CIVIL SERVICE HAS LENGTHY JOB LIST

The United States Civil Service Commission announced today need for additional public health nursing consultants in federal war work, fingerprint classifiers, and open competitive examinations for helper, woodworker, rivet heater, male and female junior stenographers, male and female junior typists and zone deputy collectors.

Nursing consultants, whose salaries range from $2,600 to $5,600 a year, will be appointed in the U. S. Public Health Service, Federal Security Agency and also in the children's bureau, department of labor. There will be no written test, qualifications being judged solely from the experience, education and training of the applicants.

Examinations for helper, woodworker and rivet heater are for the purpose of filling existing and future vacancies at the Puget Sound navy yard, and for stenographers, typists and zone deputy collectors to fill vacancies in northwest states. Full information concerning these examinations, and application forms, may be obtained from Earl H. York, secretary of the board of U. S. civil service examiners, Medford postoffice.

HOUSE SHORTAGE HELPS TAX SALE

Spirited bidding marked the county tax proceedings sale of the B. F. Peart house in Central Point last Saturday, and it was sold to W. E. Alexander, machinery dealer there, for $1,450. Boyd Kaiser was opposing bidder. The present housing shortage in Central Point was given as reason for the amount. The Peart house, built in the 80's, was valued by the county at $795. Five lots went with it. The house was acquired by the county on the 1936 delinquency tax list.

On other pieces of property offered the bidding was light.

DRAFT REGISTRARS CALLED TO MEET

The Selective Service boards of Jackson county have called a meeting to be held at 7:30 Friday night in the auditorium of the court house for all those who have volunteered as registrars for the registration to be held on April 27. The registrars will be instructed on how to proceed with the registration and those who are working at the cantonment will be given their passes to the cantonment. It will also be necessary for anyone who did not work on the last registration to take the oath of office. It is the desire of the boards that those attending the meeting be as prompt as possible as it is hoped to make the meeting brief.

FIND STOLEN CAR BEREFT OF TIRES

Stripped of tires and wheels an auto registered to Louis S. Murphy of Laguna, Calif., was found by the sheriff's office partially hidden in the brush a mile and a quarter west of Jacksonville. The car was stolen in Ashland some time Tuesday night. Authorities said it was the biggest tire theft of its kind so far reported in this county. Personal clothing in the car was thoroughly ransacked and scattered but nothing taken.
