

NEW S. P. OFFICE AT LOCAL DEPOT

Robert H. Holmes, Southern Pacific district agent, announces today the opening of a new district freight and passenger office in the passenger station at Fifth and Front streets.

Personnel of the new office in addition to Holmes, is Robert F. Ditewig, chief clerk, and Miss June Moran, clerk. This is a branch of the general offices at Portland and is maintained here to supplement the service of the local freight and passenger staff.

Fred G. Morris, local agent, also announced installation of a telephone switchboard to serve all Southern Pacific offices in Medford.

The additional facilities will result in improved service to our patrons, said Holmes and Morris and are provided to take care of the increasing business in Medford district.

MISS BLOOD HAS NURSE REGISTRY

Miss Mary L. Blood, RN of 835 East Ninth street, has taken over the registry for graduate nurses in this city, it was announced today by Miss Joan Stoeck, president of District No. 4, Graduate Nurses. For many years the registry was handled by the late Mrs. O. E. Osborne, RN, of 512 South Oakdale avenue, the first graduate nurse in the state.

The registry for registered nurses is one of two in the state, the other being located in Portland. Not only can it be used by the nurses but it is of service to the doctors on a 24-hour basis.

To celebrate Pan-America week, the high school Spanish club, La Tertulia, is holding a party this evening in room 10 at 7:30 o'clock. The program will include a poem in Spanish by Ray Bilderback, a short talk by Joyce Utz, and a Spanish dance, "Cucuracha," by Virginia Shanahan and Muriel Platt. Games dealing with Latin and South America have been arranged under the management of Doris Robinson and Marnelle Bevens. Virginia Shanahan is in charge of refreshments.

Plans for a dance to be held next Friday evening were discussed at a sophomore class meeting last Monday morning. According to Jo Ann Humphrey, program chairman, committee heads for the dance are as follows: Louise Lawrentz, cleanup; Vern Still, signs; Jeanne Deatherage, music, and Betty Jane Johnson, program. Theme for the dance will be a jungle scene and the committee promises some novel ideas will be carried out.

Candidates nominated at the primary elections last Tuesday for A.S.B. offices and who will appear on the final ballot next Friday, include: President, Darrell Monteith and Dan Graham; vice-president, Ralph Burgess and Don Fawcett; secretary, Betty Frey and Natalie Parker; business manager, David Dawson and Leo Mikesche; treasurer, Bob Kyle and Joyce Utz; yell queen, Louise Lawrentz and Marcia Stanley; and yell king, Bill Van Dyke and John McCollum.

Yesterday during third period Coach Russ Acheson presented basketball letters and certificates to the following boys: Bill Wall, Darrell Monteith, Dale Niedermeyer, Hank Herman, Bill Bayliss, R. B. Webber, Jack Kresse, Alvin Weir, Don Fawcett, Hal Adams, Lee Reynolds, and Bill Gitten. After presentation of the letters, the sophomore class sponsored several motion picture shorts.

At a meeting of the air raid squad, called third period Tuesday by Principal Leonard B. Mayfield, members were divided into their respective groups and then addressed by Guy Davis, head of the high school air raid precautionary department, who stressed importance of the job, saying that members must work together, because, in case of attack, in their hands rest the lives of many students as well as the protection of property. Mr. Davis further stated that bombs must be respected, not feared, and that thorough knowledge of their action would insure this attitude. Yesterday the outdoor squad, in charge of the athletic field, met at the grandstand to learn the various uses of its equipment. Today the indoor squad received similar information.

Makes Lunch Packing Lots Easier

THE biggest part of the lunch packing job is to keep away from sameness. In other words to make each lunch a little different.

Ready cooked sandwich meats is the answer. The variety is such that even in the purchase of a small amount enough different kinds may be included to furnish different sandwiches every day.

Inspect our display and see what a wide variety there is to choose from.
