

SOCIETY and CLUB NEWS of the WEEK

BY BETTY SHOEMAKER

Dorothy Paley Weds Mr. Sanborn In Church Rites

Married yesterday afternoon in Children's chapel of the Old First Presbyterian church in San Francisco were Miss Dorothy Paley and Jack Sanborn, both of San Francisco. Miss Paley is the granddaughter of Mrs. Joan F. White of 220 Laurel street in this city.

Given in marriage by C. B. McMath, former Medford resident, the bride chose for her wedding ensemble a navy blue suit and carried a bouquet of butterfly orchids. Her attendant Mrs. Kathleen Howell of San Francisco wore an aqua marine suit and carried orchids. Tad Mauvais of San Francisco was best man. The bride's grandmother wore a dusty pink suit.

Following the wedding the couple left for Carmel for a wedding trip and upon their return will make their home at 1650 Jones street in the bay city.

Mrs. Sanborn attended the local schools and the University of Oregon where she was affiliated with Gamma Phi Beta social sorority. Mr. Sanborn attended Santa Rosa Junior college and is employed by an insurance company.

Mrs. White has been in the south for several weeks with her granddaughter, who is a former Medford resident.

Dinner Enjoyed By Double Eight Club

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Burk entertained members and guests of the Double Eight club at their home on Rose avenue Wednesday evening. Dinner was served followed by an evening of cards and Chinese checkers.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Roland Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Nissen, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Bush, Mrs. Eva Marsh, Bob Banton, members, and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Field and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis E. Clevenburg, guests, and the host and hostess.

Local Girl Given Sorority Office

Miss Patricia Short, junior at Willamette university at Salem has been elected secretary of Beta Chi sorority for the coming year. Miss Short is the daughter of Arthur L. Short, 622 West Second street in this city.

Sorority To Hold Founder's Day Banquet

Local members of Pi Beta Phi, social sorority, are planning a Founder's day dinner to be held April 28 at Kyle's restaurant at Central Point at 6:45 p. m. Members who have not been contacted are asked to make inquiries of Mrs. George S. Jennings, telephone 3727. Mrs. L. E. Staples will entertain the group at her home, 1435 Euclid avenue, following the dinner hour.

IT'S YOUR PATRIOTIC DUTY to....

KEEP FIT

We're in Business for YOUR Health!

NISSEN Health Institute

Swedish Massage—Baths—Gymnasium

15 Geneva St.—Phone 3942
Frita Nissen—Director
Ethel Nissen—Assistant

YOUR CHOICE, MADAM!

THERE are appliances that will take SOME of the drudgery out of washday—but at best, they are merely compromises with the fact that WASHDAY has no place in a REAL home! Our modern laundry service is NOT a compromise! It is the modern means of COMPLETELY ELIMINATING washday from your life! We do the WHOLE job—as you would like to HAVE it done!

Ask your neighbor!

Feature in Romantic News

Among Medford residents whose weddings have been events of the past few weeks are: upper left, Mrs. Charles Donald Ross, the former Dorothy Flynn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Diamond Flynn, who was wed April 5 in West Allis, Wis.; upper right, Mrs. Ed Allworth, Jr., the former Jacki Flynn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Flynn, whose marriage was an event of yesterday afternoon at St. Mark's Episcopal church. Lower left, Mrs. Jack Sanborn, the former Dorothy Paley, granddaughter of Mrs. John White of this city who was married yesterday afternoon in San Francisco, and lower right, Mrs. Charles Ackerman, Jr., the former Marjorie Metzger, daughter of Mrs. Robert Metzger of Jacksonville married in Los Angeles, March 29.

"Priorities On Glamour" Theme Of Style Show

"Priorities on Glamour," a style show, sponsored annually by the Junior Guild of St. Mark's Episcopal church will begin tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock in the parish hall on North Oakdale avenue. The affair is open to the public and tickets may be secured from Guild members, at the office in Mann's department store or at the door. Dessert will be served followed by the style parade and cards for those who care to play.

A final dress rehearsal of the 1942 styles and "priorities" will be held this afternoon at the parish hall at 2 o'clock. A victory promenade has been constructed giving spectators ample view of the models.

Participating in the parade will be Misses Isabelle Miller, Helen Brown, Janet Mann, Jean Platt, Sue Mosherberger, Mary Lee Strang, Cleo Williams, Phyllis Adkins, Betty Vilm, Betty Shoemaker, Mary Ellen Eberhart, the Mesdames Robert Ditewig, Richard Watson, Jean Burford, Betty Parrish, Arthur Winetrot, Horace Mecklen, Floyd Baker, Jack Reese and Rita Bell.

Patricia Whalen, Bernard Corum Wed In Portland

Miss Patricia Whalen of Portland and Bernard Corum, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Corum of 345 South Central avenue, Medford, were married in Portland April 11 at St. Stephen's church at 9 a. m. with the Rev. Father Whalen, cousin of the bride, reading the service.

The bride was given in marriage by her step-father, E. J. Rogers. She wore a dusty pink tailored suit with a corsage of white orchids. She was attended by her sister, Miss Jean Whalen, who wore a blue tailored suit with a corsage of white gardenias and pink roses. Charles Morrissey was best man.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served in the gold dining room of the Roosevelt hotel and later a reception was held at their apartment, 1886 S. W. Tenth avenue. A wedding cake was served during the afternoon to relatives and friends.

Attending from out-of-town were Mr. and Mrs. George H. Corum and Mrs. D. B. Long of this city; Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Comegys and son, Gary of West Linn, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Houli and daughter, Judy of Longview, Wash.; Mr. Rogers and Charles Morrissey of Seattle and John McCrary of Fort Jones, Cal.

Before residing in Portland Mr. Corum was employed at Hotel Medford and is now an employee of Hotel Roosevelt in Portland where the couple will make their home.

A.A.U.W. Study Groups To Meet

Mrs. Kenneth Wells will entertain members of the A.A.U.W. drama group at her home, 602 West Fourth street Monday at 1:30 p. m. On Tuesday at 8 p. m. the A.A.U.W. art group will meet at the Wells home.

Flynn-Allworth Wedding Read At St. Mark's Church

St. Mark's church, decorated with apple blossoms, white snapdragons, palms and ferns with lighted tapers formed the setting for the wedding yesterday afternoon of Miss Jacki Flynn and Ed Allworth, Jr. The rites were read at 3 o'clock by the Rev. Harold G. Gardner, rector of St. Mark's church. The bridal party entered the church to traditional wedding music played by Mrs. Eva Marsh.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Diamond Flynn of this city and Mr. Allworth is the son of Major and Mrs. E. C. Allworth of Corvallis.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin wedding gown fashioned with long sleeves and a train trimmed in lace. The finger-tip veil was held in place by lilies of the valley. She wore a strand of pearls and carried a bouquet of white orchids and lilies of the valley, with a cascade of phalaenopsis orchids and white satin ribbons.

Mary Shreve of Salem was maid of honor and chose for her wedding costume an ice blue satin formal with a pearl necklace. Her bouquet was of pale pink bouvardia with phalaenopsis orchids and satin ribbons. Tom Hardy of Eugene was best man. Ushers were Gordon Green and Tilman Forman.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue redingote of silk with blue and white accessories and a corsage of gardenias and white bouvardia. Mrs. Allworth, the bridegroom's mother wore a black suit with matching accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

A reception followed the wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben J. Trowbridge, uncle and aunt of the bride. The table was decorated with trailing gardenias and lighted tapers in silver candelabras. The three-tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and groom was first cut by the bride. Pouring during the reception were Mrs. Ernest Scott, Mrs. Sylvia Shreve of Salem, Mrs. H. E. Rinabarger and Mrs. Ed Hoppe.

For going-away Mrs. Allworth, Jr., chose a turquoise covert cloth suit with luggage tan accessories and a corsage of orchids. They will make their home in Corvallis.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included Miss Mary Shreve and Mrs. Sylvia Shreve of Salem; Major and Mrs. E. C. Allworth and three children, Miss Mary Mathis, Miss Marjorie Johnson, Miss Francis Durland, Miss Jean Fulton, Miss Wilma Cronin, Miss Nancianne Segerton, all of Corvallis, Bob Morse, Gordon Green, Tilman Forman, fraternity brothers of the bridegroom from Corvallis and Barbara Dorris and Dagmar Jamison, sorority sisters of the bride, also from Corvallis.

Mrs. Allworth, Jr., is a graduate of Medford high school and is a sophomore at Oregon State college where she is affiliated with Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. Mr. Allworth is a senior at Oregon State college where he is a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Women of Rotary At Philips Home

Mrs. S. E. Phillips entertained Women of Rotary at her home at Big Boulder Orchard Wednesday afternoon with salad luncheon. Assisting here were Mrs. R. C. Wright, Mrs. John Day and Mrs. L. S. Nielsen. Spring flowers were used about the rooms.

Cards were at play with Mrs. Mark A. Goidy holding high score. Guests of the group were Mrs. Homer Marks, Mrs. Theron Bean and Mrs. J. P. Bradley of Salt Lake City. New members introduced included Mrs. H. D. Christensen, Mrs. K. G. Denman and Mrs. S. A. Gibbs.

FOR STORAGE
Repairing and Restyling
Arista Fur Shop
3rd Floor Medford Center Building — Phone 4567

A "dainty" FASHIONED
CREME SACHET
—By—
MARTHA LEE
Five Fragrances

WAINSCOTT'S PHARMACY

Main and Riverside

Phone 2440

Quiet Ceremony Weds Leah Evans, Norman Kerr, Jr.

At a morning ceremony at the First Baptist church in Ashland Saturday, April 11, Miss Leah Etta Evans, daughter of Mrs. Leon Evans of this city and Norman M. Kerr, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman M. Kerr of Ashland were quietly married. The ceremony was read by the Dr. W. H. Eaton, pastor of the First Baptist church.

The bride wore a dusty rose frock with turtan accessories and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and rosebuds. She was attended by her sister, Miss Zethel Evans, who wore a lemonade pink dress with luggage tan accessories and a corsage of rosebuds and sweet peas. Richard Kerr, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

After a short trip to the coast the couple are making their home in Durell court. Mrs. Kerr teaches school at Central Point and Mr. Kerr is employed by Standard Oil company.

Jean Hayse Tells Wedding Date at Party

Phoenix, April 18.—(Sp)—An announcement party held Friday evening at the Woodford Turpin home revealed the wedding date of Miss Jean Hayse of Phoenix to Richard Wright of Medford. Each guest was presented a corsage with a tiny scroll attached and when opened announced June 19 as the marriage date. During the evening the guests made an imaginary scrapbook of Miss Hayse's future life.

Refreshments were served to Helen Collins, Hazel Davis, Shirley White, Harriet Walker, Mary Jean Barnes, Irene Steadman, Vivian Schaefer, Josephine Eudey, Gladys Jacobs, Nancy Wall, Phyllis Olson, Barbara Stancliffe, Pauline Allen, Virginia Morris, Rusty Wyatt, Maxine Dugny, Pat Furry, Toni Stephenson, Marita Furry, Margie Heckert and the honored guest.

Dinner To Honor Visiting Matron

Plans for the entertainment of Mrs. Fay Ambrose, worthy grand matron of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, O. E. S., were made Thursday when Adair chapter, No. 3, O. E. S., met in Jacksonville. Mrs. Ambrose will be in southern Oregon the latter part of the week.

Following the meeting a group of members dressed in old-time costumes presented "The Family Album of the Gay Nineties" directed by Mabel Todd. Taking part were Ann Cator, Jeanette Spencer, Alice Wolfe, Dorothy Waldron, Fred and LaVesta Gardner, Emil Britt, E. and Ella Gould, Ina Huson, Fay Peters, Vivian Wilson, Eleanor Mae Todd and Libby Root, musician. Jane Kessler gave a tap dancing number. The program closed with members dancing the Virginia reel with Edith Antle at the piano. Refreshments were served by Allieann Maxwell, Mollie and Emil Britt, Nina Carlon and Grant Todd.

Mrs. Ambrose will be entertained with luncheon at Ashland Tuesday and a joint meeting with Ashland and Jacksonville is also scheduled for the coming week.

Class To Meet For Luncheon

Gleaner's class of the First Baptist church have scheduled a 12 noon covered-dish luncheon at the home of Mrs. Mary Strickland, 407 Beatty street Tuesday. New officers will be elected.

SERVICE-- Better Than Ever!

We've been fortunate in securing additional members for our staff, all experienced in top quality work. This will assure quicker and better service than ever—at popular prices, too! Cleaning, pressing, dyeing, alterations and hat blocking—handled on the finest type of equipment.

QUALITY WORK

Your clothes are first sorted for type of fabric, then carefully cleaned and inspected. Nothing overlooked!

Nu-Way CLEANERS

H. D. CHRISTENSEN, Prop.

Former Resident in Concert

Miss Helen Judy, lyric soprano, who appeared in this city April 7 at the First Baptist church in an evening concert. A former resident of this city Miss Judy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Judy who are now making their home in Eugene. She presented a similar concert in Eugene last week. (Photo courtesy Eugene Morning News)

Shower Honors Martha DeSouza Bride-Elect

Miss Martha DeSouza, whose marriage to Paul Kavanaugh will be an event of Monday morning at Sacred Heart church, was honored Thursday evening with a miscellaneous bridal shower at the home of Mrs. B. L. Hunter. Hostesses for the evening were Miss Helen McDonald, Mrs. G. L. Perry and Mrs. Betty Redpath. Cards were at play and prizes were awarded to Mrs. A. L. Parenteau, Mrs. Larry Espy and Miss Mary Lou Hardin. The honored guest received many gifts and later refreshments were served.

Attending were Miss DeSouza, her mother, Mrs. Frank DeSouza, and the Mesdames Ray Lewis, J. R. Marshall, Dick Sakraida, Paul Sakraida, Mary Newcomb, Don Leonard, Ronald Baker, Larry Espy, A. L. Parenteau, Lewell DuPray, J. P. Morrissey, Michael Schwartz, M. J. Leonard, B. L. Hunter, Mary Oliver, Clara Young, Margaret McGuire, Martha Morris, May Simmons.

Also the Mesdames Catherine McIntosh, Elsie Oliver, Annette Konop, Frances Russell, Mary Russell, Gerry Wilkinson, Patricia Hayes, Jeanette McKee, Eleanor LeMire, Louise LeMire, Verna Loffer, Kathleen Dillon and the hostesses.

DeMolay Mothers Schedule Meeting

DeMolay Mothers' club will be entertained Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. E. S. Tumpy, 705 Park avenue for desert luncheon. Mothers of DeMolay boys and especially new members are invited.

Betrothal Of Harriet Smith Told By Mother

Friends in this city will be interested to learn of the approaching marriage of Miss Harriet Smith, daughter of Mrs. Bertha Smith of Ashland to Lieut. John Hartig Denton, of Stockton, Cal., son of Mrs. Bertha Denton of Redmond, Ore.

The wedding will be an event of Friday at 4:30 p. m. in the Post Chapel at Stockton Field, Stockton. The bride-elect attended University of Oregon where she was a member of Alpha Delta Pi social sorority and graduated from Southern Oregon College of Education. She has been teaching at Corvallis. Lieut. Denton is a graduate of Oregon State college in pharmacy and was affiliated with Chi Psi social fraternity. He is a lieutenant in the U. S. air force.

Society To Meet In Church Parlors

Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will meet Tuesday at 2 p. m. in the church parlors. Hostesses will be Mrs. John Gribble, Mrs. O. J. Gould and Mrs. C. W. Gueches. Devotions led by Mrs. A. J. Hanby will be on the topic, "Choosing Christ's Way." Mrs. Glen Sanders will speak on "24-Hour Day Missionary Society. Special music is to be presented by Mrs. W. J. Burbridge. Interested women are invited.

Morgan Trio To Present Varied Program Tuesday

Bringing to Medford an evening of excellent music is the Morgan Trio, which will be presented in this city Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the First Methodist church, sponsored by the Medford Music society. Their appearance in southern Oregon offers music lovers and especially young people an opportunity to hear and learn to appreciate good music.

The trio, composed of three talented sisters, Marguerite, pianist, Frances, violinist and Virginia, harpist, have arranged a program of varied numbers. They will appear in solo numbers and also trio arrangements. Tickets are available from society members, Pruitt's Music shop and Baldwin Piano shop.

The program includes:

Concerto.....Couperin 1668-1773	Violin
Prelude-graciously	Violin
Allemande-jallement	Violin
Sarabande-grave	Violin
Musette-rondo	Violin
Harp
Nocturne.....Debussy 1862-1918	Harp and Piano
La Fille aux Cheveux de Lin	Debut
.....Debussy
Dance Sacree et Dance Profane	Debut
.....Debussy
Concerto.....Vivaldi 1660-1743	Violin
Allegro	Violin
Largo	Violin
Presto	Violin
Tarantelle.....Papini 1847-1897	Piano
.....Albeniz 1860-1909
Tango.....Albeniz
Navarra.....Albeniz
Meditation.....Tchaikovsky 1840-1893	Trio
Oriental Romance.....Rimsky-Korsakoff 1844-1908
Melodie.....Gretchaninoff 1864

PRUITT'S

Widest selection of Standard U phono records prices on S in town
all leading S Try them makes of records I in our Nr one C private undersells us C booths
CENTER
Opposite Rialto Theatre

Our Great Aim is to be helpful to all who engage us;
try to satisfy all by every detail in handling
LADY ATTENDANT

PERL FUNERAL HOME
John A. & Frank Perl
Ambulance Service
PHONE 2875

LET'S LOOK INTO

Enna Jettick COMFORT

Of course you have to do more than look—you have to try the comfort of ENNA JETTICKS to know what it means. Carefully-designed lasts that seem to belong to your feet. Flexibility. Lightness. A large range of sizes so that you can find your very own. See for yourself!

OTHER STYLES $5 TO $6.50

ENNA JETTICKS FIT WELL because they are WELL FITTED

M. M. DEPT. STORE