"Strong or weak or in-between—You can't make a bad cup of M.J.B."

—NANCY KELLY tells RICHARD CARLSON while filming Paramount's "FLY BY NIGHT"

RICHARD: I love coffee if it's good and strong—but this looks a little too lady-like for me.
NANCY: Think so? Why not try it first?
RICHARD: I take it back—this is weaker, but it's mighty good. Full of flavor!
NANCY: Apologies accepted. Now I'll make some strong coffee.
RICHARD: It's great! Black as the ace of spades, but not bitter. You're some coffee-maker!
NANCY: No, I'm just average—but anyone can make good coffee every time with M. J. B.

Here's why it never fails! Make your coffee with the same care as you have in the past. These two exclusive M. J. B. features—a uniform roast—and double blending—will give you the finest cup of coffee you ever tasted!
DOUBLE YOUR MONEY BACK! Buy a pound of M. J. B. If you don't agree it's better than any other coffee—return the lid to M. J. B.
Co., and we will refund double

SALEMITES BACK ARMY CAMP BUS

Salem, April 24.—(P)—The Salem chamber of commerce proposal to underwrite a low-cost bus line between Salem and Camp Adair was approved almost unanimously last night at a mass meeting of Salem businessmen.

Carl Hogg, chamber president said the line would be started immediately. He said it is necessary for the businessmen to sponsor the line because bus companies are not interested in the line.

Clay C. Cochran, business extension manager for the chamber, predicted that several hundred new homes would be built in Salem if the city were made a defense housing area. The bus line would make Salem eligible for such a designation.
