these rumors about my leaving Stanford got started, but I do know there is nothing to the talk that I want to leave the Pacific coast," Shaughnessy said in an interview at his Palo Alto residence.

HOTEL LIQUOR RULES RELAXED IN PORTLAND

Portland, March 13.—(AP)—The city council yesterday altered its regulations to permit the serving of liquor in hotels of at least 100 rooms which have been in operation at least three years.
