Mann are listed as incorporators, with this city as headquarters. The purpose of the company is set forth as handling material and machinery in connection with the national defense program in this area.

New Address—Mrs. R. W. Childreth, 721 South Peach street, has received word that her brother, Alvin A. Gould, former local resident, has been transferred by the army air corps to the 361st Technical school squadron (Special) Barracks No. 601, Lowry Field, Denver, Colo. Gould joined the air corps in January and took preliminary training at Sheppard Field, Texas. He recently qualified for special training at the armament air training school in Colorado.

Cars Collide—A mishap involving a truck operated by J. L. Robertson, Eagle Point, and a Buick driven by Doris Elva Hussong, 56 Barneburg road, occurred at the intersection of East Main and Genesee yesterday, according to report. O. W. Curtis, 1136 Court street, in a Studebaker and J. W. Leamaster, Boise, in a Dodge struck at the intersection of Riverside and Jackson. Vehicles of Millard S. Ruff, Route 2, and Alvin E. Troutman, Route 3, collided yesterday at the Midway and Biddle crossroads.

Cats Prowled—Articles were reported stolen out of two parked cars yesterday in Medford. Grover Cain of South Front street reported taken from his Buick sedan parked on the highway lot across from the San Louis hotel a pair of black boots, a pair of "tin" pants, a Jack Frost jacket, size 36 with blue collar, and a sweat shirt and sweater, both gray. Austin Murray, 1033 West 11th street, reported a 32 Colt automatic was stolen from his machine while it was parked at the Morton Milling company on West Jackson or at Huson's confectionary, Main and Oakdale.

Collect Waste Paper—Cub Pack No. 3 will collect waste paper Saturday from 2 until 5 p. m. in the district east of Academy Place and north of Main street.

Leave For Hermiston—Bart Gallagher, surveyor at the Medford cantonment, left last night for Hermiston where he has been transferred by the U. S. government. Gallagher was accompanied by his mother, Mrs. A. W. Gallagher. During their stay in this city they resided at Hotel Holland.

Tires Missing—According to a report filed with city police the rear tires were missing when Alvin Jackson, Chiloquin, located his stolen vehicle on the Gresham-Klamath Falls highway. The car was taken March 12 from a Medford parking lot on West Main. A green steel box containing tools valued at $250 was also missing.

Brought Here—Clarence F. Sharp, 32, Klamath Falls, was being held in the Jackson county jail today pending disposition of a federal charge of selling liquor to an Indian. He was brought here yesterday by Paul Hanlin, U. S. deputy marshal. Sharp waived preliminary hearing before U. S. Commissioner Bert C. Thomas at Klamath Falls and was held under $2,500 bail.

Autry at Roxy
America's Number One "Western Star" rides to adventure south of the border in "Down Mexico Way," which heads the double bill playing tonight and Saturday at the Roxy theatre. Smiley Burnette is starred with the popular singing favorite.

"Hello Sucker," featuring Hugh Herbert, plays as the added laugh feature.

"Suspicion" on Sunday Bill

The most eagerly awaited picture of the year—first, because it stars Joan Fontaine in the role for which she won this year's Academy Award and second, because it was directed by Alfred Hitchcock, who is considered the outstanding director of suspense-romance—comes to the screen in "Suspicion," co-starring Miss Fontaine with Cary Grant and coming to the Craterian theatre Sunday for a three day run. Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Nigel Bruce and Dame May Whitty have supporting roles in the amazing drama of a young bride's love and terror.

"Maltese Falcon" Rialto Thriller

The most baffling mystery story in years brings one of the year's finest casts to the screen in "The Maltese Falcon," which heads the double bill coming to the Rialto theatre Sunday for a three day run. Humphrey Bogart, Peter Lorre, Mary Astor and Sidney Greenstreet have roles with Gladys George and Barton MacLane in Dashiell Hammett's super thriller. "Castle in the Desert," starring Sidney Toler as Charlie Chan, will play as the companion mystery with "The Maltese Falcon."

Halting of price advances is a most difficult problem in the face of the tremendous pressure of consumer demand, says the department of commerce.
