Tea, Style Show To Honor Mothers At High School

As a climax to a week of activities, the Girls' league of Medford high school will present its annual spring tea and style show tomorrow in the auditorium. The military theme of the week is being carried out with mothers being invited to a "day at the White House."

All mothers and daughters will meet at 2:30 p. m. in the auditorium where they will be welcomed by Girls' league president, Jeanne Smith, after which the following yearly awards will be announced: P. E. O. D. A. R. and the Girls' league merit awards. A group of selections by the Capella choir will follow and then the student style show will be presented.

In the style show, girls will model their own new spring suits, formals, dresses, sportswear and summer play clothes. Afterwards the mothers with their daughters will retire to the lounge in the girls' gymnasium where refreshments are to be served.

Those in charge include: General chairman, Jeanne Smith and Miss Sue Moshberger; tea, Barbara Brewer, Miss Marian Luce and Mrs. Anne Donnelly; decorations, Alice Day; program, Margaret Roberts and Miss Helene Leach; and style show, June Jarman and Mrs. Alex McDonald.

Church Group Enjoys Meeting

Mrs. Edna Kindred and group presented the program developing the thought "How Can We Right the Wrong" under the general theme "Christians and World Order" at the Adult Missionary society of the First Christian church Wednesday afternoon at the church. Fifty-seven friends and members attended.

Mrs. Julia Gregory presided during the business session and the nominating committee was appointed with Mrs. Ethel Troxell as chairman, Mrs. Susan Eads and Mrs. Rene Sater, committee members. Mrs. C. E. Hutchins led devotions stressing "Christians of the World Unite in Quest of World Justice." Mrs. R. W. Coleman gave a review of the book, "Men Are Brothers" by Eva Taylor. Mrs. Marguerite Luman sang two solos.

The climax of the meeting was a pre-Easter sacrificial devotional service, "I Want To Know Him" presented by Mrs. Mabel Sims with vocal selections by Mrs. Yvonne Haggard and Mrs. Oletha Olson. The offering was placed on the altar at the foot of a large white cross banked with palms and lighted candles.

Mrs. Mae Hon and group served refreshments which carried out an Easter motif.

Easter Monday Luncheon Is Success

Spring flowers formed the setting for the annual Easter Monday luncheon at St. Mary's gymnasium Monday afternoon by members of St. Mary's Altar society. Luncheon was served followed by an afternoon of bridge.

Thirty tables were at play with prizes being awarded to Mrs. C. O. Johnson, Mrs. G. O. Humphrey, Mrs. Rose Singler, Mrs. Greiner, Mrs. Bayard Getchell, Mrs. Kenneth Fitzgerald, Mrs. Robert Miksche and Mrs. Syd Brown.
