a "Mobilization of 4-H Club Forces for Victory" and the local Jackson County unit are preparing to head the state in 4-H activity for "Victory" by arranging with the Rialto theatre to stage a gala celebration Monday night at the popular theatre.

Twenty-one young Americans will be presented on the stage between shows in a special "4-H Victory Revue." These young people will represent a cross-section of Jackson county 4-H members. The highlight of the revue will be a 4-H style show, which will feature party, play and house dresses actually made by young 4-H members.

"Young America," starring Jane Withers, is a happy story with a background of 4-H club work. Miss Withers joins a 4-H club and with them brings about a grand climax that is proof of the strength of "Young America" in uniting and mobilizing their efforts toward an allied victory. Others in the cast will be Jane Darwell, Lynne Roberts, William Tracy and Ben Carter. Hollywood's most popular Negro comedian.
