Billy Hulen Says:

Predictions Made On Outcome Major Loop Flag Chases

Our rapidly-growing army of readers (seven at last official count) will be glad to learn that after wading through countless reports from our eastern operatives and applying every known scientific principle to the problem, we have definitely determined in advance the outcome of the two major league pennant races.

Not only have the flag winners been named, but the final resting place of every other club in both loops has been settled beyond the shadow of a doubt. If, by any chance, discrepancies appear in the order-of-finish we are about to divulge and the order-of-finish papers will print under "final standings" next September, lay them to typographical errors.

Following our custom, we will give you the upside-down finish in the two circuits, saving the naming of the champions to the very last. As befits its seniority, the National league will come first, as follows:

Eighth—Until a worse team comes along to challenge their ability to lose games, the Futility Phils must be accorded the signal honor of leading the league in reverse.

Seventh—It's a good thing the Phillies are in the league, or the Boston Braves would be one hole lower than this.

Sixth—The Chicagoans have done considerable house-cleaning but they still look definitely second division.

Fifth—Mel Ott will be an improvement over Bill Terry as Giant boss and the New Yorkers COULD surprise. Fourth—Frank Frisch's Pirates appear to be as strong as last year and the year before, maybe stronger.

Third—Magnificent pitching will put the Reds in the "show" position, despite a cream puff attack.

Second—"Dem Bums," although they look even better than 1942, won't quite make the grade again.

First—Great pitching and fielding, a hefty batting punch and speed, speed, speed will send the Cardinals home in front in a blistering race with the Dodgers.

And now the American league:

Eighth—It will be a sad year for Philadelphia's two big league entrants. The A's just haven't got the material.

Seventh—"Washington, first in war, seventh in the American league."

Sixth—No Greenberg and no first division for Detroit.

Fifth—The Browns are on the rise.

Fourth—Feller is gone but the Indians are at last hustling under Lou Boudreau, the baby manager.

Third—Boston still has James Fox, and Pesky is an Oregon boy, so why not?

Second—Canny Jimmy Dykes can be expected to get everything there is out of the White Sox, and just a little more.

First—They did it by 17 games last season, and should do as well if not better in 1942. The Yanks are coming.

Ad Liska Hurls Beavers to 4-2 Opening Win Over Padres

WINNERS COLLECT EIGHT BLOWS OFF SOUTHPAW HEBERT

Liska Yields Seven To San Diego—Stars, Seattle, Seals, Take Inaugurals.

San Francisco, April 3.—(P)—Under the tightening pressure of war for the second time in its 39-year history, the Pacific Coast league was off to a rousing start today in the 1942 baseball campaign.

Opening games in four California cities drew enthusiastic crowds and had all the traditional zip and color. The peppery coast league is annually the first in the country to get under way and the last to close.

A military aspect marked the inaugurals yesterday and last night. At San Francisco, Rear Admiral John W. Greenslade, commandant of the 12th naval district, tossed out the first ball. Rear Admiral Ralston Holmes, 11th naval district chief, did the honors at San Diego.

Attendance Good

The openers were well attended. Sacramento drawing the largest crowd, 7,000. The hometown Solons dropped a 7-2 decision to Seattle, champion the past three years and tabbed to repeat. Dick Barrett pitched three-hit ball while his mates collected 14 hits off three Sacramento hurlers.

At Hollywood, a night crowd of 6,500 saw their stars nip Oakland, 3-2. Governor Culbert Olson tossed the first ball.

San Francisco crushed the re-organized Los Angeles Angels, 10-6, at the Seal's stadium in a free-hitting affair before 6,300.

and at San Diego the Portland Beavers, picked to wind up in their usual spot, the cellar, again this season, got off to a flying start with a 4-2 win over San Diego, before 5,000 fans.

Despite the uncertain future of baseball in this prescribed war zone, the outlook was considerably brighter than in 1918 when the league was forced to disband under a "work or fight" edict of the first world war.

The future of baseball remains in the lap of the war gods, but President Roosevelt and army chiefs have given it the go ahead signal even to the extent of permitting night games—subject to immediate cancellation.

Short scores: R. H. E. Portland..... 4 8 0 San Diego..... 2 7 1 Liska and Castro; Hebert and Salkeld.

Seattle..... 7 14 0 Sacramento..... 2 3 3 Barrett and Collins; Freitas, Pinter, Polly and Mueller.

Oakland..... 2 8 2 Hollywood..... 3 6 2 Corbett and Raimondi; Root and Brenzel.

Los Angeles..... 6 12 3 San Francisco..... 10 13 2 Prim, Dobner, Raffensberger and Campbell; Gibson, Epperly and Ogrodowski.

MacPhail Bank Roll Seen as Aid to Dodger Flag Chances

By Gale Talbot
Tampa, Fla., April 3.—(P)—If Larry MacPhail's bank roll holds out—and a fine, lusty bank roll it is—the Brooklyn Dodgers probably will fight off both the St. Louis Cardinals and the Cincinnati Reds and win themselves another National league pennant.

If it were not for the red-head's absolute determination to have a winner and his willingness to spend big money to get it, the temptation would be strong to pick one of the three top clubs out of a hat. They appear to be that evenly matched right now. But it is a pretty good baseball axiom to string along with the spender.

It should be a beauty of a race right down to the wire. The Dodgers and Cards waged a thriller last year, but this one might be even better because the Cincinnati club has recovered from its "world champions" daze and is going to be in there punching. It appears safe to dismiss the other five outfits from the real contention, though Pittsburgh might, as usual, set a hot early pace.

The Dodgers are a little sounder club all around than either the Reds or the Cards, and there is no guarantee that they will not increase their strength during the race. If their pitching shows signs of falling off, for instance, MacPhail will go after Buck Newsum hard enough to get him. He might get Buck anyway.

That might prove discouraging to the Reds and the Cards, for their chances of adding any strength from here on are practically nil.

Already Brooklyn has one of baseball's outstanding infield quartets in Dolf Camilli, Billy Herman, Peeewe Reese and Arky Vaughan, and it has the league's best young outfielder in Harold Reiser. It has a brace of top pitchers in Kirby Higbe and Whit Wyatt, and two good catchers in Billy Sullivan and Mickey Owen. There is no outstanding weakness.

TWO CHOSEN FOR TRIP TO TOURNEY

Portland, Ore., April 3.—(P)—Denny Quinn of the Eugene Elks knocked out Jim Corrigan, Multnomah club, Portland, in 2:31 of the first round for the quickest step into an Oregon AAU boxing championship last night.

4 GOLFERS CARD 69'S TO TIE FOR ASHEVILLE LEAD

By Frits Littlejohn

Asheville, N. C., April 3.—(P) The Asheville open demonstrated today the incredible fact that a golf tournament can be a pleasant event—even for the literally down-trodden spectators.

Here in a jewel of a setting, galleries picked out their favorites and followed them complacently, nobody getting in each other's way or hair, nobody getting on each other's feet and nerves.

The greens, set in sheltered coves, are surrounded by natural amphitheatres—and veritable paradises for the paying customer who customarily lays down his couple of bucks to get an elbow pushed in his eye.

Then, too, it was a pleasant event for the money players—because it belonged to all of them. It was anybody's tournament, as the boys say, when four men tied for the lead at 69, four more at 70, and six at even par 71, as play moved into today's second 18-hole round.

The leaders were Lord Byron Nelson, former open and PGA king; Lawson Little, another former U. S. open champion; Jimmy Hines of Great Neck, L. I., former Ryder cupper, and Herman Barron of White Plains, N. Y., winner of the Phoenix, Ariz., tournament earlier this year.

The 70 slot included Ky Laf-foon of Miami Okla., hoping for a comeback to the form that made him a threat a few years ago, and three lesser lights: young Bill Nary, redhead from Rancho Santa Fe, Calif.; Willie Goggin of White Plains, and Tony Penna of Dayton, Ohio.

At the TRAINING CAMPS

(By Associated Press)

Orlando, Fla.—No matter whom Bucky Harris selects to pitch for the Washington Nationals in their season opener against the New York Yankees April 14, somebody is going to be jealous. Buck Newsum, Washington's newest acquisition, is campaigning for the assignment. So is Dutch Leonard, who has started the openers the past three years.

Tucson, Ariz.—Although the Chicago Cubs lost yesterday's game to the Philadelphia Athletics, 2-1, Manager Jimmy Wilson had praise for his three rookie hurlers who held the A's to four hits. Hi Bithron allowed three of the safeties in the five innings he worked. Walter Lannan, who succeeded Hi, gave up one hit in three innings and Glenn Gardner pitched hitless ball in the ninth.

De Land, Fla.—Pitcher Tommy Hughes of the Philadelphia Phils, who turned in a one-hitter last year as a rookie, is showing his class again this season. For five innings yesterday, he shut out the Boston Braves on four hits and gave no walks.

The Braves teed off on Frank Hoerst in the last two innings, however, and won, 3-2.

Tucson, Ariz.—The Chicago White Sox felt a little better today after stopping Pittsburgh, 5-4. The Bucs previously had trimmed the White Sox six straight times.

WEBFOOTS DEFEAT PORTLAND, 11 TO 8

Portland, April 3.—(P)—An eight-run lead in the first inning, most of it coming as a gift, permitted the University of Oregon baseball team to coast to an 11-8 win over the University of Portland yesterday.

Shopkin started on the mound for Portland. He yielded two hits, one a bunt, and one walk after another, forcing in several runs, before giving way to Eddie Eterno.

O'Toole, Portland, was leading batsman with a triple, a double and a single in five times up.

Score: R. H. E. Oregon..... 11 13 6 Portland..... 8 11 4 Sandgren and Philip; Shopkin, Eterno and Carr.
