Bern, Switzerland, April 1.—

(P)—The first two death sentences under Germany's drastically-strengthened food regulations have been handed down against two women who are nurses in a children's home, dispatches from Berlin said today. They were found guilty of hoarding four tons of sugar, candy and soap. Propaganda Minister Paul Joseph Goebbels warned recently in the weekly publication, Das Reich, that the "most drastic penalties" would be imposed on hoarders and black market food operators.
