

LACK OF LICENSE COSTS FISHERMAN 25 DOLLAR FINE

W. C. Beard, 26, of Fern Valley, a member of the army air corps, home on a furlough, charged with fishing without a license, was fined $25 and costs in justice court yesterday. It was the first violation of the angling laws case of the season.

Beard explained to the court he went fishing with his father in Butte creek and did some himself though he had no license. He further told the court he joined the air corps and was sent home on a furlough until accommodations for training could be made.

Time was given Beard to pay the fine, the minimum under Oregon law.

Arlene Ellen Rowe, 26, of Rt. 1, Central Point, was assessed $1 and costs for failure to stop before entering a main highway. Levi H. Lachbrook of the Eagle Point region, charged with being intoxicated on a public highway, was fined $10 and costs.

Alonzo E. Alexander, a taxi driver, charged with violation of the basic rule, was fined $10 and costs and not $1 and costs as erroneously reported in this paper. The fine was imposed the first of the week. Alexander was charged with exceeding the speed limit of 25 miles per hour on Central avenue, a one-way street.

Observation Posts in Trail Vicinity Need Volunteers for Duty

Shady Cove, April 24—(Sp.) Air observation posts at Shady Cove and Trail were inspected this week by a group of army officers who stressed the importance of keeping the posts manned. Plans were made for Shady Cove and Trail posts to be manned alternate weeks and the officers urged all in the community to participate in the project.

Those in charge in the vicinity said yesterday that more help is needed for night duty at the posts and those who have not taken part are urged to join in the activity and relieve many who have cooperated thus far. Shady Cove and Trail residents are asked to contact chief observers in the districts or call at the posts.

Trail posts will work the week beginning Sunday from 6 a. m. until Sunday, May 3 at 6 a. m. when Shady Cove posts will be manned. This schedule will alternate weekly between the two posts until the army makes other arrangements.
