

PHOENIX STUDENTS WIN TYPING TESTS IN COUNTY MEET

2 Firsts, 2 Seconds Among Honors in "B" School
Competition at Central P.

Phoenix, students with two firsts, two seconds, one third and one tie for third took most of the honors in the annual Jackson county "B" high school typing competition at Central Point yesterday afternoon.

Eight schools entered the amateur (second year typing) and novice (first year typing) contests in speed and accuracy.

Patty Furry, Phoenix, with 66 net words per minute, won the amateur speed test. Alma Ayers, Jacksonville, was second with 65 and Virginia Garvin, Talent, third with 62. Miss Garvin made only two errors to take amateur accuracy honors. Alden Wright, Phoenix, with two errors and 49 net was second and Patty Furry with three mistakes was third.

June Davis, Phoenix, was novice speed champ with 60 net words per minute. Dorothy Young, Eagle Point, was second with 53 and Gloria Houston, Phoenix, third with 51.

Eric Johnson, Central Point, with 50 net and no errors, the only perfect score of the tests, grabbed the novice accuracy title. June Davis with one error was second. Gloria Houston, with two mistakes, tied for third with Beulah Balderstone, Talent, and Bonnie Sanger, Jacksonville, who each typed 50 net.

Team honors will be known next week following compilation of statistics based on the accuracy and speed records of 50 per cent of the enrollment in typing classes of the schools.

War Prisoners' Kin May Make Inquiries Through Red Cross

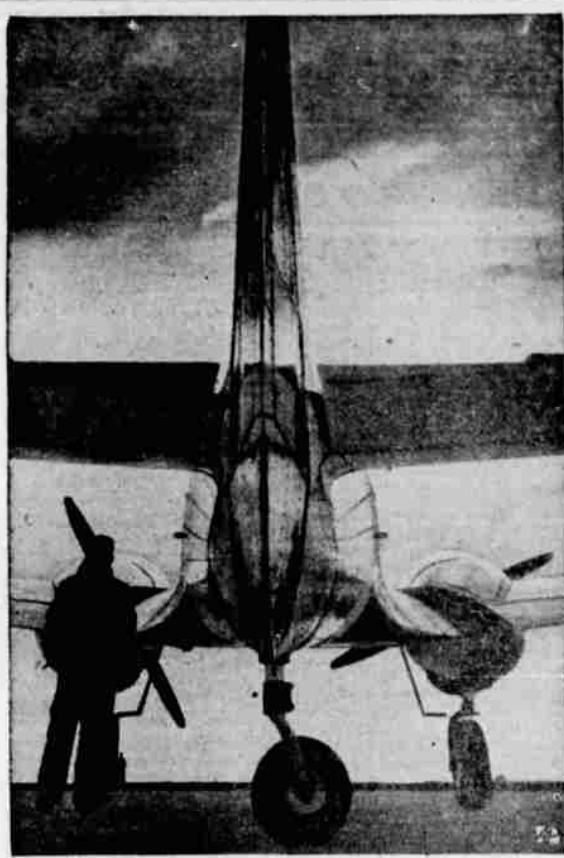

An announcement is made by Miss Lillian Roberts, executive secretary of Jackson county Red Cross, that regular inquiry forms regarding prisoners of war and civilian internees held by Japan from Wake and Guam may be secured at the Red Cross office in the county court house. Relatives desiring information about interned persons may make inquiries through the local office.

In many instances, Miss Roberts said, relatives have written to San Francisco and Washington, D. C. for information. These offices turn the matter over to the local Red Cross office who must contact the families in order that the forms may be filled out. Miss Roberts pointed out that relatives will save time by contacting the local Red Cross office.

No FIREWORKS

Newport, Ore., April 16.—(P)—The old-fashioned Fourth of July fireworks celebrations at Newport will be abandoned for the duration. A $50 fine and 20 days in jail face violators of a new anti-fireworks ordinance announced yesterday by the city.

European cheeses are now being replaced in the U. S. by Argentine and other Latin American products.

SILVERED BY THE SUNSET—Thrust against the evening sky at Ellington Field, Texas, is an AT-9, bi-motored advanced training plane soon to take off on a flight. World's largest multi-motored flying school is at the field.

Aluminum Monopoly Gels $140,000 Fine

New York, April 16.—(P)—The Aluminum Company of America, Magnesium Development company, three other corporations and six individuals were fined a total of $140,000 in federal court today on their plea of nolo contendere (no contest) to a series of Sherman anti-trust indictments alleging restraint of trade and monopolizing of the production and fabrication of magnesium.

At the same time, Thurman Arnold, assistant attorney general in charge of the anti-trust division, filed a consent decree which provides for the compulsory free licensing of patents held by the defendants for the production and fabrication of magnesium.

COMMUNITY INTEREST
Chicago, April 16.—(P)—Superior Judge Rudolph Desort ruled in a divorce trial that a woman has the right to search her husband's pants pockets. And, he added, the husband has the right to search his wife's purse, "but he shouldn't get caught."

CALL FOR "YES" VOTE

Toronto, April 16.—(P)—The Ontario legislature adjourned early today shortly after adopting unanimously a resolution which called upon the people of the province to vote "yes" in the April 27 plebiscite on the question of whether the dominion government should be relieved of its pledge against conscription for overseas service.

Wake Up America ... It's Late!

An Editorial from the New York World-Telegram
March 5, 1942

THE nation needs to awaken to the full gravity of the peril that confronts it.

It needs to appreciate how badly we have been defeated in three months of war.

It needs to understand that it is possible for the United Nations and the United States to lose this war and suffer the fate of France—and that this possibility may become a probability if the present tide does not change.

It needs to realize that there is grave chance of the Japanese pushing through India and the Germans driving through the Near East, to join their armies and resources in an almost unbeatable combination.

It needs to get away, once and for all, from the comforting feeling that while we may lose at the start we are bound to win in the end.

Only when fully aware of existing perils will the United States do its utmost. Pray God that awareness will not come too late, as it did in France!

Production Director Donald Nelson appeals for vastly increased industrial output on a 24-hour, seven-day basis—168 hours a week. Maximum production, in short.

Can we get it?

Not on the present basis—not under the psychology of recent years.

Not until we quit thinking in terms of less work for more money.

Not while there is greater concern about overtime pay than overtime production.

Not while farmer politicians are more interested in higher prices than raising more essentials.

Not while government bureaus—created to meet a depression emergency that is ended—continue to grab for themselves money needed for armaments.

Not while an army of federal press agents clamors to promote and perpetuate activities that have no present need or value.

Not while Congressmen try to put over useless canals and river schemes and take up the time of defense officials clamoring for factories and contracts as if war were a great gravy train.

Not while WPA, despite a shortage of labor, seeks to carry on projects which it doesn't have the men to perform or the need for performing.

Not while CCC and NYA stretch greedy hands for funds to pamper young men who ought to be in the armed forces or the war plants.

Not while strikes hamper war production, despite a solemn promise that they would stop.

Not while the life-and-death need for uninterrupted production is used as a weapon to put over the closed shop.

Not while double time is demanded for Sunday work which is only part of a 40-hour week.

Not while a man can't be employed on an army project or in a war plant until he pays $20 to $30 or more to a labor racketeer.

Not while criminal gangs control employment and allocation of men to work on the Normandy and the other ships along New York's vast waterfront.

Not while fifth columnists are pampered and enemy aliens move freely in defense areas.

Not while the grim job of preparing our home communities against air raids and sabotage is gummed up with a lot of high-falutin', boon-doggling social service activity.

Not while pressure blocs clamor for higher benefits, bounties and pensions.

We will not get maximum production, in short, unless, first, we fully realize our awful peril, and, second, get over the gimmes of recent years.

Gimme shorter hours, gimme higher wages, gimme bigger profits, gimme more overtime, gimme less work, gimme more pensions, gimme greater crop benefits, gimme more appropriations and patronage, gimme plants for my Congressional district, gimme fees and dues to work for Uncle Sam, gimme ham 'n' eggs, gimme share-the-wealth, gimme $30 every Thursday.

France had the gimmes, too—had them till the Germans were close to Paris. Then everybody went frantically to work—too late.

France has no gimmes today—except gimme food for my baby, gimme a place to lay my head, gimme death.
