EX-ZIEGFELD GIRL GRANTED DIVORCE

Los Angeles, June 4.—(AP)—Mrs. Constance Brett, former Ziegfeld girl, testified today that there were 14 rooms in the inn she and her husband operated, and that at one time or another she had found him with a woman in every one of them.

Divorcing Juel Arthur Brett, she said that one time "he got so mad he locked me in my room for a week. A delivery man smuggled milk and orange juice to her via an outside staircase."

Mrs. Brett, known professionally as Constance Ford, asked Superior Judge Alfred E. Paonessa if she could adopt another name.

"You certainly may. Take any name you want except Paonessa."
