

World War I Fund May Be Used Now

Mt. Morris, N. Y. (AP)—An $800 fund which has been on deposit in the Pavilion State bank since the last war, when it was collected for the relief of soldiers, may be put to use in the present conflict.

Residents who have discussed methods of disposing of the money for the past two decades now favor contributing the fund to the United Service organization.

The money was collected by an excited populace in rural Covington more than 20 years ago, when word spread that American doughboys in France would be compelled to pay their own passage home. Quickly $900 was raised and placed in the Pavilion bank, but the rumor proved false and there was no need for the fund. Only once since 1919 has the money been touched. A few years ago $100 was withdrawn and contributed to the Red Cross.
