

Big Applegate

Big Applegate, March 25.—(Spl.)—Amos McKee is expected to be able to leave the Community hospital soon, having undergone an operation a short time ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Locke of San Francisco are making an extended visit here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Buck.

Jerry Young, son of Mrs. Selma Young of Central Point, is remaining here at the home of Mrs. Lee Port while convalescing from a serious illness, which was followed by a tonsillectomy.

Friends here will be interested in knowing that Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence

Loy, long time residents of Antelope, and whose ranch there is in the cantonment area, have purchased a 91-acre ranch on Griffin creek, and are preparing to move there. Mr. and Mrs. Loy engage extensively in the poultry business, and expect to raise 5,000 turkeys this season in addition to hundreds of young chickens. Mrs. Loy is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McDaniel of this community.

Paul Shambough of Vancouver, enrollee at Camp Williams, recently became telephone operator at Star Ranger station, succeeding Mike Harris, who had served during the last six months. Mr. Harris left Saturday for Grants Pass to visit friends before continuing to his home at Oak Ridge, near Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stempke of Middle Fork, accompanied by the latter's father, "Dad Walters", moved to Medford a few days ago, where

Mr. Stempke has employment on the cantonment.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pease, well known in this community where Mrs. Pease formerly resided and taught school, have sold their home on Lewis avenue in Medford, and have taken up temporary residence in Central Point.

Miss Frances Port, post graduate student at Oregon State college, and her room mate, Miss Winifred Martin, were expected to arrive during the week end for spring vacation.

In early Rome the wedding ring was made of iron.
