

CATTLE RAISERS IN ANNUAL MEET ADVISED OF FEES

Big Applegate, April 14. — (Spl.)—That local stockmen will pay a separate fee this year for grazing their stock on O. and C. lands was the information given cattlemen by Eugene K. Peterson, assistant administrative officer of the O. and C. revested lands with headquarters in Medford. Peterson spoke to cattle raisers at their annual meeting held at Ruch Sunday.

For several years the stockmen have paid the fee, though its collection was handled by the forest service in addition to the grazing charge made by the forestry department. The new fee is 23.4 cents per head per month, and is collected through the department of interior.

A committee was appointed to investigate damage done on grazing land by goats. The following officers were reinstated: Leon Offenbacher, president; Clarence Buck, vice president; Edward Kubli, secretary-treasurer. The advisory board includes Louis Straube, Albert Collings and Cliff Smith. Forestry heads attending the meeting were Fenton Whitney of the Medford headquarters and L. C. Port, local ranger.

AIR HERO URGES HELP FOR CHINA

Portland, April 14. — (P) — A cablegram from Kenneth Jernstedt, Yamhill, Ore., flier with the American volunteer group in Burma, urged Oregonians, who offered to buy him a new plane, to donate the money to China's war orphans.

The message, sent to Governor Sprague, said, "Believe plane purchase impossible. Greatly appreciate Oregon spirit. Contributions to Madame Chiang Kai-Shek for Chinese war orphans would do inestimable good for China and humanity."

Jernstedt, 24, a graduate of Linfield college, was one of two American fliers who destroyed 15 of 25 planes in a raid on a Japanese air base at Moulmein March 19.

Iran Halts Japanese Propaganda Flow by Severing Relations

Teheran, Iran, April 14. — (P) — Iran severed diplomatic relations with Japan today, cutting off the fountain head of axis propaganda to island neighbors of this allied-occupied Asiatic kingdom on the supply route to Russia and the eastern Mediterranean.

The Iranian (Persian) government notified Japanese Minister Hikoitaro Ichikawa that he must leave within a week with his six diplomatic and military attaches.

The rupture of relations followed the removal of six major axis agents to a remote section of southeast Iran.

The United States and British legations were informed of the Iranian-Japanese break.

A stream of axis propaganda
