

AIR RAID MANUAL TO BE GIVEN OUT BY WARDENS SOON

Every Home to Receive Free Copy Telling What To Do If Enemy Planes Come.

Every home in this area will receive a free copy of the state of Oregon's new citizens' manual, "Official Air Raid Instructions" within a few days, announces Governor Charles A. Sprague, state director of civilian defense.

The 24-page book contains 70 illustrations, encompassing all the vital information necessary to the average citizen in case of enemy air raid. It will be distributed by neighborhood air raid wardens. Residents are urged to look for the manual and to hang it with the telephone book or place it in the blackout room.

"The task of defense is so tremendous that the individual citizen's self-reliance is necessarily his greatest protection in time of attack," said Governor Sprague. "We have prepared this book to sum up the information that the householder should possess in order to best protect his life and property."

Material in this manual is based on lessons learned by the British people from the disastrous $8,000,000,000 London fire that burned out the city center of London during the December 29, 1940 air blitz. The instructions for the Oregon manual were checked for accuracy by army, state and local defense authorities.

The manual, with 70 illustrations, gives detailed information and instructions on the following subjects:

1. Kinds of air raid signals in Oregon, what to do, wherever you are, when the air raid signal sounds.

2. What you can do now to prepare for an air raid—essential supplies you should obtain now.

3. Escape or rescue methods in case your home or building is hit.

4. First aid—elementary information all members of your family should know for artificial respiration and for controlling arterial bleeding.

5. Types of bombs, how to identify them, how to control them.

6. Gas attacks, how they may occur, what you can do.

The Oregon State Defense council estimated that in the possible case of 50 Jap bombers raiding a metropolitan area from a naval carrier operating off the coast they could drop 50,000 incendiary bombs. Approximately 5,000 fires would result from these bombs.

Emphasizing the need for Oregonians to learn how to combat incendiary bombs, particularly Jerrold Owen, state coordinator of civilian defense said that civilians could control 95 out of 100 fires resulting from incendiaries, if they obtained equipment and practiced instructions listed in the "Official Air Raid Instructions" manual.

56 TANKERS FOR PORTLAND YARD

Washington, March 26—(P)—The maritime commission awarded contracts today for the construction of 56 large tankers, 16 emergency cargo vessels of the Liberty ship design, and a new six-way shipyard at Brunswick, Ga.

The tankers will be constructed in a new shipyard being built by the Kaiser company at Swan Island, near Portland, Ore.

The tanker contract replaces one previously awarded the Kaiser company for the construction of 70 Liberty ships at the Swan Island yard.

The commission explained that it was diverting some of the nation's shipyard capacity to tanker construction, presumably to meet a need for tankers made acute by recent sinkings.

TO ROUSE FLOW OF LIVER BILE

Normally about a quart of these digestion-aiding bile juices should flow freely into your intestines every 24 hours. A scanty flow—a slowing-up may mean Sick Headaches, so-called Biliousness, Poor Digestion, that "half sick" sour feeling and most probably constipation.

Avoid Calomel or other drastic drugs. Get a bottle of Kruschen Salts—a gentle laxative—tonight. Start right in tomorrow morning and take half a level teaspoonful in three-quarters of a glass of water (hot or cold) half an hour before breakfast, and keep it up for 30 days. Now you'll know what it is to get up feeling fit and ready for a real day's work. Try Kruschen—a famous English formula and see what it means to you when Bile Flows Freely. Satisfaction Guaranteed or Money Back. Western Thrift.

The bomb pictured actually fell on London but was a dud and did not burst into flame. The state of Oregon's book of Official Air Raid Instructions, now being distributed, contains all the information necessary to the citizen in case of air attack.

TOUGH COSSACKS ADD CANNON FOR SPRING CAMPAIGN

Anti-Tank Guns To Meet Threat Of Nazis' Mechanized Units Says Observer

By Ed Gilmore
Moscow, March 26—(P)—The storied Cossacks still stick to their horses but they've added anti-tank guns to their traditional armament to meet the challenge of mechanized warfare.

I watched a regiment of Cossacks as it prepared for the spring fighting against the Germans. Formed in the Urals last September, it was made up of Kuban and Orenburg Cossacks with a sprinkling of Dons.

These soldiers were the toughest, most hardened I've seen in Russia.

They are heavily equipped. Besides the vicious sabres, each Cossack carried an automatic rifle and a pistol.

The regiment also is otherwise well-equipped—even to modern radio communications.

Thunder Over Snow
While I watched, the strange strains of Kuban Cossack music came across the snow. Major Kusjma Keresky pointed to the long line of black-clad horsemen and cried:

"The charge!"
Suddenly the day was filled with a wild shout. The horses, tough Siberians, thundered up through the snow.

The Cossacks, riding with the grace peculiarly their own, pounded down upon an acre of twigs on posts. Whirling their sabres above their heads, the Cossacks began slashing.

Twig after twig flew into the air. It is quite a feat of marksmanship to split a twig with a broad sabre while riding at 30 miles an hour.

"So it will be soon with the Germans," grinned Col. Pyotr Karpachev, an Orenburg Cossack. "These men leave for the front soon."

"Esteemed Grandparents" Found For Many Chinese Children Here

Ready response is being found in the city for "esteemed grandparents" by C. E. "Pop" Gates who is heading the Medford campaign for United China Relief drive and Mr. Gates said he is proud to announce that Medford already has several "esteemed grandparents".

Mr. Gates received authority from Portland headquarters of United China Relief today to give certificates for "esteemed grandparents" to those who contribute $5, $10, $15 or $20, the money taking care of a Chinese child for a consecutive, three, six, nine or 12 month period.

The money hospitalizes, feeds, clothes and educates a Chinese child for the selected period of time. Heretofore the certificate has been issued only for the 12 month period. Mr. Gates has a picture of a tiny Chinese lad eating a bowl of rice and suggests that contributors hang the picture in their dining room. Each morning as they enjoy their hearty American breakfast the "esteemed grandparents" can realize that they are supporting some worthy young Chinese.

The organization of "esteemed grandparents" is sponsored by Madame Chiang Kai-shek.

The drive continues in Jackson county the rest of the week and anyone may leave their contribution at either bank or chamber of commerce. A receipt will be given—and if the donation is large enough—an "esteemed grandparent" certificate will be received.

Salem Newspapers Will Cost More
Salem, March 26—(P)—The Capital Journal and Oregon Statesman announced today that effective April 1 they would increase their subscription rates from 60 to 75 cents a month.

The newspapers said the increase was caused by increased operating costs and a decline in advertising revenue.
