Flynn Sisters Wed, Announce Marriage Date

Of interest to friends in southern Oregon is the marriage today of Miss Dorothy Flynn and announcement of the betrothal of Miss Jacki Flynn, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Diamond Flynn of this city.

Miss Dorothy Flynn will become the bride of Charles Donald Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ross of Dallas, Ore., at the United Presbyterian church in West Allis, Wis., at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

For her wedding outfit the bride has chosen a blue silk jersey redingote over a printed silk jersey dress, with white accessories. A corsage of gardenias, bouvardia and rosebuds will complete her costume.

The bride's mother, who is in West Allis to attend the ceremony, has selected a blue suit for the occasion.

The bride-elect attended Oregon State college where she was a member of Delta Zeta sorority. For the past eight months she has been employed at the First National bank in this city.

Mr. Ross graduated from Oregon State college in December in mechanical engineering and was affiliated with Kappa Sigma fraternity. He is now employed by the Allis Chalmers corporation in West Allis, Wis.

They plan to make their home in Milwaukee, Wis.

Prior to her marriage Miss Flynn was honored at numerous bridal showers by her friends in this city.

The betrothal of Miss Jacki to Ed Allworth, son of Major and Mrs. E. C. Allworth of Corvallis, has been announced by Miss Flynn's parents. The ceremony will be an event of Saturday, April 18 at St. Mark's Episcopal church in this city.

Miss Flynn is a sophomore at Oregon State college and is a member of Kappa Gamma sorority. Mr. Allworth is a senior at Oregon State college and is affiliated with Kappa Sigma fraternity.

They plan to reside in Corvallis.
